Care Management and Community Care Mark

Baldwin, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 Community care stands as an example of a complex policy failing to be implemented as intended Using research and studies of literature on community care this text investigates the reasons behind the failure of this flagship policy focusing on the part played by care managers management and policy implementation approaches It presents an exploration of social work discretion as a potential force for positive and dynamic implementation as opposed to the usual analysis of professional discretion as a necessary evil This potential is demonstrated through the analysis of an innovative research methodology

Critical and Creative Research Methodologies in Social Work

Lia Bryant, 2016-03-09 Social work research is concerned with complex social issues closely connected to communities of people who are marginalized and oppressed This volume develops critical and creative research methodologies that place questions of social justice at their centre and take innovative approaches to collecting analysing interpreting and presenting research data The first section of the book examines textual data produced from an array of methodologies focused on the spoken and or written word These approaches allow those who are often silenced to speak by providing space and time to capture memory and meanings that may not come to light in a time driven structured research method like an interview or a questionnaire The second section of the book discusses visual methods including an examination of historical artefacts like photographs and objects and participant engagement with art specifically clay sculpture and drawings Both sets of methods examine the concept of time that is how we understand time as in our past memories how we develop relationships and knowledge over time These creative and critical methods provide new insights into ways of undertaking social research in social work which captures the complexity of social experiences problems and meanings that are more often than not embedded in time and place
