Descended from Mughal nobility Akhtar al Nisa Begum Nawab Sarbuland Jung grew up in Hyderabad in southern India

where she lived a quiet private and privileged life at the heart of the state's royal court. In 1896 at the age of 20 she married Nawab Muhammad Hamidullah Khan Sarbuland Jung a prominent lawyer and the scion of a leading Muslim reformist movement. In 1909 the wealthy couple embarked on a four month journey through the Middle East and Europe performing the hajj in Mecca and sitting for tea with the future king and queen of England. A Journey to Mecca and London provides the first full English translation of Begum Sarbuland's Urdu travel diary from this journey of which only three original copies remain. Originally intended for circulation among friends and family and later published her informal entries not only reveal the everyday practices of an Indian woman of her time but also detail her impressions and reactions as she explored the world alongside her husband. As Begum Sarbuland encountered other women and Muslims during her travels those encounters shaped her reassessment of her own identity as a Muslim woman. Her observations hold continued significance for readers interested in critical questions about gender, Islam and identity. Daniel Majchrowicz has thoroughly annotated his translation and paired it with rich appendices including a biographical sketch of Begum Sarbuland and excerpts from Hamidullah Khan's own accounts of their journey. Engagingly written and enriched with years of original research, archival work and family interviews A Journey to Mecca and London restores the nearly forgotten narrative of one of India's first Muslim women travel writers to its rightful place in Indian and Islamic history.

Salma Khadra Jayyusi was awarded Cultural Personality of the Year by the Sheikh Zayed Book Award for her profound contribution to Arabic literature and culture in 2020. The paperback edition of The City in the Islamic World was published to celebrate the occasion.

Personal Narrative of a Pilgrimage to Al-Madinah and Meccah Sir Richard F. Burton, 2018-05-28. Personal Narrative of a Pilgrimage to Al-Madinah Meccah By Sir Richard F. Burton. Impelled by wanderlust and the spirit of adventure and aided by an extraordinary facility in Eastern languages, Sir Richard Burton (1821-90) was one of the great traveler-explorers of history. He was the first European to enter the capital of

Somaliland and the first to discover the Great Lakes of Central Africa He was also an Orientalist of the first rank But it is for his pilgrimage in 1853 to Mecca and Medina and the most sacrosanct shrines of Islam that Burton is best known and for his celebrated book that recorded his experiences during the journey Successfully posing as a wandering dervish he gained admittance to the holy Kaabah and to the Tomb of the Prophet at Medina and participated in all the rituals of the Hadj pilgrimage He is still one of the very few non Moslems to visit and return from Mecca We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience Sir Richard F Burton
