Pieces of White Shell Terry Tempest Williams, 1987 Introduction to Navajo culture by a storyteller      Literature of Nature Patrick D. Murphy, Terry Gifford, Katsunori Yamazato, 1998 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Unsettling the Settler Within Paulette Regan, 2010-12-22 In 2008 the Canadian government apologized to the victims of the notorious Indian residential school system and established a Truth and Reconciliation Commission whose goal was to mend the deep rifts between Aboriginal peoples and the settler society that engineered the system Unsettling the Settler Within argues that in order to truly participate in the transformative possibilities of reconciliation non Aboriginal Canadians must undergo their own process of decolonization They must relinquish the persistent myth of themselves as peacemakers and acknowledge the destructive legacy of a society that has stubbornly ignored and devalued Indigenous experience Today's truth and reconciliation processes must make space for an Indigenous historical counter narrative in order to avoid perpetuating a colonial relationship between Aboriginal and settler peoples A compassionate call to action this powerful book offers all Canadians both Indigenous and not a new way of approaching the critical task of healing the wounds left by the residential school system      The Navajo Mira Bartok, Esther Grisham, Christine Ronan, 1996-05 Educational resource for teachers parents and kids      Kinaaldá Monty Roessel, 1993-08-01 Thirteen year old Celinda McKelvey is getting ready for her Kinaalda a coming of age ceremony for Navajo girls When Celinda finishes this ceremony she will be a woman As she tests her strength and endurance and works side by side with her family Celinda will learn what it means to be a Navajo woman      Voice in the Wilderness Michael Austin, 2006-08-15 In her writings Terry Tempest Williams repeatedly invites us as readers into engagement and conversation with both her and her subject matter whether it is nature or society environment or art From her evocation in Desert Quartet An Erotic Landscape of an eroticism of place that defines erotic as in relation to the spiritual connectivity and familial bonds she explores in Refuge An Unnatural History of Family and Place and the political engagement she urges in The Open Space of Democracy much of her work is about relationship connection and community Like much good writing her books invite readers into thoughtful dialogue with the text Frequently in demand for workshops lectures and other speaking venues and well known as an environmental activist Williams has a public persona and voice almost indistinguishable from her written ones Thus the interviews she has often granted in print on the radio on the Web seamlessly elaborate the ideas and extend the explorations of her written texts They also tell us much about the genesis context and intent of her books With her distinctive impassioned voice and familiar felicity of language she talks about wilderness and wildlife place and eroticism art and literature democracy and politics family and heritage Mormonism and religion writing and creativity and other subjects that engage her agile mind The set of interviews gathered and introduced by Michael Austin in A Voice in the Wilderness represent the span of Terry Tempest Williams's career as a naturalist author and activist      A Voice in the Wilderness

Michael Austin, 2006-08-15 In her writings Terry Tempest Williams repeatedly invites us as readers into engagement and conversation with both her and her subject matter whether it is nature or society environment or art From her evocation in Desert Quartet An Erotic Landscape of an eroticism of place that defines erotic as in relation to the spiritual connectivity and familial bonds she explores in Refuge An Unnatural History of Family and Place and the political engagement she urges in The Open Space of Democracy much of her work is about relationship connection and community Like much good writing her books invite readers into thoughtful dialogue with the text Frequently in demand for workshops lectures and other speaking venues and well known as an environmental activist Williams has a public persona and voice almost indistinguishable from her written ones Thus the interviews she has often granted in print on the radio on the Web seamlessly elaborate the ideas and extend the explorations of her written texts They also tell us much about the genesis context and intent of her books With her distinctive impassioned voice and familiar felicity of language she talks about wilderness and wildlife place and eroticism art and literature democracy and politics family and heritage Mormonism and religion writing and creativity and other subjects that engage her agile mind The set of interviews gathered and introduced by Michael Austin in A Voice in the Wilderness represent the span of Terry Tempest Williams's career as a naturalist author and activist Learning to Glow John Bradley, 2000 Provides personal accounts of people who were raised during the Cold War and of those who were directly in contact with nuclear weapons during World War II the Korean War and the Persian Gulf War focusing on the health and environmental hazards of nuclear weapons American Women Conservationists Madelyn Holmes, 2004-04-20 This collection of biographies describes twelve women conservationists who helped change the ways Americans interact with the natural environment Their writings led Americans to think differently about their land deserts are not wastelands swamps have value and harmful insects don't have to be controlled chemically These women not only wrote on behalf of conservation of the American landscape but also described strategies for living exemplary environmentally sound lives during the past century From a bird lover to a back to the land activist these women gave early warning of the detrimental effects of neglecting conservation The main part of this work covers six historical figures who pioneered in their thinking and writing about the environment Mary Austin Florence Merriam Bailey Rosalie Edge Marjory Stoneman Douglas Helen Nearing and Rachel Carson A later chapter gives portraits of six post World War II conservationists Faith McNulty Ann Zwinger Sue Hubbell Anne LaBastille Mollie Beattie and Terry Tempest Williams The work covers a broad range of conservationist concerns including preservation of deserts and old growth forests wildlife protection wetlands maintenance self sufficient sustainable ways of producing food and pollution control A conclusion examines where conservationists have picked up after Rachel Carson's Silent Spring 1962 and gives conservation ideas for our time An appendix lists the published writings of the twelve conservationists At Home on the Earth David Landis Barnhill, 1999-08-05 The physical earth is clearly under unprecedented siege heated toxified scraped But almost as if they were antibodies the finest nature writers of any era have come forward to help in the fight This anthology collects many of the most important at their most eloquent May it ring and echo and do some good Bill McKibben author of The End of Nature This is a stunning collection of vivid writing about landscapes and the people who inhabit them The diverse narratives gathered here do more than describe hawks diving and twigs snapping although the book has its share of moving accounts of the natural world A concern to live responsibly in nature runs through this evocative anthology like a subterranean stream and that moral impulse together with the lively prose makes this the best collection of nature writing I've seen Thomas A Tweed editor of Retelling U S Religious History

