Peripheral Space Of Photography:

The Peripheral Space of Photography Murat Nemet-Nejat, 2003 This profound short essay by Turkish born poet and translator Murat Nemet Nejat explores what separates photography from other artistic media He argues that photographic seeing is not a plastic experience but a meditative one built around a relationship between image and words Through a critique of photographs in the Metropolitan Museum of Art exhibition of 1993 he shows repeatedly how the focal points in photographs are often their mistakes blurs over or under exposure etc and spatially exists in their peripheries

Essays on the Peripheries Peter Valente, 2021-04-22 Essays on the Peripheries contains essays written by translator and scholar Peter Valente over a twenty year period stretching from the 1990s to 2019 They are a record of literary exploration and discovery concerned with the recovery of lost works with those writers whose works were out of print or hard to find and whose names were somehow not fashionable in the current discourse but who are important nevertheless Edouard Roditi Barbara Barg and Tom Savage for example should be better known but their books are largely ignored This collection of essays highlights those works on the periphery such as Turkish poets Seyhan Er z elik and K k skender while it also includes several essays on better known queer authors like Pierre Guyotat and Pier Paolo Pasolini focusing on often overlooked qualities in their work that bear looking at closely These essays on works of literature are complemented by a number of texts on jazz again highlighting important and interesting figures in the world of jazz and free improvisation that may have fallen through the cracks such as the pianist Richard Twardzick and the Ganelin trio which recorded their great experimental work Ancora da Capo in 1980 behind the Iron Curtain Attention is also given to more popular figures such as Stan Getz The volume is completed with a series of essays reappraising Roman poets in the twenty first century offering fresh new translations and readings of authors such as Catullus and Callimachus A collection of essays like an anthology is by its nature incomplete Essays on the Peripheries is a kind of sketch rather than a finished portrait of the author s changing impressions on various subjects over the years while such cities are all confronted with complex issues of economic instability social and racial segregation urban sprawl and shrinking processes both in the inner city and more and more in their ex urban belts they are too often described through dramatically simplifying visual and linguistic tropes In Buffalo such tropes refer dialectically either to the city's past glory or its presumed current cultural political and economical stasis and decline This book takes such tired and familiar tropes and questions them Proximity and Distance in Northern Landscape Photography Darcy White,Chris Goldie,2020-07-02 Northern landscapes are both real places and representations imagined spaces notions which are bound to collide in landscape photography In this book photographers academics curators and archivists from Germany Finland Scandinavia the US and the UK address urgent questions about environmental degradation globalization consumerism and the role of new technologies of representation in relation to landscape Wide ranging case studies examine the interpretation experience and appropriation of landscape in northern Europe northern England Scotland and the Nordic countries The book explores tensions in landscape photography between an emphasis on proximity and the embodied experience of place and space and an advocacy of distance and critical engagement and a questioning of the primacy of direct experience
