Retreat From Africa:

The United States and Africa Macharia Munene, J. D. Olewe Nyunya, Korwa Gombe Adar, 1995 US Strategy in Africa David J Francis, 2010-02-25 This book outlines the construction interpretations and understanding of US strategy towards Africa in the early twenty first century No single issue or event in the recent decades in Africa has provoked so much controversy and unified hostility and opposition as the announcement by former President George W Bush of the establishment of the United States Africa Command AFRICOM The intensity and sheer scale of the unprecedented unity of opposition to AFRICOM across Africa surprised many experts and lead them to ask why such a hostile reaction occurred This book explores the conception of AFRICOM and the subsequent reaction in two ways Firstly the contributors critically engage with the creation and global imperatives for the establishment of AFRICOM and present an analytical outline of African security in relation to and within the context of the history of US foreign and security policy approaches to Africa Secondly the book has original chapter contributions by some of the key actors involved in the development and implementation of the AFRICOM project including Theresa Whelan the former US Deputy Assistant Secretary for African Affairs This is not only an attempt to contribute to the academic and policy relevant debates based on the views of those who are intimately involved in the design and implementation of the AFRICOM project but also to show in their own words that America has no clandestine agenda for Africa This book will be of interest to students of US foreign policy national security strategic studies international security and African politics David J Francis is Chair of African Peace Conflict Studies in the Department of Peace Studies at the University of Bradford Marxism's Retreat from Africa (RLE Marxism) Arnold Hughes, 2015-04-24 The collapse of Marxism in much of the Third World as well as Europe was so sudden and spectacular that it is hard to believe that in the space of seven years The Journal of Communist Studies could bring out special issues both on the creation of Military Marxist Regimes in Africa and on their demise and the wider collapse of Marxist governments on the continent This volume first published in 1992 derives from a roundtable on the theme of The Retreat from Moscow African and Eastern European Experiences of Disengagement from Marxism held at the University of Birmingham in September 1991 The conference examined the recent experiences of African countries in transition from Marxism and Marxist influenced ideologies to an uncertain future based on the market economy and a plural political system Democratization in Africa:

Challenges and Prospects Gordon Crawford, Gabrielle Lynch, 2013-09-13 It is two decades since the third wave of democratization began to roll across sub Saharan Africa in the early 1990s This book provides a very timely investigation into the progress and setbacks over that period the challenges that remain and the prospects for future democratization in Africa It commences with an overall assessment of the lack of progress made from 1990 to 2010 exploring positive developments with reasons for caution Based on original research subsequent contributions examine various themes through country case studies inclusive of the routinisation of elections accompanied by democratic rollback and the rise of hybrid regimes the tenacity of presidential powers the dilemmas of power sharing ethnic voting and rise of a violent politics of belonging the role of donors and the ambiguities of democracy promotion Overall the book concludes that steps forward remain greater than reversals and that typically though not universally sub Saharan African countries are more democratic today than in the late 1980s Nonetheless the book also calls for more meaningful processes of democratization that aim not only at securing civil and political rights but also socio economic rights and the physical security of African citizens This book was originally published as a special issue of Democratization Marxism's Retreat from Africa Arnold Hughes,2015 Debating African Issues William G. Moseley,Kefa M. Otiso,2022-09-14 This debate style textbook allows students to explore diverse well founded views on controversial African issues pushing them to go beyond superficial interpretations and complicate and ground their understanding of the continent From the positive images in the film Black Panther to the derogatory remarks of former American President Donald Trump the African continent often figures prominently in the collective global imagination This interdisciplinary collection covers 20 enduring and contemporary debates across a broad range of subjects affecting Africa from development and health to agriculture climate change and urbanization Each chapter has a pro and con view penned by a leading expert on the topic in an accessible and engaging style These contrasting views on each issue are framed by an introduction that helps the student contextualize the debate and draw on further resources Moreover they enable readers to deepen their understanding of the topic develop a more nuanced perspective and foster classroom debates This book is an excellent resource for Africa related courses across a range of disciplinary and interdisciplinary fields including African studies anthropology development studies economics environmental studies geography history international studies political science and public health Transforming South Africa Armin Osmanovic,2002 Chinese Media in Africa Emeka Umejei,2020-07-23 Chinese Media in Africa Perception Performance and Paradox analyzes the debate on Chinese media expansion in Africa and its implication for the African media landscape by engaging with African journalists who train and work in Chinese media organizations based in Africa Emeka Umejei analyzes how African journalists that enter the sphere of Chinese media often with libertarian notions of journalism are able to navigate the collisions and collusions that inform journalism in these settings Through extensive interviews with African journalists Umejei explores the constant negotiation of freedoms including the ability to always work in relation to African reality within state controlled media organizations These interviews bring to light the paradoxical nature of Chinese media organizations that both preach equality with Africa and simultaneously promote Chinese hegemony in the media highlighting the diverse contours that shape and influence journalism practices in these settings Scholars of journalism media studies African studies international relations and sociology will find this book particularly useful Inherent and Contemporary Challenges to African Security Manu Lekunze,2019-11-23 This book presents a unique comprehensive yet accessible look at security in Africa The author provides a comprehensive review of the key security issues in Africa and offers a contemporary

ACCIDENTAL AFRICAN BLESSINGS Ugo Nacciarone, SJ., 2012-04-05 As I pondered on a title for this book I thought about my first life and work experience in Africa How I suffered several severe cases of malaria how difficult it was to adjust to the hot humid climate and the discouragements from my relatives and friends back home that I was in a wrong place to which I almost succumbed The only thing that made me stay was a sense of duty to the other five Jesuits working with me As this mission was only new I did not want to demoralize any of them This decision has later proven to be one of the best decisions I have ever made All that experience brought many turns to my life in Africa bringing me from Nigeria to Zambia to Ghana and back to Zambia again These events were like accidents Accidents are unexpected unplanned and often painful It was just an accident of history that the mission was just getting started and that it had so few people on it It might have been another accident of history that the Biafran War began just as I made my way to Nigeria that made it more difficult to recruit new members to the mission These accidents of history brought me to a painful decision to return to Nigeria when I didn't feel attracted to the prospect Yet this painful experience turned out to be a great blessing for me I came to love the people and the continent more than I could ever have imagined and found myself greatly enriched by the experience It is this development in personal growth that I want to share with the reader Cover Design by Danny Chiyesu
