Memoirs Of A Chinese Marshal The Autobiographical Notes Of Peng Dehuai 18981974:

Memoirs of a Chinese Marshal Peng Dehuai, 2005-01-01 This book gives a unique personal glimpse of modern Chinese history from the beginning of the century to the Cultural Revolution through the eyes of one of the builders of the Chinese Red Army Born into a poor peasant family in Hunan Province Marshal Peng Dehuai 1898 1974 enlisted in 1916 in one of the old warlords armies While rising through the ranks to become a regimental commander Peng Dehuai worked underground to organize soldiers rights groups He joined the Communist Party shortly before leading the Pingjiang Uprising in 1928 against reactionary rule After founding the Third Army of the Chinese Red Army Peng Dehuai went on to a brilliant career as an eminent commander before and during the epic Long March in the War of Resistance Against Japanese Aggression and the War of Liberation and in the War to Resist U S Aggression and Aid Korea After Liberation in 1949 he served as Vice Premier of the State Council and Minister of Defence Marshal Peng Dehuai fell into political disgrace in 1959 after addressing a letter to Chairman Mao Zedong pointing out some of the problems in the Great Leap Forward Under virtual house arrest for most of the last 16 years of his life Marshal Peng did manual labour and wrote biographical notes in response to demands for confessions He died under persecution during the Cultural Revolution on November 29 1974 Exonerated by the CPC Central Committee in 1978 Marshal Peng Dehuai has been restored to his rightful place in history as one of the greatest military leaders in China s revolution

China's Use of Military Force Andrew Scobell, 2003-09-08 In this unique study of China s militarism Andrew Scobell examines the use of military force abroad as in Korea 1950 Vietnam 1979 and the Taiwan Strait 1995 1996 and domestically as during the Cultural Revolution of the late 1960s and in the 1989 military crackdown in Tiananmen Square Debunking the view that China has become increasingly belligerent in recent years because of the growing influence of soldiers Scobell concludes that China s strategic culture has remained unchanged for decades Nevertheless the author uncovers the existence of a Cult of Defense in Chinese strategic culture The author warns that this Cult of Defense disposes Chinese leaders to rationalize all military deployment as defensive while changes in the People s Liberation Army s doctrine and capabilities over the past two decades suggest that China s twenty first century leaders may use military force more readily than their predecessors

Ghost Flames Charles J. Hanley, 2020-08-25 A powerful character driven narrative of the Korean War from the Pulitzer Prize winning writer who helped uncover some of its longest held and darkest secrets The war that broke out in Korea on a Sunday morning seventy years ago has come to be recognized as a critical turning point in modern history as the first great clash of arms of the Cold War the last conflict between superpowers the root of a nuclear crisis that grips the world to this day In this vivid emotionally compelling and highly original account Charles J Hanley tells the story of the Korean War through the eyes of twenty individuals who lived through it from a North Korean refugee girl to an American nun a Chinese general to a black American prisoner of war a British journalist to a U S Marine hero This is an intimate deeper kind of history whose meticulous research and rich detail drawing on recently unearthed materials and eyewitness accounts bring the true face of the Korean War and the vastness of its human tragedy into a sharper focus than ever before The forgotten war becomes unforgettable For Your Information, New Acquisitions National Defense University. Library, Worse Than a Monolith Thomas J. Christensen, 2011-03-14 In brute force struggles for survival such as the two World Wars disorganization and divisions within an enemy alliance are to one's own advantage However most international security politics involve coercive diplomacy and negotiations short of all out war Worse Than a Monolith demonstrates that when states are engaged in coercive diplomacy combining threats and assurances to influence the behavior of real or potential adversaries divisions rivalries and lack of coordination within the opposing camp often make it more difficult to prevent the onset of conflict to prevent existing conflicts from escalating and to negotiate the end to those conflicts promptly Focusing on relations between the Communist and anti Communist alliances in Asia during the Cold War Thomas Christensen explores how internal divisions and lack of cohesion in the two alliances complicated and undercut coercive diplomacy by sending confusing signals about strength resolve and intent In the case of the Communist camp internal mistrust and rivalries catalyzed the movement's aggressiveness in ways that we would not have expected from a more cohesive movement under Moscow's clear control Reviewing newly available archival material Christensen examines the instability in relations across the Asian Cold War divide and sheds new light on the Korean and Vietnam wars While recognizing clear differences between the Cold War and post Cold War environments he investigates how efforts to adjust burden sharing roles among the United States and its Asian security partners have complicated U S China security relations since the collapse of the Soviet Union Propaganda and Culture in Mao's China Timothy Cheek, 1997 This biography of Deng Tuo 1912-1966 is a social history of intellectuals as agents in China's socialist revolution It places Deng Tuo's writings and ideas in the rich context of his social experience as a member of the Communist bureaucracy and as an elite artist and aesthete The tension between service to politics and service to culture was ultimately disastrous for Deng and for China's revolution his ghost haunts the halls of power in Beijing today Mao's Forgotten Successor Robert Weatherley, 2010-07-30 Hua Guofeng succeeded Mao in 1976 emerging almost out of nowhere following an unexceptional career in Shanxi and Hunan In just over two years Hua had been eclipsed by Deng Xiaoping a more politically shrewd progressive and charismatic figure If Hua's rise to power was remarkable then this fall was even more so

