The Silver Blade, The True Chronicle of A Double Mystery Charles Edmonds Walk,2022-11-24 Excerpt About six o clock on an evening in the early part of a recent November the drowsy quiet sometimes pervading police headquarters was rudely broken by the precipitate entrance of a young man who made his way hurriedly to the door marked in neat gilt letters CHIEF OF POLICE In addition to the reserve squad whose vigil never ends many other officers were present in the lazy transition stage between going on and going off duty The attention of them all was immediately attracted to the stranger and held by his extraordinary manner from the instant he became visible in the flickering gas lights until he finally disappeared In the first place he was not such a one as usually comes to the city hall basement either voluntarily or when haled hither by one of the law s myrmidons for he was fashionably even fastidiously attired with a marked preciousness of manner which would have been even more noticeable under ordinary conditions But it was not over any idiosyncrasy of apparel or customary detail of personality that the aroused curiosity of the officers lingered Inured as they were to uncommon and surprising events they were nevertheless startled by this young man s advent and greatly interested in his extreme discomposure It was obvious to the most casual glance that he was the victim of a fright so potent that it possessed him to the complete exclusion of every other feeling made him oblivious of the scrutiny to which he was subjected and drove him blindly to the commission of some idea fixed by the terror which mastered him And there was one other still more powerful emotion depicted in his pallid twitching countenance a horror unspeakable A+. ,1988 Learning on your doorstep: Stimulating writing through creative play outdoors for ages 5-9 Isabel Hopwood-Stephens,2013-05-07 As the Forest School movement gains popularity among UK educators teachers are increasingly recognising the benefits of creative outdoor play But how can busy primary school teachers fit regular high quality outdoor learning into an already crowded timetable How can they plan a range of rich imaginative and creative experiences that build up into full topics And how can they translate the excitement and engagement that they find out doors into increased enthusiasm and attainment indoors Learning on Your Doorstep integrates creative outdoor play with curricular attainment while increasing the challenge enjoyment and professional development of the teachers using it The book presents a series of topics which channel the children s outdoor experience into writing outcomes to reflect the current Primary Framework for Literacy Using child led kinaesthetic teaching and learning techniques each topic helps teacher and class build an imaginary world to explore and includes Session plan tables to enable teachers to easily access relevant information collaborative activities games and drama to stimulate discussion photo copiable items such as letters imaginary maps and animal fact jigsaws optional classroom follow up activities and a final writing task tips on how to prepare and resource each session Guidance on adapting for different abilities and ages is also given along with curriculum links and pedagogical rationale to let primary teachers put creative outdoor play at the centre of the primary teaching timetable The ideas in this book are suitable for implementation in any school environment using resources commonly found in the stock cupboard or home All you will need to add is some preparation and imagination
