Pictorial Narrative In The Romanesque Cloister Cloister Imagery And Religious Life In Medieval Spain:

Pictorial Narrative in the Romanesque Cloister Pamela Anne Patton, 2004 Praised as paradisiacal or denounced as impious fantasy the sculpture of Romanesque cloisters played a powerful role in medieval monastic life This book demonstrates how sculpture in the cloister the physical and spiritual heart of the religious foundation could be shrewdly configured to articulate the most influential ideals and experiences of its individual community Taking as its focus the visually rich highly organized narrative programs of three twelfth century Spanish cloisters this book reveals the power of such imagery to reflect and reinforce the social and spiritual preoccupations of its age Art of Estrangement Pamela Anne Patton, 2012 Examines the influential role of visual images in reinforcing the efforts of Spain's Christian ruled kingdoms to renegotiate the role of their Jewish minority following the territorial expansions of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries Provided by publisher A Companion to Medieval Art Conrad Rudolph, 2019-05-07 A fully updated and comprehensive companion to Romanesque and Gothic art history This definitive reference brings together cutting edge scholarship devoted to the Romanesque and Gothic traditions in Northern Europe and provides a clear analytical survey of what is happening in this major area of Western art history The volume comprises original theoretical historical and historiographic essays written by renowned and emergent scholars who discuss the vibrancy of medieval art from both thematic and sub disciplinary perspectives Part of the Blackwell Companions to Art History A Companion to Medieval Art Second Edition features an international and ambitious range of contributions covering reception formalism Gregory the Great pilgrimage art gender patronage marginalized images the concept of spolia manuscript illumination stained glass Cistercian architecture art of the crusader states and more Newly revised edition of a highly successful companion including 11 new articles Comprehensive coverage ranging from vision materiality and the artist through to architecture sculpture and painting Contains full color illustrations throughout plus notes on the book's many distinguished contributors A Companion to Medieval Art Romanesque and Gothic in Northern Europe Second Edition is an exciting and varied study that provides essential reading for students and teachers of Medieval art The Routledge Companion to Medieval Iconography Colum Hourihane, 2016-12-19 Sometimes enjoying considerable favor sometimes less iconography has been an essential element in medieval art historical studies since the beginning of the discipline Some of the greatest art historians including M le Warburg Panofsky Morey and Schapiro have devoted their lives to understanding and structuring what exactly the subject matter of a work of medieval art can tell Over the last thirty or so years scholarship has seen the meaning and methodologies of the term considerably broadened This companion provides a state of the art assessment of the influence of the foremost iconographers as well as the methodologies employed and themes that underpin the discipline The first section focuses on influential thinkers in the field while the second covers some of the best known methodologies the third and largest section looks at some of the major themes in medieval art Taken together the three sections include thirty eight chapters each of which deals with an individual topic An introduction historiographical evaluation and bibliography accompany the individual essays The authors are recognized experts in the field and each essay includes original analyses and or case studies which will hopefully open the field for future research Envisioning Others: Race, Color, and the Visual in Iberia and Latin America ,2015-10-05

Envisioning Others offers a multidisciplinary view of the relationship between race and visual culture in the Spanish and Portuguese speaking world from the kingdoms of Spain and Portugal to colonial Peru and Colombia post Independence Mexico and the pre Emancipation United States Contributed by specialists in Latin American and Iberian art history literature history and cultural studies its ten chapters take a transnational view of what race meant and how visual culture supported and shaped this meaning within the Ibero American sphere from the late Middle Ages to the modern era Case studies and regionally focused essays are balanced by historiographical and theoretical offerings for a fresh perspective that challenges the reader to discern broad intersections of race color and the visual throughout the Iberian world Contributors are Beatriz Balanta Charlene Villase or Black Larissa Brewer Garc a Ananda Cohen Suarez Elisa Foster Grace Harpster Ilona Katzew Matilde Mateo Mey Yen Moriuchi and Erin Kathleen Rowe The Nave Sculpture of Vézelay Kirk Ambrose,2006

