

Pink Floyd.

The first major book on the Pink Floyd and the nearest to an official biography of one of the world's biggest selling bands. In this fully illustrated book you can read the day to day story of the Pink Floyd, starting at the very beginning and ending with their last live show "The Wall."

You can see the story come to life in photographs, in black and white and full colour, many never before published... including rare early photographs of their founder, Syd Barrett. Plus biographies of each member of the band... Dave Gilmore, Nick Mason, Roger Waters and Rick Wright.

Also included are posters and long lost ephemera, from the group's own collection. Brilliantly documented, this book shows how Pink Floyd made the change from psychedelia to the spectacular shows for which they are famous throughout the world. Special features include interviews in which the band talk about their music and give reasons for their phenomenal success.
