Mekeo Inequality And Ambivalence In A Village Society:

Mekeo Epeli Hau'ofa,1981 Mekeo E. Hau'Ofa,1981-01-01 Across the Great Divide Bronwen Douglas,2013-12-19

Across the Great Divide tracks a Pacific historian's fruitful ambivalent engagements with History and Anthropology anticipating experiments in each discipline with the other's theories and praxis. The revised and new essays comprising this collection provide systematic critiques of aspects of received scholarly wisdom about Oceania and are linked by reflexive commentaries addressing recent postcolonial concerns. A varied but coherent set of ethnographic and historical narratives about colonial encounters in Island Melanesia is informed by particular critical focus on the paradoxes and politics of knowing indigenous pasts through colonial texts. From Primitive to Postcolonial in Melanesia and Anthropology Bruce Knauff,2025-10-01 What have anthropologists taught us about Melanesia one of anthropology's most important and intensively studied world regions. In this book Professor Bruce Knauff draws together and critically reanalyzes what we know about major features of Melanesian cultural history warfare and politics gender bodily practices and spirituality as discerned from more than a century of academic study. From Primitive to Postcolonial in Melanesia and Anthropology is arguably the most comprehensive single reassessment of Melanesia as an ethnographic world area to have been published in several decades. Written for students as well as professional scholars this work further broadens our understanding by analyzing the history of Melanesian ethnography and relating this history to the larger relationship between Melanesia as a contemporary world area and anthropology as a field of contemporary human study. Bruce M Knauff is Professor of Anthropology Emory University and the author of three previous books as well as some thirty journal articles and chapters. Knauff's interests span a wide range of issues in the anthropology of Melanesia and he is articulate with general issues of cultural theory and anthropological history. Mekeo Epeli Hau'ofa,1981 Dealing with Inequality Marilyn Strathern,1987-12-10 This 1987 volume comprises ten essays by anthropologists who interrogate the nature of social inequality between the sexes in societies mostly in Melanesia. The Egalitarian Moment D. A. Low,1996 An account of the unsuccessful attempts in Asia and Africa to create egalitarian rural societies. State and Society in Papua New Guinea Ronald James May,2004-05-01 This volume brings together a number of papers written by the author between 1971 and 2001 which address issues of political and economic development and social change in Papua New Guinea. Religions of Melanesia Garry Trompf,2006-09-30 Melanesia boasts over one quarter of the world's distinct religions and presents the most complex religious panorama on earth. The region is famous for its unusual new religious movements that have adapted traditional beliefs to modernity in surprising ways. As the first bibliographical survey to comprehensively cover the entire region Religions of Melanesia is an invaluable research aid for anyone interested in this growing field. Trompf's work is a complete listing of scholarly publications and provides readable and concise descriptions that will clearly guide the researcher toward the most relevant sources. This survey covers 2188 entries organized topically and regionally. Trompf covers such subjects as traditional and modern belief systems and the emergent indigenous Christianity that has taken root Regional coverage includes Irian Jaya Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu New Caledonia and Fiji Antiliberal Internationalism in the Twentieth Century Matthijs Lok, Marjet Brolsma, Robin de Bruin, Stefan Couperus, Rachel McElroy White, 2025-05-21 This book shows how antiliberal discourse thought and mobilization have in defiance of nationalist aims been significantly shaped and determined in the international sphere as new collaborations position themselves against the liberal order established after the fall of the Berlin Wall Despite often drawing inspiration from nationalist movements and ideologies antiliberalism is a phenomenon that transcends domestic contexts and settings in important ways This collection of essays charts the many sided aspects of twentieth century internationalism and its contemporary developments across the globe Without excluding well known European sources of antiliberal internationalism it decentres the European experience by exploring specific case studies from South and East Asia the Middle East the Americas Africa and Oceania Moreover the volume abundantly demonstrates that liberalism and anti liberalism cannot be considered as fixed entities as anti liberalism was and is as much defined by its enemies as by its advocates This book is intended for scholars and students of International Studies Intellectual History Political History Political Science European Studies and Global Studies as well as for journalists and policymakers interested in contemporary Europe cosmopolitanism political polarization and the traditions of the right and far right Pacific Places, Pacific Histories Brij V. Lal, 2004-04-30 Places matter We are shaped by them and in turn we shape them physically and imaginatively They connect us to time and locality perhaps even to life and death itself This is a book about places and how our engagement with them complex changing and varied forms and transforms our understanding of them of ourselves of the human condition itself Pacific Places Pacific Histories brings together leading Pacific Islands studies scholars and invites them to talk about the places they have inhabited and to contemplate the meaning of that experience The result is a veritable collage of reflections distinct and different from each other but moving in their collective impact Our engagement with places becomes daily more complicated with the transnational movement of peoples ideas technologies and cultures Global capitalism relentlessly alters established ethnographic assumptions about the meaning and importance of where we are and have been The essays presented here are about letting go learning and un learning transgressing physical emotional and intellectual boundaries They are about personal quests narrated in distinctive voices raising particular concerns Together they contribute significantly to our understanding of how small islands in a vast ocean enable us to see ourselves and the world around us Quadripartite Structures Mark S.
