Red Spike Bucklow, 2016-06-15 Blood rust lava wine the flush of passion and the glow of approaching night no color arrests our attention more than the color red Today it is the flag of danger and seduction of spirit and revolution but throughout nearly all of human history it has held a special place in our aesthetics In this book Spike Bucklow brings us into the heart of this fiery hue to better understand the unique powers it has had over us Bucklow takes us from a thirty four thousand year old shaman burial dress to the iPhone screen exploring the myriad of purposes we have put red to as well as the materials from which we have looked to harvest it And we have looked for it everywhere from insects to tree resin to tar to excitable gasses Bucklow also details how our pursuit of the color drove medieval alchemy and modern chemistry alike and he shows us red s many symbolic uses its association with earth blood and fire its coloring of caves and the throne rooms of goddesses as well as national flags fire trucks power grids and stoplights The result is a material and cultural history that makes one see this color afresh beating with vibrancy a crucial part of the human visual world Jewishness Simon J. Translated from the French by C. Martel Michel Eugène CHEVREUL, 1854 The Protevangelium of James George T. Zervos, 2019-08-22 George T Zervos presents the first in a two volume critical investigation of one of the earliest and most important of the New Testament Apocrypha the Protevangelium of James also known as the Infancy Gospel of James Zervos challenges the prevailing view that the ProtJas is a 2nd century unitary document finding it instead to be the product of an ongoing redactional process in which a 1st century CE heretical text was progressively conformed to the orthodox Christian doctrine of the time Zervos tells the story of how an early apocryphal gospel provided the developing church with doctrinal material which was incorporated into both the theology and the ecclesiastical liturgical cycle of the medieval Church thus becoming a significant part of the standard catechism for generations of Christians In this first volume Zervos provides a critical introduction to the text and discusses ProtJas publication history scholarly investigation compositional problems and evidence of redaction as well as a in depth analysis of the narrative For the first time the readings of the vast majority of the known Greek manuscripts appear together with a transcription of the original text of the complete copy of the ProtJas found in Papyrus Bodmer V
