Queer Theory And Social Change:

Queer Theory and Social Change Max H. Kirsch, 2013-04-15 Queer Theory and Social Change argues that there is a crisis within Queer theory over whether or not its theories can actually deliver change Max Kirsch presents a challenging alternative to the current fascination with post modern analyses of identity culture and difference It emphasizes the need for a discussion of the importance of communities and the role of globalization on queer movements LGBT Studies and Critical Pedagogy in the Twenty-First Century Curry Malott,Brad J. Porfilio,2011-03-01 This book simultaneously provides multiple analyses of critical pedagogy in the twenty first century while showcasing the scholarship of this new generation of critical scholar educators Needless to say the writers herein represent just a small subset of a much larger movement for critical transformation and a more humane less Eurocentric less paternalistic less homophobic less patriarchal less exploitative and less violent world This volume highlights the finding that rigorous critical pedagogical approaches to education while still marginalized in many contexts are being used in increasingly more classrooms for the benefit of student learning contributing however indirectly to the larger struggle against the barbarism of industrial neoliberal militarized destructiveness The challenge for critical pedagogy in the twenty first century from this point of view includes contributing to the manifestation of a truly global critical pedagogy that is epistemologically democratic and against human suffering and capitalist exploitation These rigorous democratic critical standards for measuring the value of our scholarship including this volume of essays should be the same that we use to critique and transform the larger society in which we live and work Feminist Evaluation and Research Sharon Brisolara, Denise Seigart, Saumitra SenGupta, 2014-03-28 This thought provoking book explores the whats whys and hows of integrating feminist theory and methods into applied research and evaluation practice Illustrative cases drawn from U S and international studies address a range of social and health issues The book provides an overview of feminist theory and research strategies as well as detailed discussions of how to use a feminist lens practical steps and challenges in implementation and what feminist methods contribute to research and evaluation projects Reflections at the close of each section invite the reader to consider key questions and common themes across the chapters With a focus on social justice models the book covers ways to conduct feminist research and evaluation in effective innovative and culturally competent ways in diverse social and cultural contexts Pretoria Student Law Review 2020-14-2 Simon Motshweni, 2020-01-01 About the publication Honoured to present to you the reader the 2020 edition of the Pretoria Student Law Review PSLR an annual publication which is the pride of the best law faculty in Africa according to the Times Higher Education World University Rankings The University of Pretoria s Law Faculty ranks in the top 100 law faculties in the world a feat unequalled in Africa The PSLR is a student driven law review that creates an interactive forum for students academics and legal professionals to discuss topical legal matters that challenge the status quo At the beginning of this year lay the fantasy of newness presenting an opportunity to do great things But as I reflect on the journey leading to this publication I understand that the 2020 edition of the PSLR had an engine that ran on hope faith dedication perseverance commitment and hard work Our predecessors had a vision to create a boldly outlined legacy for the PSLR they spearheaded the setting up of a system that would last the lifespan of the PSLR Today some 13 years after the first edition of the PSLR South Africa the continent and the world at large are on the cusp of a new era socially economically and politically When my journey as Editor in Chief commenced I imagined the PSLR as a ship whose captain was myself Customarily it is easy to be a captain of a ship in calm seas but unlike most of my predecessors I have had to be the captain of a ship through the heftiest of storms The world was not truly prepared to face challenges presented by the Covid 19 let alone the PSLR In the wake of the 4IR and this new age of technology sailing this ship to success was still a heavy task to complete. It is therefore with great honour to have been able to successfully complete the task for which we the 14th cohort of the Editorial Board were called for. We have upheld the esteemed reputations that have been left by our predecessors. Fittingly I wish to applaud my team for their inspiring commitment, outstanding contribution and service in maintaining the elevated standard of the PSLR. For indeed it is a publication par excellence. Amidst the storms we have spearheaded the establishment of a free floating PSLR Collection in the OR Tambo Law Library. This collection is dedicated to house all published PSLR editions dating since the inception of the PSLR in 2007. We have established and strengthened relations with other Law Faculties in the country and even beyond. We published the very first special edition of the PSLR, a focused edition that covers a critical issue brought before the South African Law Deans Association: the Decolonisation of Legal Education. We have established a system by which all authors who publish with us ought to have an ORCID iD. We have adopted internal regulations that outline the principles that govern the Editorial Board. We have spearheaded the adoption and implementation of a policy that forces us to comply with DHET Standards in order to be a DHET Accredited Journal so as to encourage and foster a student culture of critical research.

words cannot begin to express my gratitude for all the support you have given me throughout this journey. Thank you for keeping me sane through one of the toughest times of my publishing career. Thank you for the endless amount of support and the unconditional love you give me always. You are the power oil that kept this engine running all by the sufficient grace of God. I hereby pass the baton and entrust the next Editor in Chief with the difficult task of running faster and running a better marathon than myself and my predecessors. To you future author, I implore you to start writing for the water does not flow until the faucet is turned on. To you the reader, Jurgen Zwecker was right: enjoy the read without fear to question what is in front of you for that is the only way we as scholars grow.
