She alone can save the world and become Death's bride. COBWEB BRIDE Cobweb Bride Trilogy Book One is a history-flavored fantasy novel with romantic elements of the Persephone myth about Death's ultimatum to the world. What if you killed someone and then fell in love with them? In an alternate Renaissance world somewhere in an imaginary pocket of Europe called the Kingdom of Lethe, Death comes in the form of a grim Spaniard to claim his Bride. Until she is found in a single time-stopping moment, all dying stops. There is no relief for the mortally wounded and the terminally ill. Covered in white cobwebs of a thousand snow spiders, she lies in the darkness. Her skin is cold as snow.

Film, Folklore and Urban Legends Mikel J. Koven, 2008 From Alien to When a Stranger Calls many films are based on folklore or employ an urban legend element to propel the narrative But once those traditional aspects have been identified do they warrant further scrutiny Indeed why is the study of folklore in popular film important In Films Folklore and Urban Legends Mikel J Koven addresses this issue by exploring the convergence of folklore with popular cinema studies Well beyond the identification of traditional motifs in popular cinema Koven reveals new paradigms of filmic analysis which open up when one looks at movies through the lens of folklore In particular this book focuses on the study of urban legends and how these narratives are used as inspiration for a number of films Divided into five sections the book begins with a general survey of the existing literature on folklore film predominantly from the perspective of folklore studies Subsequent chapters address discourses of belief how urban legends provide the organizing principle of some films and how certain films act out or perform a legend Movies discussed in this book include Alligator Candyman The Curve Dead Man on Campus I Know What You Did Last Summer Urban Legend Weekend at Bernie s and The Wicker Man as well as zombie films killer bee movies and slasher films including Halloween Black Christmas The Burning and Terror Train Koven also devotes attention to key television shows such as The X Files and Most Haunted In his analysis Koven explains not only how film and television narratives are built upon already existing popular culture beliefs but also how films and television shows recycle those beliefs back into popular culture Taken as a whole Film Folklore and Urban Legends both stands on its own as the first book length study of folklore and popular cinema and as an introductory textbook for the study of folklore and film

Tourism, Heritage and Commodification of Non-human Animals: A Posthumanist Reflection Álvaro López López, Gino Jafet Quintero Venegas, Carol Kline, 2023-12-19 Heritage is a social construction rooted in modern and contemporary societies It is commonly a positive assessment of many elements of the physical and human environment e g ecosystems and landscapes monuments customs gender norms religious practices gastronomy and livelihoods Heritage and tourism are strongly related to each other in that heritage gives rise to tourist attractions and activities and tourism enhances the designation of heritage sites A post humanist perspective the moral valuation of equality between humans and other animals demands that both are sentient beings and self aware of their pain and pleasure Thus the involvement of animals as heritage elements by themselves or as an element of tourist consumption in heritage sites implies their commodification and lack of agency As such these practices are usually unethical since they threaten the animals primary interests not to suffer not to feel pain and to be able to live their freedom This book contains chapters that reveal both the unethical interactions between humans and animals within heritage tourism and those that show experiences in which efforts are made to minimize damage within the commercialization of animals involved as heritage themselves A Treatise on Apis (the Bee), Tella Araneae (cobweb), Spongia and Cantharis John Uri Lloyd, 1911
