Outcast But Not Forsaken True Stories From A Paraguayan Leper Colony:

Outcast, But Not Forsaken Maureen Burn, 1986 Fascinating glimpses into the life of a woman banished to the margins of her society these stories exude hard earned spiritual and practical wisdom Follow the remarkable odyssey of Maria Weiss who spent eighteen long years in an isolated leper colony in Paraguay Her vivid stories as told to Maureen Burn read like parables They remind us that faith and solidarity often flourish where one least expects and that there is always someone who is worse off than oneself someone in need of your time hands and a listening ear Christian-Jewish Relations

Through the Centuries Stanley E. Porter, Brook W. Pearson, 2004-12-19 Christian Jewish relations have had changing fortunes throughout the centuries Occasionally there has been peace and even mutual understanding but usually these relations have been ones of tension often involving recrimination and even violence This volume addresses a number of the major questions that have been at the heart and the periphery of these tenuous relations through the years The volume begins with a number of papers discussing relations as Christianity emerged from and defined itself in terms of Judaism Other papers trace the relations through the intervening years And a number of papers confront issues that have been at the heart of the troubled twentieth century In all these papers address a sensitive yet vital set of issues from a variety of approaches and perspectives becoming in their own way a part of the ongoing dialogue Forthcoming Books
