Questions I Asked My Mother Di Brandt, Diana Brandt, 1987 Winner of the Gerald Lampert Memorial Award League of Canadian Poets Nominated for the Governor General's Award for Poetry and the Dillons Commonwealth Poetry Prize Di Brandt's first book of poetry is a deep cutting exploration of patriarchy within the Mennonite tradition You can feel the warmth of the poets breath sometimes gasping sometimes singing always affirming life itself Read these poems They will take your breath away Magdalene Redekop My Mother Zielfa B. Maslin, 2017-08-21 MY MOTHER A SELF MADE OUTCAST I have a childhood memory of my mothers satisfied and smiling approval whenever I readily replied Im English Ive forgotten what exactly preceded that kind of exchange between us Come to think of it that was strange because no one had ever asked us whether we were English My sister and I are English through and through Both of us were born in Horsham Sussex My abiding memory of my mother is her brown eyes and black long lashes as she kissed and tickled me When I was in my teens I wished I had her long black hair with a tint of brown I imagined that my friends would admire the way my hair swayed as I walked I could still see her glossy hair moving as she walked My mother doesnt have the complexion of an English person She resembles some of the Spanish women weve seen when weve been to Spain for our holidays It was by accident that I found out that she comes from the Philippines Weve never been to the Philippines Shes never talked about the Philippines Ive never seen anyone from the Philippines in our house ROSA 2013 you have in many subtle ways spelled out the life journeys of so many Filipinos WHAT BROUGHT YOU TO ENGLAND 2014 is a very fascinating and enjoyable read You have a gift of drawing your readers in and making them want to read on I honestly couldnt put it down yesterday The Girls Carole Bell Ford, 2012-02-01 This book tells the stories of the Jewish women who came of age in Brownsville Brooklyn in the 1940s and 1950s Through in depth interviews with more than forty women Carole Bell Ford explores the choices these women made and the boundaries within which they made them offering fresh insights into the culture and values of Jewish women in the postwar period Not content to remain in the past The Girls is also a story of women who live in the present who lead fulfilling lives even as they struggle to adjust to changes in American society that conflict with their own values and that have profoundly affected the lives of their children and grandchildren All About My Mother J. S. Quinn, 2014-09-19 All About My Mother A Beloved Daughter's Memoir is the intriguing story of J S Quinn who died in 1997 25 days before her 19th birthday This memoir was written by her mother to show that a child's love can survive death and it also shows the promise of a life barely begun Since she passed J S has been witnessing her mother's grieving right up to the present day She tells the strategies her mother uses to help cope including reading writing and listening to music J S's mother was abandoned as a baby in 1946 at a Catholic orphanage in England J S relates the childhood she spent with her three brothers and her single mother who is of mixed heritage In the early years her mother worked three jobs but still had time to keep her four children busy with activities while pursuing her education to become a teacher J S's death at 18 took a deep toll on her brothers and her mother a British teacher currently living in Thailand who cites her grieving process and why she wrote the book It is really an accumulation of short stories the first of which I wrote in March 2006 as an account of my daughter s last flashes of her life as she was dying It lifted the gloom on nine years of aching grief I have had such a blessed life even with the loss of my daughter The only obstacle was trying to stay true to my daughter s sentiments and voice Good Leaders Ask Great Questions John C. Maxwell,2014-10-07 A 1 New York Times bestselling author and leadership expert answers questions from his readers about what it takes to be in charge and make a difference John Maxwell America s 1 leadership authority has mastered the art of asking questions using them to learn and grow connect with people challenge himself improve his team and develop better ideas Questions have literally changed Maxwell s life In GOOD LEADERS ASK GREAT QUESTIONS he shows how they can change yours teaching why questions are so important what questions you should ask yourself as a leader and what questions you should be asking your team Maxwell also opened the floodgates and invited people from around the world to ask him any leadership question He answers seventy of them the best of the best including What are the top skills required to lead people through difficult times How do I get started in leadership How do I motivate an unmotivated person How can I succeed working under poor leadership When