Material Culture In Eretz Israel During The Talmudic Period:

The Archaeology and Material Culture of the Babylonian Talmud Markham J. Geller, 2015-11-02 The Babylonian Talmud remains the richest source of information regarding the material culture and lifestyle of the Babylonian Jewish community with additional data now supplied by Babylonian incantation bowls Although archaeology has yet to excavate any Jewish sites from Babylonia information from Parthian and Sassanian Babylonia provides relevant background information which differs substantially from archaeological finds from the Land of Israel One of the key questions addresses the amount of traffic and general communications between Jewish Babylonia and Israel considering the great distances and hardships of travel involved

Talmuda de-Eretz Israel Steven Fine, Aaron Koller, 2014-07-28 Talmuda de Eretz Israel Archaeology and the Rabbis in Late Antique Palestine brings together an international community of historians literature scholars and archaeologists to explore how the integrated study of rabbinic texts and archaeology increases our understanding of both types of evidence and of the complex culture which they together reflect This volume reflects a growing consensus that rabbinic culture was an embodied culture presenting a series of case studies that demonstrate the value of archaeology for the contextualization of rabbinic literature It steers away from later twentieth century trends particularly in North America that stressed disjunction between archaeology and rabbinic literature and seeks a more holistic approach

A Dictionary of Jewish Babylonian Aramaic of the Talmudic and Geonic Periods Michael Sokoloff, 2002 The first new dictionary of Jewish Babylonian Aramaic in a century this towering scholarly achievement provides a complete lexicon of the entire vocabulary used in both literary and epigraphic sources from the Jewish community in Babylon from the third century C E to the twelfth century Author Michael Sokoloff s primary source is of course the Babylonian Talmud one of the most important and influential works in Jewish literature Unlike the authors of previous dictionaries of this dialect however he also uses a variety of other sources from inscriptions and legal documents to other rabbinical literature A Dictionary of Jewish Babylonian Aramaic also differs from earlier lexographic efforts in its focus on a single dialect Previous dictionaries have been composite works containing various Aramaic dialects from different periods blurring distinctions in meaning and nuance Sokoloff has been able to draw on the most current linguistic and textual scholarship to ensure the complete accuracy of his lexical entries each of which is divided into six parts lemma or root part of speech English gloss etymology semantic features and bibliographic references Another important feature in this invaluable reference work is its index of all cited passages which allows the reader of a given text to easily find the semantics of a particular word In addition to linguists and specialists in Jewish Aramaic literature lay readers and students will also find this comprehensive up to date dictionary useful for understanding the Babylonian Talmud

The Origins of Organized Charity in Rabbinic Judaism Gregg E. Gardner, 2015-06-04 This book examines the origins of communal and institutional almsgiving in rabbinic Judaism It undertakes a close reading of foundational rabbinic texts Mishnah Tosefta Tannaitic Midrashim and places their discourses on organized giving in their second to third century CE contexts Gregg E. Gardner finds that Tannaim promoted giving through the soup kitchen tamhui and charity fund quppa which enabled anonymous and collective support for the poor This protected the dignity of the poor and provided an alternative to begging which benefited the community as a whole poor and non poor alike By contrast later Jewish and Christian writings from the fourth to fifth centuries would see organized charity as a means to promote their own religious authority This book contributes to the study of Jews and Judaism history of religions biblical studies and ethics The Jewish Law Annual Volume 19 Berachyahu Lifshitz, Hanina Ben-Menahem, 2013-07-04 Volume 19 of The Jewish Law Annual is a festschrift in honor of Professor Neil S Hecht It contains thirteen articles ten in English and three in Hebrew Several articles are jurisprudential in nature focusing on analysis of halakhic institutions and concepts Elisha Ancselovits discusses the concept of the prosbul asking whether it is correct to construe it as a legal fiction as several scholars have asserted He takes issue with this characterization of the prosbul and with other scholarly readings of Tannaitic law in general The concepts of dignity and shame are addressed in two very different articles one by Nahum Rakover and the other by Hanina Ben Menahem The former discusses halakhic sources pertaining to the dignity inherent in human existence and the importance of nurturing it The latter presents a fascinating survey of actual legal practices that contravened this halakhic norm Attestations of these practices are adduced not only from halakhic and semi halakhic documents but also from literary historical and ethnographic sources Three articles tackle topical issues of considerable contemporary interest Bernard S Jackson comments on legal issues relating to the concept of conversion arising from the story of the biblical heroine Ruth and compares that concept to the notion of conversion invoked by a recent English court decision on eligibility for admission to denominational schools An article by Dov I Frimer explores the much agonized over question of halakhic remedies for the wife whose husband refuses to grant her a get bill of divorce precluding her remarriage Frimer's focus is the feasibility of inducing the husband to grant the get through monetary pressure specifically by awarding the chained wife compensatory tort damages Tort remedies are also discussed in the third topical article by Ronnie Warburg on negligent misrepresentation by investment advisors Two papers focus on theory of law Shai Wozner explores the decision rules conduct rules dichotomy in the Jewish law context clarifying how analysis of which category a given law falls under enhances our understanding of the law's intent Daniel Sinclair explores the doctrine of normative transparency in the writings of Maimonides the Hatam Sofer and R Abraham Isaac Kook demonstrating that although transparency was universally endorsed as an ideal some rabbinical authorities were willing to forego transparency where maintenance of the halakhic system itself was imperiled An article by Alfredo M Rabello reviews the primary and secondary literature on end of life issues and contextualizes the much discussed talmudic passage bAvoda Zara 18a And an article by Chaim Saiman offers a critical survey of the main approaches to conceptualizing and teaching Jewish law in American universities it also makes suggestions for new and perhaps more illuminating pedagogic direction In the Hebrew section an intriguing article by Berachyahu Lifshitz presents a comparison of Persian and talmudic law on the status of

promises and the role of the divine in their enforcement Yuval Sinai discusses the halakhic law of evidence particularly the well known two witnesses requirement and departures from it The volume closes with a historical article by Elimelech Westreich on the official rabbinical court in nineteenth century Jerusalem It focuses on the rabbinical figures who served on the court the communities for whom it adjudicated and its role in the broader geopolitical and sociocultural context The Jewish Law Annual Volume 22 Benjamin Porat,David C. both Judaism and Christianity but remains in important ways terra incognita This volume brings together specialists in Jewish studies and Christian studies two closely related disciplines that nonetheless continue to operate in relative isolation Taking into consideration the full panoply of Jewish and Christian identities the volume proposes fresh ways to map the interrelated histories of Jews and Christians Contributions by leading scholars offer new insights into this period informed by a rich variety of perspectives including theoretical literary thematic and material approaches Social Stratification of the Jewish Population of Roman Palestine in the Period of the Mishnah, 70-250 CE Ben Zion Rosenfeld, Haim Perlmutter, 2020-05-11 This book analyzes Jewish society in Roman Palestine in the time of the Mishnah 70 250 CE in a systematic way carefully delineating the various economic groups living therein from the destitute to the poor to the middling to the rich and to the superrich It gleans the various socioeconomic strata from the terminology employed by contemporary literary sources via contextual philological and historical critical analysis It also takes a multidisciplinary approach to analyze and interpret relevant archeological and inscriptional evidence as well as numerous legal sources The research presented herein shows that various expressions in the sources have latent meanings that indicate socioeconomic status Rich for example does not necessarily refer to the elite and poor does not necessarily refer to the destitute Jewish society consisted of groups on a continuum from extremely poor to extremely rich and the various middling groups played a more important role in the economy than has hitherto been thought