This scholarly work fundamentally changes the way we think about the monastic church of Vezelay and its sculptures Kirk Ambrose provides a new account of the celebrated sculptural ensemble at this important French Romanesque monastic church Whereas scholarly attention in the past has focused almost exclusively on the Pentecostal portal Ambrose devotes most of his analysis to the nave capitals He considers how these works intersect with various aspects of monastic culture from poetry to a sign language used during observed periods of silence From this study it emerges how many of the sculptures resonated with communal practices and with interpretive modes in use at the site Deeming the attempt to uncover an underlying or unifying program to be an anachronistic project Ambrose explores historically specific ways this ensemble cohered for medieval viewers Covering a range of themes including hagiography ornament and violence he develops alternative approaches for the examination of serial imagery As a result this book has broad implications for the study of eleventh and twelfth century art in the West BOOK JACKET Beyond the Yellow Badge Mitchell Merback,2008 Bringing together thirteen leading art historians Beyond the Yellow Badge seeks to reframe the relationship between European visual culture and the many changing aspects of the Christian majority s negative conceptions of Jews and Judaism during the Middle Ages and early modern periods Romanesque and the Past John McNeill,Richard Plant,2024-11-01 The nineteen papers collected in this volume explore a notable phenomenon that of retrospection in the art and architecture of Romanesque Europe They arise from a conference organized by the British Archaeological Association in 2010 and reflect its interest in how and why the past manifested itself in the visual culture of the 11th and 12th centuries This took many forms from the casual re use of ancient material to a specific desire to re present or emulate earlier objects and buildings Central to it is a concern for the revival of Roman and early medieval forms spolia selective quotation archaism and the construction of histories The individual essays presented here cover a wide range of topics and media the significance of consecration ceremonies in the creation of architectural memory the rise of pictorial concepts in 12th century chronicles the creation of history in the Paris of Hugh of St Victor and the appeal of the works of Bernward of Hildesheim and of Hrabanus Maurus in the centuries after their deaths There are studies of buildings and the ideological purpose behind them at Tarragona Ripoll Cluny Pannonhalma Hungary La Roccelletta Calabria and Old St Peter s comparative studies of Trier Villeneuve and Glastonbury and of Bury St Edmunds Rievaulx and Canterbury and wide ranging papers on the tantalizing evidence for an engagement with an overseas past in Ireland an Anglo Saxon past in England and a Milanese past among the aisleless cruciform churches of Augustinian Europe The volume concludes with an assessment of the very concept of Romanesque

Byzantine Images and their Afterlives Lynn Jones, 2016-12-05 The twelve papers written for this volume reflect the wide scope of Annemarie Weyl Carr s interests and the equally wide impact of her work The concepts linking the essays include the examination of form and meaning the relationship between original and copy and reception and cultural identity in medieval art and architecture Carr s work focuses on the object but considers the audience looks at the copy for retention or rejection of the original form and meaning and always seeks to understand the relationship between intent and perception She examines the elusive nature of center and periphery expanding and enriching the discourse of manuscript production icons and their copies and the dissemination of style and meaning Her body of work is impressive in its chronological scope and geographical extent as is her ability to tie together aspects of patronage production and influence across the medieval Mediterranean The volume opens with an overview of Carr s career at Southern Methodist University by Bonnie Wheeler Kathleen Maxwell Justine Andrews and Pamela Patton contribute chapters in which they examine workshops subgroups and influences in manuscript production and reception Diliانا Angelova Lynn Jones and Ida Sinkevic offer explorations of intent and reception focusing on imperial patronage relics and reliquaries Cypriot studies are represented by Michele Bacci and Maria Vassilaki who examine aspects of form and style in architecture and icons The final chapters by Jaroslav Folda Anthony Cutler Rossitza Schroeder and Ann Driscoll are linked by their focus on the nature of copies and tease out the ways in which meaning is retained or altered and the role that is played by intent and reception Pygmalion's Power Thomas E. A. Dale, 2019-10-25 Pushed to the height of its illusionistic powers during the first centuries of the Roman Empire sculpture was largely abandoned with the ascendancy of Christianity as the apparent animation of the material image and practices associated with sculpture were considered both superstitious and idolatrous In Pygmalion's Power Thomas E A Dale argues that the reintroduction of architectural sculpture after a hiatus of some seven hundred years arose with the particular goal of engaging the senses in a Christian religious experience Since the term Romanesque was coined in the nineteenth century the reintroduction of stone sculpture around the mid eleventh century has been explained as a revivalist phenomenon one predicated on the desire to claim the authority of ancient Rome In this study Dale proposes an alternative theory Covering a broad range of sculpture types including autonomous cult statuary in wood and metal funerary sculpture architectural sculpture and portraiture Dale shows how the revitalized art form was part of a broader shift in emphasis toward spiritual embodiment and affective piety during the late eleventh and twelfth centuries Adding fresh insight to scholarship on the Romanesque Pygmalion s Power borrows from trends in cultural anthropology to demonstrate the power and potential of these sculptures to produce emotional effects that made them an important sensory part of the religious culture of the era

Church, State, Vellum, and Stone Therese Martin, Julie Harris, 2005-12-01 The sixteen essays in this volume were written to honor John Williams s contributions to the study of medieval Spanish art and architecture Contributors from the fields of Art History History and Archaeology were chosen to demonstrate Williams s wide ranging influence as scholar and teacher Thus the collection represents current research by scholars from five countries providing an interdisciplinary international and even intergenerational view of the work being done in Spanish medieval History and Art History today With contributions by Achim Arbeiter Simon Barton Ann Boylan James D Emilio Angela Franco Julie A Harris Peter K Klein Therese Martin Eileen P McKiernan Gonz lez Pamela Patton David Raizman Bernard F Reilly Diane Reilly Roc o S nchez Ameijeiras Jos Luis Senra and Kenneth B Wolf