is the right time for a successful leader to move on to a new position How do you move people into your inner circle No matter whether you are a seasoned leader at the top of your game or a newcomer wanting to take the first steps into leadership this book will change the way you look at questions and improve your leadership life The Adults Alison Espach,2011-02-01 From the author of the Read with Jenna Today show book club pick The Wedding People a ruefully funny and wickedly perceptive debut novel that deftly dissects matters of the heart and captures the lives of children and adults as they come to terms with life death and love At the center of this affluent suburban universe is Emily Vidal a smart and snarky teenager who gets involved in a dangerous relationship Among the cast of unforgettable characters is Emily s father whose fiftieth birthday party has the adults descending upon the Vidals patio her mother who has orchestrated the elaborate party even though she and her husband are getting a divorce and an assortment of eccentric neighbors high school teachers and teenagers who teem with anxiety and sexuality and an unbridled desire to be noticed and ultimately loved An irresistible chronicle of a modern young woman s struggle to grow up The Adults lays bare in perfect pitch a world where an adult and a child can so dangerously be mistaken for the same exact thing

Odyssey of a Taishan American James L Eng,2018-12-28 The use of coaching books systematically deceived the American immigration system during the years following the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882 Follow Jim s life as an eight year old immigrant from Taishan whose diligent memorization of false identities dates and places erased all memories of his boyhood in China After facing language difficulties and isolation during assimilation and education he eventually achieves academic success But then he must overcome the institutional racism of the 1950s and reaches the plateau of middle class America during the Cold War He finds himself oddly suited to the silence and secrecy shrouding his work with the military and NASA But despite having lived the American Dream he sees the world as a Chinese American in a racist society Mr Eng completed this memoir at the age of 95 He attributes his health long life and success to his beautiful wife Lan NANO Fiction Volume 5 Number 1 Miah Arnold,Adam Peterson,Kyle Hemmings,Matthew Saleses,Chantel Tattoli, NANO Fiction print ISSN 1935 844X digital ISSN 2160 939X is non profit literary journal that publishes flash fiction a form of short story also known as micro fiction micro narrative micro story microrrelatos postcard fiction the short short the short short story k rzestgeschichten and sudden fiction of 300 words or fewer Featuring twenty to thirty authors in each issue NANO Fiction has roots that draw from Aesop s Fables and Zen Koans Notable practitioners of this prose form include Lydia Davis Franz Kafka Italo Calvino Ignacio Mart nez de Pis n Naguib Mahfouz and Linor Goralik among others This issue of NANO Fiction features works by Miah Arnold Carroll Beauvais Sonya L Bilocerkowycz Christopher Citro Shome Dasgupta Jesse DeLong Erik Doughty Meredith K Gray Lauren Hall Sarah E Harris Joshua R Helms Kyle Hemmings Judy Huddleston Paul Kavanagh Lindsey Kempton Meghan Lamb Robert Lunday Meggie Monahan Kevin O Cuinn Erica Olsen Adam Peterson Jason Poland Matthew Saleses Chantel Tattoli Elizabeth Wade Joshua Ware David Wirthlin Nicholas Y B Wong Brennen Wysong Matthew Yeager David Yost and Jessica Young My Mother's Daughter Perdita Felicien,2021-03-30 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A phenomenal human story I could not put this book down CLARA HUGHES An instant national bestseller this raw and affecting memoir is the story of a mother and daughter who beat the odds together Decades before Perdita Felicien became a World Champion hurdler running the biggest race of her life at the 2004 Olympics she carried more than a nation s hopes she carried her mother Catherine s dreams In 1974 Catherine is determined and tenacious but she s also pregnant with her second child and just scraping by in St Lucia When she meets a wealthy white Canadian family vacationing on the island she knows it s her chance They ask her to come to Canada to be their nanny and she accepts This was the beginning of Catherine s new life a life of opportunity but also suffering Within a few years she would find herself pregnant a third time this time in her new country with no family to support her and this time with Perdita Together in the years to come mother and daughter would experience racism domestic abuse and even homelessness but Catherine s will would always pull them through As Perdita grew and began to discover her preternatural athletic gifts she was edged onward by her mother s love grit and faith Facing literal and figurative hurdles she learned to leap and pick herself back up when