Literary Imagination Elizabeth McMahon, 2016-07-09 Australia is the planet s sole island continent This book argues that the uniqueness of this geography has shaped Australian history and culture including its literature Further it shows how the fluctuating definition of the island continent throws new light on the relationship between islands and continents in the mapping of modernity The book links the historical and geographical conditions of islands with their potent role in the imaginary of European colonisation It prises apart the tangled web of geography fantasy desire and writing that has framed the Western understanding of islands their real and material conditions and their symbolic resonance from antiquity into globalised modernity The book also traces how this spatial imaginary has shaped the modern man who is imagined as being the island s natural inhabitant or mirror Importantly the book challenges these habits of thought by their relocation within larger topological and imaginary visions from islanders themselves      The Island of South Georgia Robert Headland, 1984

This extensively illustrated book is the only comprehensive account of the island of South Georgia      Gazetteer United States Board on Geographic Names, 1966      Island Paradise: The Myth Melanie A. Murray, 2009-01-01 A colonial discourse has perpetuated the literary notion of islands as paradisaical This study explores how the notions of island paradise have been represented in European literature the oral and literary indigenous traditions of the Caribbean and Sri Lanka a colonial literary influence in these islands and the literary experience after independence in these nations Persistent themes of colonial narratives foreground the aesthetic and ignore the workforce in a representation of island space as idealized insular and vulnerable to conquest an ideal space for management and control English landscape has been replicated in islands through literature and in reality the Great House being an ideological symbol of power Island Paradise The Myth investigates how these entrenched notions of paradise which islands have traditionally represented metonymically are contested in the works of four postcolonial authors Jamaica Kincaid Lawrence Scott Romesh Gunesekera and Jean Arasanayagam from the island nations of the Caribbean and Sri Lanka It analyzes texts which focus on gardens island space and houses to examine how these motifs are used to re vision colonial contested sites This book examines the relationship between landscape and identity and with reference to Homi K Bhabha considers how these writers offer an alternative space for negotiating the ambivalence of hybridity Discovery ,1922 The Quest for the Steel P.