The Korean War Stanley Sandler, 2014-10-17 The Korean War has been termed The Forgotten War or the Unknown War It is a conflict which never assumed the mythic character of the American Civil War or World War II However this book asserts it would be impossible to understand the Cold War and indeed post 1945 global history without knowledge of the Korean War Providing a history of the Korean peninsula before the war and including a detailed analysis of the fighting itself The Korean War goes beyond the battlefield to deal with the war in the air ground attack and air evacuation The study also evaluates the contributions of the UN naval forces the impact of the war on various homefronts and issues such as defectors opposition to the war racial segregation and integration POWs and the media Recently released Soviet documents are used to assess the role of China the Soviet Union North and South Korea and the allied forces in the conflict This fascinating work offers a unique analysis of the Korean War and will be invaluable to students of twentieth century history particularly those concerned with American and Pacific history Voices from the Korean War Richard Peters,Xiaobing Li,2014-02-11 She was homely overweight and over the hill but there was a time when Marie Dressler outdrew such cinema sex symbols as Garbo Dietrich and Harlow To movie audiences suffering the hardships of the Great Depression she was Everywoman and in the early 1930s her charming mixture of pathos and comedy packed movie theaters everywhere In the early days of the century Dressler was constantly in the headlines She took up the cause of the ponies in the chorus lines earning them better pay and benefits She played in productions organized to raise money for the women s suffrage movement And during World War I she claimed she sold more liberty bonds than any other individual in the United States Dressler was an astute observer of public mood and taste When she was lucky enough to find work in the newly minted Hollywood talkies she grabbed the brass ring with fierce enthusiasm even making three films in the year before her death when she was so sick she had to rest between scenes on a sofa just out of camera range The two hundred pound actress s remarkable stage presence captivated audiences even though her roles were not Hollywood beauties She played tough practical characters such as the old wharf rat in Anna Christie 1930 the waterfront innkeeper in Min and Bill 1931 for which she won the Academy Award for best actress the aging housekeeper in Emma 1932 and the title role in Tugboat Annie 1933 She spoke honestly to her audiences and troubled people in the comforting darkness of the Depression era movie theaters embraced her as one of themselves New Acquisitions National Defense University. Library,1985 The Fourth Industrial Revolution and Military-Civil Fusion Yoram Evron,Richard A. Bitzinger,2023-06-15 Examines the global interaction between military civil fusion and the fourth industrial revolution and how it affects military innovation The Korean War Keith D. McFarland,2009-12-04 The Korean War is the most comprehensive and detailed bibliography compiled to date on the American involvement in The Forgotten War In this revised and expanded second edition Keith D McFarland s clearly written annotations provide concise descriptions of more than 2 600 of the most important books articles and documents written in English on the conflict in Korea Key topics include origins of the war the political and military roles of North and South Korea the United States the Soviet Union China Great Britain Canada Australia South Africa Turkey and other United Nations members campaigns and battles weapons and uniforms and the military and diplomatic aspects of the war Specific subjects are easy to find using the index organized by topic and author making The Korean War a necessity for every academic or research library China's Road to Disaster Frederick C. Teiwes,Warren Sun,1998-12-14 This text analyzes the dramatic shifts in Chinese Communist Party economic policy during the mid to late 1950s which eventually resulted in 30 to 45 million deaths through starvation as a result of the failed policies of the Great Leap Forward Teiwes examines both the substance and the process of economic policy making in that period explaining how the rational policies of opposing rash advance in 1956-57 gave way to the fanciful policies of the Great Leap and assessing responsibility for the failure to adjust adequately those policies even as signs of disaster began to reach higher level decision makers In telling this story Teiwes focuses on key participants in the process throughout both rational and utopian phases Mao other top leaders central economic bureaucracies and local party leaders The analysis rejects both of the existing influential explanations in the field the long dominant power politics approach focusing on alleged clashes within the top leadership and David Bachman's recent institutional interpretation of the origins of the Great Leap Instead this study presents a detailed picture of an exceptionally Mao dominated process where no other actor challenged his position where the boldest step any actor took was to try and influence his preferences and where the system in effect became paralyzed while Mao kept changing signals as disaster unfolded China's Road to Disaster: Mao, Central Politicians and Provincial Leaders in the Great Leap Forward, 1955-59 Frederick C Teiwes, Warren Sun, 2016-07-01

