Questions of Community Daina Augaitis, 1995 Description not found

Mining the Media Archive Dot Tuer, 2006

Mining the Media Archive gathers together an exciting collection of essays by writer and cultural theorist Dot Tuer Ranging from monographs on new media artists to a history of Canada's most controversial artist run centre the CEAC to testimonial writing on cultural politics and post colonialism in Canada and Argentina Tuer's writings address issues of global media and local remembrance through a unique blend of storytelling archival research and cultural analysis

Retooling the Humanities Daniel Coleman, Smaro Kamboureli, 2012-07-02 Is market driven research healthy Responding to the language of knowledge mobilization that percolates through Canadian postsecondary education the literary scholars who contributed these essays address the challenges that an intensified culture of research capitalism brings to the humanities in particular Stakeholders in Canada's research infrastructure university students professors and administrators grant policy makers and bureaucrats and the public who are the ultimate inheritors of such knowledge are urged to examine a range of perspectives on the increasingly entrepreneurial university environment and its growing corporate culture

On Aboriginal representation in the Gallery Lydia Jessup, Shannon Bagg, 2002-01-01 In recognizing the established intellectual and institutional authority of Aboriginal artists curators and academics working in cultural institutions and universities this volume serves as an important primer on key questions and issues accompanying the changing representational practices of the community cultural center the public art gallery and the anthropological museum Published in English

Policy Matters Clive Robertson, 2006 In this book Clive Robertson examines the subject of arts administration through the three major topics of artist run culture as movement and apparatus custody battles with at the Canada Council and Carings for art and culture Includes interviews with Paule Leduc Roch Carrier Edythe Goodriche and Bruce Russell From Art Metropole website viewed 23 May 2018

Museum Pieces Ruth Bliss Phillips, 2011 The ways in which Aboriginal people and museums work together have changed drastically in recent decades This historic process of decolonization including distinctive attempts to institutionalize multiculturalism has pushed Canadian museums to pioneer new practices that can accommodate both difference and inclusivity Ruth Phillips argues that these practices are indigenous not only because they originate in Aboriginal activism but because they draw on a distinctively Canadian preference for compromise and tolerance for ambiguity Phillips dissects seminal exhibitions of Indigenous art to show how changes in display curatorial voice and authority stem from broad social economic and political forces outside the museum and moves beyond Canadian institutions and practices to discuss historically interrelated developments and exhibitions in the United States Britain Australia and elsewhere Drawing on forty years of experience as an art historian curator exhibition critic and museum director she emphasizes the complex and situated nature of the problems that face museums introducing new perspectives on controversial exhibitions and moments of contestation A manifesto that calls on us to re imagine the museum as a place to embrace global interconnectedness Museum Pieces emphasizes the transformative power of museum controversy and analyses shifting ideas about art authenticity and power in the modern museum The Routledge Companion to Arts Marketing Daragh O'Reilly, Ruth Rentschler, Theresa A. Kirchner, 2013-12-17 The relationship between the arts and marketing has been growing ever more complex as the proliferation of new technologies and social media has opened up new forms of communication This book covers the broad and involved relationship between the arts and marketing It frames arts marketing in the context of wider related issues such as the creative and cultural industries cultural policy and arts funding developments in the different art forms and the impact of environmental forces on arts business models and markets The Routledge Companion to Arts Marketing provides a comprehensive up to date reference guide that incorporates current analyses of arts marketing topics by leaders of academic research in the field As such it will be a key resource for the next generation of arts marketing scholars and teachers and will constitute the single most authoritative guide on the subject internationally

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Arts for Change Beverly Naidus, 2009-04-01 Arts for Change presents strategies and theory for teaching socially engaged art with an historical and contemporary overview of the field The book features interviews with over thirty maverick artists faculty from colleges and universities in the United States Canada and Great Britain whose pedagogy is drawn from and informs activist arts practice The issues these teaching artists address are provocative and diverse Some came to this work through personal healing from injustice and trauma or by witnessing oppressions that became intolerable Many have taught for decades deeply influenced by social movements of the 1960s and 1970s yet because the work is controversial tenured positions are rare

Border/lines, 1996 Community Cultural Planning Work Kit Louise K. Stevens, 1987 Surveying Your Arts Audience, 1985 Recognizing the need to conduct audience studies to aid in arts organizations policy development this manual was developed to inform arts organization personnel on how to conduct a valid survey to discourage poor surveys and raise the standards of audience information and to provide guidance on when survey consultants should be chosen as well as what to expect from a consultant in terms of audience survey specifications The manual can be used in a wide range of arts settings and includes survey questions as well as step by step instructions on planning conducting analyzing and presenting audience surveys Field tests were conducted to find out what the manual could do and site visits monitored the progress of five projects The manual contains six chapters 1 Why an Audience Survey 2 Developing the Questionnaire 3 Sample Design 4 Collecting Survey Data 5 Data Processing and 6 Interpreting and Presenting Survey Results An appendix of Model Survey Questions is included KWL Film audiences Bridgette Wessels, Peter Merrington, Matthew Hanchard, David Forrest, 2022-12-20 Reception studies have made film audiences increasingly visible while surveys track trends and policymakers gather information about audience preferences and demographics But little attention has been paid to the specific contextual relationships and interactions between films and individuals that generate and sustain audiences This monograph develops the idea of audiences as interactive and relational introducing three innovative concepts personal film journeys five types of audience formations and five geographies of film provision A major challenge of audience research is how to capture the richness of people's social and cultural engagement with film To achieve this the book uses an innovative mixed methods research and computational ontology It develops ground breaking theory and concepts and an innovative methodology based on an extensive data set derived from the under researched area of British regional film audiences

The Tao of Audience Development for the Arts: Philosophies About Audience Development Five Years in the Making Shoshana Danoff Fanizza, 2016 Philosophies about audience development five years in the making This book is a compilation of blog posts since 2009 from the Audience Development Specialists blog Filled with information and thoughts on audience development arts management and arts marketing this book will help you as an arts leader form a new perspective on building audiences and more enthusiasm for the philosophies and practices of audience development in general
