Faust and the Divan of Ḥāfīz Hiwa Michaeli, 2019-10-21 This book explores the poetic articulations of a shift from a transcendent to an immanent worldview as reflected in the manner of evaluation of body and soul in Goethe's Faust and his Divan Focusing on two lifeworks that illustrate their authors respective intellectual histories this cross genre study goes beyond the textual confines of the two poets Divans to compare important building blocks of their intellectual worlds

Bodies That Remember Anita Anantharam, 2012-01-30 An engaging and informative exploration of four women poets writing in Hindi and Urdu over the course of the twentieth century in India and Pakistan Anantharam follows the authors and their works as both countries undergo profound political and social transformations The book tells of how these women forge solidarities with women from different castes classes and religions through their poetry The World Is a Waiting Lover

Trebbe Johnson, 2005 And the human yearning to live with fearless authenticity The World Is a Waiting Lover offers an invitation for our time showing us how to bring passion and meaning to our work our relationships and our view of the future Book jacket Paradise and Paradigm Christopher Buck, 1999-05-13 In a novel approach that the author terms symbolic paradigm analysis Paradise and Paradigm offers a theoretically modular systematic comparison of two Persian religions early Syriac Christianity as the foundation of the East Syrian Church of the East the Nestorian Church of Persia and the Baha'i Faith a new world religion The author compares the hymns of the greatest poet of early Christianity Saint Ephrem the Syrian and the richly imagistic writings of the founder of the Baha'i religion Baha'u'llah The book employs an original analytic technique in the creation of symbolic profiles constructed on Ninian Smart's dimensional model of religion As Buck skillfully demonstrates formal similarities between any two religions are best comprehended in terms of paradigmatic differences which nuance all parallels through a process of symbolic transformation Buck also shows the communal reflexivity of paradise imagery in representing the ideal faith community in both traditions Mystery and Secrecy in the Nag Hammadi

Collection and Other Ancient Literature: Ideas and Practices Christian H. Bull, Liv Lied, John D. Turner, 2011-10-28 Mystery and secrecy were central concepts in the ritual rhetoric and sociological stratification of antique Mediterranean religions That the ultimate nature and workings of the divine were secret and either could not or should not be revealed except as a mystery for the initiated was widely accepted among Pagans Jews and then Christians both Gnostic and otherwise The similarities and differences in the language of mystery and secrecy across religious and cultural borders are thus crucial for understanding this important period of the history of religions The present anthology aims to present and analyze a wide selection of sources elucidating this theme reflecting the correspondingly wide scholarly interests of Professor Einar Thomassen in honor of his 60th birthday

The Passion of Love in the Summa Theologiae of Thomas Aquinas Daniel Joseph Gordon, 2023-05-19 This book is an introduction to three questions on love according to St Thomas Aquinas Summa Theologiae I II qq 26 28 These three questions reflect on the nature of love q 26 the causes of love q 27 and the effects of love q 28 It is thus an introduction to the entire phenomenon of love both as a bodily passion and an act of the will The purpose is to present the Thomistic and broadly scholastic account of human and divine love from a philosophical and theological perspective It aims to be a theological and philosophical study of the topic useful both for a graduate professional audience as part of an undergraduate or graduate course and perhaps for the educated reader The thesis of the book is that contrary to contemporary conceptions not all loves are created equal Some loves perfect us and some loves corrupt us The worth of a love depends on its object and end St Thomas thus presents an objective and teleological account of human and divine love that is of philosophical and theological interest The method is broadly exegetical presenting a careful reading of the text and supplying the philosophical and theological background which the text of Aquinas assumes The scope of the work is limited to three questions ST I II qq 26 28 References to interpretative disputes of Aquinas and references to further resources in the secondary literature will be mostly limited to the footnotes making the body of the text accessible to more readers

Two Questers in the Twentieth-century North Africa Imen Ayari Cozzo, 2016-09-23 This book offers a unique exploration of the work of Paul Bowles and Ibrahim Alkoni and reveals timely insights into the relationship between the West and the Orient showing that they both challenge and extend existing scholarship on this subject It builds on a sound theoretical platform which serves as a solid foundation for the analysis of the overarching theme Theories of place representation Orientalism and post colonialism are discussed in depth and are linked to the deconstruction and analysis of the selected literary texts helping the reader understand the various quests and motivations of the protagonists of the works of Bowles and Alkoni The first part of the book looks into the work of Bowles and is based on the fact that many of the author's texts revolve around the theme of encounters between Western and Eastern cultures It adopts a specific focus on the North African space which is depicted from a number of different points of view including native French English and American perspectives The second section discusses the work of the Libyan author Ibrahim Alkoni as a quester for a Mythical Identity It introduces the reader to the significance of the desert in both classical and modern Arabic literature and its place in the Arabic cultural imaginary This work is highly original both in its approach and subject matter and as such it constitutes a valuable contribution to the study of comparative literature Arabic literature and postcolonial magical realist literature It offers many original insights into this little studied field demonstrating a successful venture into less trodden terrain
