The Book of Hiding Timothy K. Beal, 2002-01-04 The Book of Hiding offers a fluent and erudite analysis of the parallels between the Bible and contemporary discussions of gender ethnicity and social ambiguity Beal focuses particularly on the traditionally marginalised book of Esther in order to examine closely the categories of self and other in relation to religion sexism nationalism and the ever looming legacies and future possibilities of annihilation Beal applies the critical tools of contemporary theorists such as Cixous Irigaray and Levinas challenging widely held assumptions about the moral and life affirming message of Scripture and even about the presence of God in the book of Esther The Book of Hiding draws together a variety of different perspectives and disciplines creating a unique space for dialogue raising new questions and reconsidering old assumptions which is profoundly interesting and well articulated

Ruth André Lacocque, 2004 This volume provides a readable introduction to the narrative book of Ruth appropriate for the student pastor and scholar LaCocque combines historical literary feminist and liberationist approaches in an engaging synthesis He argues that the book was written in the post exilic period and that the author was a woman Countering the fears and xenophobia of many in Jerusalem the biblical author employed the notion of hesed kindness loyalty steadfast love which transcends any national boundaries LaCocque focuses on redemption and levirate marriage as the two legal issues that recur throughout the text of Ruth Ruth comes from the despised people of Moab but becomes a model for Israel Boaz converted to the model of steadfast love becomes both redeemer and levir for Ruth and thus fulfills the Torah In the conclusion to his study the author sketches some parallels with Jesus hermeneutics of the Law as well as postmodern
