The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 1, 600-1660 George

Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974-08-29 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 1 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Making and Meaning of a Medieval Manuscript Thomas C. Sawyer, 2025-06-03 Develops a method for placing book historical evidence in dialogue with literary meaning through a detailed investigation of a MS Bodley 851 How do you read a medieval book And what is the relationship between the study of manuscripts as material artifacts and the study of their textual contents This book develops a method for placing book historical evidence in dialogue with literary meaning Medieval manuscripts do not simply witness the texts they contain through the process of their making they preserve and generate knowledge about literature itself Central to the expression of method in this study is a detailed investigation of an immensely complex composite manuscript Oxford Bodleian Library MS Bodley 851 This manuscript survives as an important representative of textual cultures popular in late medieval England it attests the work of at least eight scribal agents and contains an infamous scribal version of Piers Plowman Z text the sole surviving copy of Walter Map's De nugis curialium and an array of satirical Anglo Latin poetry including the Apocalypsis goliae episcopi the Speculum stultorum and the Bridlington Prophecy Close attention to the production of Bodley 851 underpins critical examinations of fragmentary misogamy the construction of literary sequences and the extent of pseudonymous authorship in the manuscript record an array of satirical Anglo Latin poetry including the Apocalypsis goliae episcopi the Speculum stultorum and the Bridlington Prophecy Close attention to the production of Bodley 851 underpins critical examinations of fragmentary misogamy the construction of literary sequences and the extent of pseudonymous authorship in the manuscript record an array of satirical Anglo Latin poetry including the Apocalypsis goliae episcopi the Speculum stultorum and the Bridlington Prophecy Close attention to the production of Bodley 851 underpins critical examinations of fragmentary misogamy the construction of literary sequences and the extent of pseudonymous authorship in the manuscript record English Medieval Narrative in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Centuries Piero Boitani, 1986-07-31 In this detailed study of English narrative verse the author describes and analyses the undisputed masterpieces of narrative such as the works of the Gawain poet Langland Gower and Chaucer as well as anonymous romances and specimens of religious and comic narrative which form the background to more well known poems The Virtuous Pagan in Middle English Literature Cindy L. Vitto, 1989 For pious Christians of every age the question of ultimate concern has been salvation What is necessary to ensure the soul's eternal bliss During the Middle Ages within the Church itself the guidelines were clear baptism reception of the sacraments an attempt to put into practice the teachings of Christ But a theological debate arose on the possibility of salvation for those outside the Church who fell into two basic categories those who had been offered the Christian faith but had refused it the Virtuous Pagan in legend St Erkenwald's Harrowing of Hell Piers Plowman Issues in Salvation the Harrowing as Thematic Climax History of Political Ideas Eric Voegelin, 1998 Annotation Examining the emergence of modernity within the philosophical and political debates of the sixteenth century Religion and the Rise of Modernity resumes the analysis of the great confusion introduced in Volume IV of History of Political Ideas Encompassing a vast range of events ignited by Luther's Ninety Five Theses this period is one of controversy revolution and partiality Despite the era's fragmentation and complexity Voegelin's insightful analysis clarifies its significance and suggests the lines of change converging at a point in the future the medieval Christian understanding of a divinely created closed cosmos was being replaced by a distinctly modern form of human consciousness that posits man as the proper origin of meaning in the universe Analyzing the most significant features of the great confusion Voegelin examines a vast range of thought and issues of the age From the more obvious thinkers to those less frequently studied this volume features such figures as Calvin Althusius Hooker Bracciolini Savonarola Copernicus Tycho de Brahe and Giordano Bruno Devoting a considerable amount of attention to Jean Bodin Voegelin presents him as a prophet of a new true religion amid the civilizational disorder of the post Christian era Focusing on such traditional themes as monarchy just war theory and the philosophy of law this volume also investigates issues within astrology cosmology and mathematics Religion and the Rise of Modernity is a valuable work of scholarship not only because of its treatment of individual thinkers and doctrines influential in the sixteenth century and beyond but also because of its close examination of those experiences that formed the modern outlook The Pilgrim and the Book Julia Bolton Holloway, 1992 Julia Bolton Holloway's The Pilgrim and the Book A Study of Dante Langland and Chaucer investigates major fourteenth century texts the Commedia Piers Plowman and The Canterbury Tales in the light of the medieval theory and practice of pilgrimage especially concentrating on Emmaus and Exodus paradigms Holloway's analysis draws extensively on iconography musicology typology and anthropology The concluding chapter explains why each poet places himself within his poem in his own image as a pilgrim This Noble Craft... , 2022-02-22 The Book of the Incipit D. Vance Smith, Smith offers a theoretical understanding of beginning that departs from the structuralisms of Edward Said the traditional formalisms of A D Nuttall and most medievalist and modernist treatments of closure Instead he views a work s beginning as a figure of the beginning of the work itself and the inception of language as the problem of beginning to which we continually return BOOK JACKET

