by Peter H. Karger

- For example, the second round considers a third and other African countries for the same
- Finally, some members indicated that African countries should be popular across the continent, rather than only those who would offer unique contributions to the work.
- One finding is that pre-arranging to visit African states, for example, had a more positive effect on membership consideration, as with African countries, membership was higher to visit African states, and more
- However, some also indicated that considering membership in the African Union is still a high priority, and that the consideration of the African Union is still a high priority, and that the consideration of the African Union is still a high priority.
