Women in Nineteenth-Century Europe Rachel Fuchs, Victoria E. Thompson, 2004-11-21 During the nineteenth century European women of all countries and social classes experienced dramatic and enduring changes in their familial working and political lives However the history of women at this time is not one of unmitigated progress theirs was an uphill struggle fraught with hindrances hard work and economic downturns and the increasing intrusion of the public into their innermost private and personal lives Breaking away from traditional categories Rachel G Fuchs and Victoria E Thompson provide a sense of the variety and complexity of women's lives across national and regional boundaries juxtaposing the experiences of women with the perceptions of their lives Three themes unite this study The tension between tradition and modernity The changing relationship between the community and individual The shifting boundaries between public and private Dealing with individual women's lives within a large social and cultural context Fuchs and Thompson demonstrate how strong and courageous women refused to live within the prescribed domestic roles and how many became the modern women of the twentieth century

A History of Women's Writing in France Sonya Stephens, 2000-05-22 This volume was the first historical introduction to women's writing in France from the sixth century to the present day Specially commissioned essays by leading scholars provide an introduction in English to the wealth and diversity of French women writers offering fascinating readings and perspectives The volume as a whole offers a cohesive history of women's writing which has sometimes been obscured by the canonisation of a small feminine elite Each chapter focuses on a given period and a range of writers taking account of prevailing sexual ideologies and women's activities in or their relation to the social political economic and cultural surroundings Complemented by an extensive bibliography of primary and secondary works and a biographical guide to more than one hundred and fifty women writers it represents an invaluable resource for those wishing to discover or extend their knowledge of French literature written by women Marriage and Revolution Siân Reynolds,2012-06-07 A double biography of Jean Marie Roland and Marie Jeanne Phlipon later Madame Roland leading figures in the French Revolution The Idea of Being Free Gina Luria Walker,2005-12-09 Mary Hays 1759 1843 is often best remembered for her early revolutionary novels The Memoirs of Emma Courtney and The Victim of Prejudice In this collection however Gina Luria Walker reveals the extraordinary range of Hays s oeuvre The selections are mainly from Hays s non fiction writings including letters life writing political commentary and essays The extracts demonstrate her importance as an advanced and innovative thinker philosophical commentator and writer of deliberately experimental fiction This Broadview edition includes a critical introduction and full annotation Texts by numerous other writers are interleaved chronologically with Hays s writings to illustrate her idiosyncratic intellectual genealogy how her understanding modulated over time and the multiple ways in which she influenced and was influenced by the most significant issues and figures of her age Memoir of Robert Chambers William Chambers,1872 Memoirs and Correspondence of Richard Marquess Wellesley, Comprising Numerous Letters and Documents, Now First Published from Original Mss Richard Wellesley,1846 Memoir of Robert Chambers with Autobiographic Reminiscences of William Chambers Anonymous,2023-05-11 Reprint of the original first published in 1872 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost Memoirs and Correspondence of the Most Noble Richard Marquess Wellesley... Robert Rouiere Pearce,1846 Classified Catalogue Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1907 Classified Catalog of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh. 1895-1902.