Encyclopedia of the Environment in American Literature Geoff Hamilton, Brian Jones, 2014-01-10 This encyclopedia introduces readers to American poetry fiction and nonfiction with a focus on the environment broadly defined as humanity's natural surroundings from the discovery of America through the present The work includes biographical and literary entries on material from early explorers and colonists such as Columbus Bartolome de Las Casas and Thomas Harriot Native American creation myths canonical 18th and 19th century works of Jefferson Emerson Thoreau Whitman Hawthorne Twain Dickinson and others to more recent figures such as Jack London Ernest Hemingway Norman Mailer Stanley Cavell Rachel Carson Jon Krakauer and Al Gore It is meant to provide a synoptic appreciation of how the very concept of the environment has changed over the past five centuries offering both a general introduction to the topic and a valuable resource for high school and university courses focused on environmental issues

Restoring Relations Through Stories Renae Watchman, 2024-04-30 This insightful volume delves into land-based Din and Dene imaginaries as embodied in stories oral literary and visual Like the dynamism and kinetic facets of hzh Restoring Relations Through Stories takes us through many landscapes places and sites Renae Watchman introduces the book with an overview of stories that bring Ts Bit'a or Shiprock Peak the sentinel located in what is currently the state of New Mexico to life The book then introduces the dynamic field of Indigenous film through a close analysis of two distinct Din-directed feature-length films and ends by introducing Dene literatures While the Din those from the four sacred mountains in Din tah in the southwestern United States are not now politically and economically cohesive with the Dene who are in Denendeh in Canada they are ancestral and linguistic relatives In this book Watchman turns to literary and visual texts to explore how relations are restored through stories showing how literary linkages from land-based stories affirm Din and Dene kinship She explores the power of story to forge ancestral and kinship ties between the Din and Dene across time and space through re-storying of relations A complex Din worldview and philosophy that cannot be defined with one word in the English language Hzh means to continually strive for harmony beauty balance peace and happiness but most importantly the Din have a right to it

White Shell Water Place F. Richard Sanchez, 2020-07-02 This anthology a companion to the Santa Fe 400th Anniversary Commemoration publication All Trails Lead to Santa Fe affords Native American authors the opportunity to unreservedly express their ideas opinions and perspectives on the historical and cultural aspects of Santa Fe using their own voice and preferred writing styles that are not necessarily in accord with western academic and writing conventions One cannot truly contemplate the history and culture of Santa Fe without the voices of the Native Americans the original inhabitants of Po oge White Shell Water Place Indeed much of Santa Fe s story is conveyed from a western colonial perspective which until fairly recently has predominantly relegated Native Americans to the fringes However over the last thirty years colonial narratives regarding Native American history and culture have been and continue to be disputed and amended as the pursuit of academic intellectual and cultural self determination gains momentum in respective Native American tribal and academic communities The Santa Fe 400th Commemoration has created an opportunity for the Native American voice to be heard This anthology is a ceremony of Native voices a gathering of Native people offering scholarly dialogue personal points of view opinions and stories regarding the pre and post historical and cultural foundations of Santa Fe American Environmental Leaders: M-Z Anne Becher, 2008 A collection of biographies of the most important figures in American environmentalism from publisher description The Cambridge Companion to American Travel Writing Alfred Bendixen, Judith Hamera, 2009-01-29 A stimulating overview of American journeys from the eighteenth century to the present The Books of the Grand Canyon, the Colorado River, the Green River & the Colorado Plateau Mike S. Ford, 2003 A Bibliography covering one half century of Southwest literature a sequel to Farquhar s The Books of the Colorado River the Grand Canyon Lived Topographies and Their Mediational Forces Gary Backhaus, John Murungi, 2005-01-01 This collection explores the various forms of narrative semiotic and technological mediation that shape the experience of place From the East End of London to Navajo lands to Ground Zero Lived Topographies examines the great effect of language mass media surveillance and other incursions of the contemporary world on topographical experience and description Gary Backhaus and John Murungi have assembled a wide array of scholars to provide an interdisciplinary approach to this subject giving this collection a unique perspective on the phenomenology of place BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Qualitative Inquiry Under Fire Norman K Denzin, 2017-03-02 This collection of recent works by Norman K Denzin provides a history of the field of qualitative inquiry over the past two decades As perhaps the leading proponent of this style of research Denzin has led the way toward more performative writing toward conceptualizing research in terms of social justice toward inclusion of indigenous voices and toward new models of interpretation and representation In these 13 essays which originally appeared in a wide variety of sources and are edited and updated here the author traces how these changes have transformed qualitative practice in recent years In an era when qualitative inquiry is under fire from conservative governmental and academic bodies he points the way toward the future including a renewed dialogue on paradigmatic pluralism Library Journal ,1984 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Native Americans: 22 Books on History, Mythology, Culture & Linguistic Studies Lewis Spence, John Wesley Powell, James Owen