she stumbled This book is a daughter s memoir a book about the power of a parent s love to transform their child s life Supreme Court Appellate Division-Fourth Department ,1896 The Only S.E.X. Manual That You Will Ever Really Need Kathy Brunner,2004-06 Hunger of Memory Richard Rodriguez,2004-02-03 Hunger of Memory is the story of Mexican American Richard Rodriguez who begins his schooling in Sacramento California knowing just 50 words of English and concludes his university studies in the stately quiet of the reading room of the British Museum Here is the poignant journey of a minority student who pays the cost of his social assimilation and academic success with a painful alienation from his past his parents his culture and so describes the high price of making it in middle class America Provocative in its positions on affirmative action and bilingual education Hunger for Memory is a powerful political statement a profound study of the importance of language and the moving intimate portrait of a boy struggling to become a man      Separated @ Birth Anaïs Bordier, Samantha Futerman, 2014-10-30 Imagine one day opening Facebook and reading a message from a stranger that says I think we might be twins don't freak out It all began when design student Anaïs Bordier viewed a YouTube video and saw her own face staring back After some research Anaïs found that the Los Angeles actress Samantha Futerman was born in a South Korean port city called Busan on November 19 1987 the exact same location and day that Anaïs was born This propelled her to make contact via Facebook One message later both girls wondered Could they be twins Thus begins their remarkable journey to build a relationship as sisters continents apart Over Facebook Twitter and Skype they learned that they shared much more than a strikingly similar appearance Eventually they traveled to Korea together to discover more about the land of their separation One of Facebook's Top Ten Stories of 2013 Separated Birth is a story that spans the world and peels back some of the complex and emotional layers of foreign adoption      Essential Grammar for Today's Writers, Students, and Teachers Nancy M. Sullivan, 2014-11-21 This innovative grammar text is an ideal resource for writers language students and current and future classroom teachers who need an accessible refresher in a step by step guide to essential grammar Rather than becoming mired in overly detailed linguistic definitions Nancy Sullivan helps writers and students understand and apply grammatical concepts and develop the skills they need to enhance their own writing Along with engaging discussions of both contemporary and traditional terminology Sullivan's text provides clear explanations of the basics of English grammar and a highly practical hands on approach to mastering the use of language Complementing the focus on constructing excellent sentences every example and exercise set is contextually grounded in language themes Teachers students and writers will appreciate the streamlined easy to understand coverage of essential grammar as well as the affordable price This is an ideal textbook for future teachers enrolled in an upper level grammar course yet is also suitable for any writing course across disciplines where grammatical precision is important Instructor materials accompanying the text provide teachers with activities designed for face to face hybrid and online instruction to enliven these basic grammar lessons as well as writing activities to integrate these concepts into students own writing      Caught in the Web of My Mother's Psychosis Marilyn T. Evans, 2022-07-19 Being mentally ill is a lifelong battle of ups and downs and not a lot of people understand or take the time to care to understand the mentally ill Everyone is in a class of their own in the world which makes it extremely hard for the mentally ill and non mentally ill to connect with one another There are so many rules and regulations to follow for mental patients and their friends and family to know and live by Finding a balance for such can be very hard      An Arsonist's Guide to Writers' Homes in New England Brock Clarke, 2008-09-02 Funny profound a seductive book with a payoff on every page People A lot of remarkable things have happened in the life of Sam Pulsifer the hapless hero of this incendiary novel beginning with the ten years he spent in prison for accidentally burning down Emily Dickinson's house and unwittingly killing two people emerging at age twenty eight he creates a new life and identity as a husband and father But when the homes of other famous New England writers suddenly go up in smoke he must prove his innocence by uncovering the identity of this literary minded arsonist In the league of such contemporary classics as A Confederacy of Dunces and The World According to Garp An Arsonist's Guide to Writers' Homes in New England is an utterly original story about truth and honesty life and the imagination