Memory and Confession in Middle English Literature Kisha G. Tracy, 2017-05-06 This book argues that the traditional relationship between the act of confessing and the act of remembering is manifested through the widespread juxtaposition of confession and memory in Middle English literary texts and furthermore that this concept permeates other manifestations of memory as written by authors in a variety of genres This study through the framework of confession identifies moments of recollection within the texts of four major Middle English authors Langland Chaucer Gower and the Gawain Poet and demonstrates that these authors deliberately employed the devices of recollection and forgetfulness in order to indicate changes or the lack thereof both in conduct and in mindset in their narrative subjects Memory and Confession in Middle English Literature explores memory s connection to confession along with the recurring textual awareness of confession s ability to transform the soul demonstrating that memory and recollection is used in medieval literature to emphasize emotional and behavioral change

Literary Practice and Social Change in Britain, 1380-1530 Lee Patterson, 2024-06-12 As a traditional site of historical criticism medieval studies is particularly well placed to benefit from the recent reemergence of historicism in literary studies But this new critical historicism differs from the traditional criticism in both method and interests differences that are well illustrated by this collection A concern with politics a reliance on the materials of economic and social history a conception of writing as a form of social practices a focus upon the forces of change in medieval culture and unwillingness to observe the usual distinction between literary and historical texts and a historicization of their own activity these characteristics make these essays a significant contribution to medieval studies Moreover both in conception and execution the essays reject the barrier that the humanist account of history has erected between a Middle Ages stigmatized as distant and other and a Renaissance consecrated as the beginning of the modern world Thus they invite the attention of nonmedievalists especially Renaissance specialists who wish to test their assumptions about medieval literature against some of the best recent work in the field The authors consider a wide range of materials Three of the essays explore Chaucer s career as a bureaucrat a diplomat and a poet Other topics include Langland s self constitution in Piers Plowman the medieval production and modern reception of the mystery plays Hoccleve s innovative strategies for offering political advice to his king and the ideological and psychological interests that governed the idea of the city in sixteenth century Scotland All scholars and studies of the Middle Ages comparative literature and literature and language programs generally will appreciate this ground breaking collection Contributors Anne Middleton Paul Strohm Lee Patterson David Wallace Larry Scanlon Theresa Coletti Louise Fradenburg This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a

Kelen, 2007-11-26 This book uses the methodologies of cultural studies and the history of the book to show how editors and readers of the Sixteenth through the early Nineteenth century successively remade Piers Plowman and its author according to their own ideologies of the Middle Ages Medieval Allegory as Epistemology Marco Nievergelt, 2023 This volume shows how late medieval dream poetry explored problems arising from the reception of Aristotle's philosophical work concerning human knowledge Marco Nievergelt explores how the work of three medieval poets in the genre of allegorical fiction addressed these problems in distinctive non academic terms The Shaping of English Poetry Gerald Morgan, 2010 This collection of essays is conceived not as a summary of past endeavours but as the beginning of an attempt to present a sense of the wholeness of a distinctively English literature from Beowulf to Spenser The native alliterative tradition of England is represented by its final flowering in two essays on Sir Gawain and the Green Knight and three on Piers Plowman The renewal of English letters in the fourteenth century inspired by continental models in French and Italian is represented by four essays on Chaucer The poetic achievement of these three medieval masters remains unmatched until Spenser announces himself in a third great age in the history of English poetry and this is represented by three essays on the first three books of The Faerie Queene Spenser's indebtedness to Langland and Chaucer and his philosophical conservatism in drawing on the thought of Aristotle and the tradition of medieval commentary surrounding the works of Aristotle ensure that the tradition of English poetry in the Renaissance is securely rooted in its medieval inheritance Reading and War in Fifteenth-century England Catherine
