through the year in Paris and in London and apparently with unusual difficulty in the midst of other undertakings Mrs Ritchie quotes several passages from the diary and from letters ranging from October 1843 to August 1844 showing work for Punch and many things in hand besides and nearly all expressing anxiety at the slow and laborious progress of the novel Finally he carried it with him on his journey from Cornhill to Cairo and wrote the last lines and the diary entry just cited in quarantine at Malta on his way home About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