Tucker, 2014-12-16 This insightful encyclopedia examines the most influential commanders who have shaped military history and the course of world events from ancient times to the present From Alexander the Great and Attila the Hun to Ho Chi Minh and Colin Powell 500 Great Military Leaders provides readers with insight into the most innovative and prominent individuals who have led armies to victory on battlefields all over the world The broad coverage ranges from military leaders from the ancient world to the present day including political figures who directed war efforts and those who were responsible for major technological improvements This encyclopedia goes beyond providing factual information about each individual's life to delve into the greater historical context and impact on their contemporaries as well as on future military history The presentation of information is designed to enable readers to both observe the gradual evolution of warfare over time and clearly perceive the differences in tactics used by generals with varying military resources at their disposal The entries include not only information on the individual's life and work but a summary statement that assesses successes and failures across each leader's career and summarizes the overall impact Each entry also provides several references for further reading about that individual The accessible writing style of this resource and in depth information and analyses make it appropriate for high school and undergraduate level students as well as scholars of military history and individuals who simply enjoy reading about military history

Politics and Purges in China Frederick C. Teiwes, 1993 Drawing upon released documents memoirs and party history works the process and impact of the political campaigns in China between 1950 and 1965 is documented Complete with extensive interviews with Chinese scholars and former officials the book reviews the findings of the first edition

A Military History of the Cold War, 1944-1962 Jonathan M. House, 2014-04-28 The Cold War did not culminate in World War III as so many in the 1950s and 1960s feared yet it spawned a host of military engagements that affected millions of lives This book is the first comprehensive multinational overview of military affairs during the early Cold War beginning with conflicts during World War II in Warsaw Athens and Saigon and ending with the Cuban Missile Crisis A major theme of this account is the relationship between government policy and military preparedness and strategy Author Jonathan M House tells of generals engaging in policy confrontations with their governments political leaders among them Anthony Eden Nikita Khrushchev and John F Kennedy many of whom made military decisions that hamstrung their own political goals In the pressure cooker atmosphere of atomic preparedness politicians as well as soldiers seemed instinctively to prefer military solutions to political problems And national security policies had military implications that took on a life of their own The invasion of South Korea convinced European policy makers that effective deterrence and containment required building up and maintaining credible forces Desire to strengthen the North Atlantic alliance militarily accelerated the rearmament of West Germany and the drive for its sovereignty In addition to examining the major confrontations nuclear and conventional between Washington Moscow and Beijing including the crises over Berlin and Formosa House traces often overlooked military operations against the insurgencies of the era such as French efforts in Indochina and Algeria and British struggles in Malaya Kenya Cyprus and Aden Now more than fifty years after the events House describes understanding the origins and trajectory of the Cold War is as important as ever By the late 1950s the United States had sent forces to Vietnam and the Middle East setting the stage for future conflicts in both regions House's account of the complex relationship between diplomacy and military action directly relates to the insurgencies counterinsurgencies and confrontations that now occupy our attention across the globe Asymmetric

Conflicts T. V. Paul, 1994-03-10 This book examines a question generally neglected in the study of international relations why does a militarily and economically less powerful state initiate conflict against a relatively strong state T V Paul analyses this phenomenon by focusing on the strategic and political considerations domestic and international which influence a weaker state to initiate war against a more powerful adversary The key argument of deterrence theory is that the military superiority of the status quo power coupled with a credible retaliatory threat will prevent attack by challengers The author challenges this assumption by examining six twentieth century asymmetric wars from the Japanese offensive against Russia in 1904 to the Argentine invasion of the Falkland Islands in 1982 The book's findings have wide implications for the study of war power deterrence coercive diplomacy strategy arms races and alliances

Women and Politics in Wartime China Vivienne Xiangwei Guo, 2018-12-07 Focusing on Chinese elite women as a special socio political group this book places the sophisticated networks they formed in the shifting geographical social cultural and political spaces of wartime China where their political engagement knowledge making and network building in support of national resistance and reconstruction kangzhan jianguo unfolded By examining the emergence development integration and transformation of these networks as an unsettled fragmented process a process that lasted through the extended wars and upheavals in China from the 1930s to the 1950s and that moves beyond party ideologies and geopolitical borders the book seeks to explore the dynamics of war politics and gender in the broader context of the Second World War
