Vickie'S Story John Sherman,2017-12-07 Introduction I still remember the first time I heard about Vickies stroke My husband and I were on a mission trip in Florida working with an international Bible translation team Emails began to pop up on my computer screen with fragmentary pieces of information from home Vickies dogs had been viciously attacked by neighborhood dogs and were in emergency surgery Vickie asked us to pray for the recovery of her precious pets Then the news got dramatically unbelievably worse Vickie herself had had a major stroke and the prognosis was not good recovery uncertain Information was suddenly sparse from the hospital as John and we my husband and I waited for the medical tests and for time to give us some idea of what was ahead for Vickie It had been only the previous Sunday that John and Vickie had done another of their beautiful choral duets at our home church It was less than six months since we had celebrated with John and Vickie at their wedding and reception Vickie was too young to have a stroke John and Vickie had just begun a new life together after suffering through broken relationships in both of their pasts How could God allow such a thing to happen to such a couple As I worked on the sermon I was to deliver back home the next Sunday projected to be on the joy of the Lord I was seized with doubts Could I proclaim this joy with such a heavy heart Could the congregation receive the promise of joy as we wept and waited and prayed It was John Shermans blog that showed us the way He began to chronicle the medical emotional and spiritual struggles that Vickie and he were experiencing beginning that very first day He drew on his deep knowledge of the scriptures As time passed and events unfolded John listened and considered and reflected on the painful times and the hopeful times the frustrations with medical and insurance problems as well as the unexpected joys of love and service received from friends and hospital staff His words and Vickies indomitable spirit through very difficult circumstances drew an ever increasing Facebook audience with dozens of people near and far uplifted and encouraged by their endurance and trust in the Lord John's eloquence in expressing all of these realities was something seldom seen on social media something that seemed truly inspired by the Holy Spirit I recommend John and Vickie's story for your reading If you're dealing with a similar medical issue you'll find it informative as well as encouraging If you're just trying to live a joyful and victorious life you'll be uplifted and inspired by one couple's overcoming journey toward recovery and restoration My favorite text about joy comes from Nehemiah 8:10 Do not grieve for the joy of the Lord is your strength At the time this was written the city of Jerusalem was in ruins and enemies were encircling and numerous Nehemiah helped the people understand that when times were tough those were the times they needed joy the most John and Vickie's story is ultimately a story of finding sustaining strength through experiencing the joy of the Lord's promises and presence That's a message all of us need to hear In Christ

Rev Marie B Allen Congregational Life and Discipleship Pastor New Town United Methodist Church Williamsburg Virginia Friends I know many of you are asleep now Vickie has had a stroke and has no feeling or movement in her left side As her doctor said this is a life-changing episode but I am praying for his light and glory to shine even in a dark moment Thank you all for your continued prayers and support as we navigate through this present uncertainty As I learn more I promise to update you with what I know My apologies Facebook can't convey these thoughts with all that is filling my heart now God bless you John

all environmental books treat the environmental crisis as though humans are in charge of nature rather than part of it The Earth and I is the first book to put all preconceived notions aside and to ask na vely Who are we really What is our relationship to the earth How is it possible that we out of all the millions of species have come to destroy our common home The answers are surprising and have far reaching implications for those searching for solutions Part One tells what is happening to the earth s systems and how they are being destroyed It rewrites the two million year history of humanity s tenure on the earth as if we are part of nature and not separate from it and describes both the earth and the universe as living systems It paints a global coherent picture of the devastation to Earth s air water forests and creatures that is not found elsewhere It reviews assaults on these systems that are not treated adequately if at all elsewhere chemicals radiation plastics detergents biocides noise cars and guns Part Two Digging below the Surface asks why and enters territory not previously explored by environmentalists It describes the various ways to make a living on the earth hunting and gathering shifting agriculture nomadic herding settled agriculture and industrial technology as choices not eras choices coexisting with one another until today It rewrites economics It explores the relationship of warfare slavery religion and human sexuality to the environmental crisis And it is forced to conclude that these aspects of human culture are not only shaped but created by the technologies we use that the use of non human sources of energy interferes with human psychological development and that the unfulfilled urges within us explode in the violent technologies that are destroying our planet The solutions if it is not too late therefore lie in wise choice rather than wise use of our technologies The Chin Kiss King Ana

Veciana-Suarez,2015-09-15 In this lyrical novel set in a Cuban American neighborhood in Miami three generations of women face an unexpected and ultimately life changing trial When Maribel an overly cautious and orderly market analyst gives birth to a severely handicapped baby her mother Adela and her grandmother Cuca must put aside their differences to fill his short life with love This means more than just a shift in attitude for Cuca who speaks regularly to her deceased husband and for Adela a middle aged beautician with a penchant for the lottery and her friend s husband Poetic and poignant spiritual and deeply human The Chin Kiss King explores the resiliency of mothers the power of love the hopefulness of redemption and the meaning of faith in an unforgettable story of family and the ties that bind Annual Report Smithsonian Institution,1892
