Long, 2014-03-11 Tsunamis earthquakes famines diseases wars these and other devastating forces lead Christians to ask painful questions Is God all powerful Is God good How can God allow so much innocent human suffering These questions taken together have been called the theodicy problem and in this book Thomas Long explores what preachers can and should say in response he offers biblically based approaches to preaching on theodicy guided by Jesus parable of the wheat and the tares and the greatest theodicy text in Scripture The book of Job from book jacket The Practical Works of Richard Baxter Richard Baxter, 1838

Who Do You Say That I Am? Michael Root, James J. Buckley, 2014-09-03 No question is more central to Christian living preaching and theology than Jesus question to his disciples Who do you say that I am Some would have it that pastors and theologians biblical exegetes and historians dogmatic and moral theologians Catholic and Evangelical have more differences than similarities in the way Christians with such diverse vocations respond to Jesus question And there is little doubt that there sometimes seem to be unbridgeable gulfs between the way historians and believers Internet gossipers and preachers classical christological debates and present day praying and pastoral care implicitly or explicitly address the Lord s question But the authors here address these and other issues in ways that are remarkably convergent as if a Catholic and Evangelical theology for proclaiming and following Jesus today has emerged or is indeed emerging The Confession of faith; the Larger and Shorter catechisms, with the Scripture-proofs at large, together with the Sum of saving knowledge [&c.]. Assembly of divines confess. and catech, 1857 *Say and seal, by the author of 'The wide, wide world'.
