Pierre Perrault and the Poetic Documentary David Clandfield, Pierre Perrault, Toronto International Film Festival Group, 2004-10-14 One of the great exponents of the direct cinema style Quebecois poet essayist and film maker Pierre Perrault 1927 1999 began his documentary career in radio before joining the more traditional Ren e Bonni ere filming life in the lower St Lawrence In the 1960s he joined the National Film Board of Canada to shoot films in the new direct style taking a small two man crew into communities to reveal their beliefs and allegiances as they coped with social change His legendary trilogy on the Ile aux Coudres opened with his most famous work Pour la suite du monde 1963 Ostensibly a look at the local people s effort to revive a traditional beluga hunt it is actually the beginning of a lifelong inquiry into the relationship between community and national identity This relationship emerges most clearly in the highly poetic Un pays sans bon sens 1970 which brought Perrault into conflict with the NFB The film was sidelined for many years After a trip outside Quebec to Moncton to document francophone student unrest Perrault made a second trilogy this one in northwestern Quebec showing the collapse of traditional farming communities relocated to the Abitibi during the Great Depression Further explorations took Perrault to the northern interiors of Quebec the hunting woods of Maniwaki and to the tall ships retracing Jacques Cartier s voyages of discovery The trilogy culminated in the desolate arctic landscapes of the mysterious muskox and two of his most haunting creations The first major publication on Perrault in English Pierre Perrault and the Poetic Documentary discusses not only the world that Perrault s cinema revealed but a revolution in film making from a great poet Co written and edited by David Clandfield Principal of New College in the University of Toronto Pierre Perrault and the Poetic Documentary also features contributions from scholar Jerry White as well as translations of some of Perrault s writings on film Published by the Toronto International Film Festival Distributed in Canada by Wilfrid Laurier University Press Distributed outside Canada by Indiana University Press The Radio Eye Jerry White, 2009-11-17 The Radio Eye Cinema in the North Atlantic 1958 1988 examines the way in which media experiments in Quebec Newfoundland the Faroe Islands and the Irish Gaelic speaking communities of Ireland use film video and television to advocate for marginalized communities and often for smaller languages The Radio Eye is not however a set of isolated case studies Author Jerry White illustrates the degree to which these experiments are interconnected sometimes implicitly but more often quite explicitly Media makers in the North Atlantic during the period 1958 1988 were very aware of each other s cultures and aspirations and by structuring the book in two interlocking parts White illustrates the degree to which a common project emerged during those three decades The book is bound together by White s belief that these experiments are following in the idealism of Soviet silent filmmaker Dziga Vertov who wrote about his notion of the Radio Eye White also puts these experiments in the context of work by the Cuban filmmaker and theorist Julio Garc a Espinosa and his notion of imperfect cinema J rgen Habermas and his notions of the public sphere and dourard Glissant s ideas about cr olit as the defining aspect of modern culture This is a genuinely internationalist moment and these experiments are in conversation with a wide array of thought across a number of languages
