Revolution Surrealiste

Raymond Spiteri, Donald Lacoss

Revolution Surrealiste:

City Gorged with Dreams Ian Walker, 2002 The author analyses how the Surrealists utilised the tactics of documentary and how Surrealist ideas in turn influenced the development of documentary photography This is a study of what Louis Aragon called surrealist realism the exploration of the real life surreality of the city La Révolution surréaliste, 1924

The Surrealist Revolution in France Herbert S. Gershman, 1969 Letter from Révolution Surréaliste and Clarté, Paris, 1926 November 20 Révolution surréaliste (Association), Clarté (Association), 1926 Letter from Révolution surréaliste and Clarté inviting recipients to a meeting of surrealists on March 23 1926 and an agenda for said meeting Surrealism, History and Revolution Simon Baker, 2007 This book is a new account of the surrealist movement in France between the two world wars It examines the uses that surrealist artists and writers made of ideas and images associated with the French Revolution describing a complex relationship between surrealism's avant garde revolt and its powerful sense of history and heritage Focusing on both texts and images by key figures such as Louis Aragon Georges Bataille Jacques André Boiffard André Breton Robert Desnos Max Ernst Max Morise and Man Ray this book situates surrealist material in the wider context of the literary and visual arts of the period through the theme of revolution It raises important questions about the politics of representing French history literary and political memorial spaces monumental representations of the past and critical responses to them imaginary portraiture and revolutionary spectatorship The study shows that a full understanding of surrealism requires a detailed account of its attitude to revolution and that understanding this surrealist concept of revolution means accounting for the complex historical imagination at its heart History of the Surrealist Movement Gérard Durozoi, 2002 Tracing the movement from its origins in the 1920s to its decline in the 1950s and 1960s Durozoi tells the history of Surrealism through its activities publications and reviews demonstrating its close ties to some of the most explosive political as well as creative debates of the twentieth century Unlike other histories which focus mainly on the pre World War II years of the movement in Paris Durozoi covers both a wider chronological and geographic range treating in detail the postwar years and Surrealism's colonization of Latin America the United States Japan Czechoslovakia Belgium Italy and North Africa Drawing on documentary and visual evidence including 1 000 photos many of them in color he illuminates all the intellectual and artistic aspects of the movement from literature and philosophy to painting photography and film All the Surrealist stars and their most important works are here Aragon Borges Breton Breuer Cocteau Crevel Dal Desnos Ernst Man Ray Soupault and many more for all of whom Durozoi has provided brief biographical notes in addition to featuring them in the main text The Surrealist Parade Wayne Andrews, 1990 A portrait of the Surrealist movement in art and literature

Declaration of Révolution Surréaliste Principles, 1925 April 2 Révolution surréaliste (Association), 1925 Declaration of surrealist principles agreed upon by Révolution surréaliste members in a meeting held April 2 1925 and signed by those members Antonin Artaud Jacques A. Boiffard Michel Leiris André Masson Pierre Naville Surrealist Women Penelope

Rosemont,2010-07-05 Beginning in Paris in the 1920s women poets essayists painters and artists in other media have actively collaborated in defining and refining surrealism s basic project achieving a higher open and dynamic consciousness from which no aspect of the real or the imaginary is rejected Indeed few artistic or social movements can boast as many women forebears founders and participants perhaps only feminism itself Yet outside the movement women s contributions to surrealism have been largely ignored or simply unknown This anthology the first of its kind in any language displays the range and significance of women s contributions to surrealism Letting surrealist women speak for themselves Penelope Rosemont has assembled nearly three hundred texts by ninety six women from twenty eight countries She opens the book with a succinct summary of surrealism s basic aims and principles followed by a discussion of the place of gender in the movement s origins She then organizes the book into historical periods ranging from the 1920s to the present with introductions that describe trends in the movement during each period Rosemont also prefaces each surrealist s work with a brief biographical statement

Jacques Lacan & Co Elisabeth Roudinesco,1990-10-29 Roudinesco provides a finely drawn map of the intellectual debates within French psychoanalysis especially under the influence of the German emigr s during the 1930s and 1940s She is a good historian in that she provides not only a narrative history but also extensive passages from Lacan s own oral history interviews with the various figures so that we have not only her commentary but some flavor of the original documentation Many of the quotes are gems Sander I Gilman Bulletin of the History of Medicine

Surrealism

Nathalia Brodskaja,2015-09-15 Surrealists appeared in the aftermath of World War I with a bang revolution of thought creativity and the wish to break away from the past and all that was left in ruins This refusal to integrate into the bourgeois society was also a leitmotiv of Dada artists and Andr Breton asserted that Dada does not produce perspective Surrealism emerged amidst such feeling Surrealists and Dada artists often changed from one movement to another They were united by their superior intellectualism and the common goal to break free from the norm Describing the Surrealists with their aversive resistance to the system the author brings a new approach which strives to be relative and truthful Provocation and cultural revolution aren t Surrealists after all just a direct product of creative individualism in this unsettled period

The Surrealists Jemima Montagu,2002 A collective adventure begun by a group of intellectuals in the early 1920s Surrealism became one of the most influential art movements of the 20th century This volume explores the lives work of the artists writers at the heart of the movement

The Beribboned Bomb Robert James Belton,1995 Surrealism was ostensibly directed at the emancipation of the human spirit but it represented only male aspirations and fantasies until a number of women artists began to redefine its agenda in the later 1930s This book addresses the former using a thick description of the historically specific circumstances which required the male Surrealists to manufacture a sexual reputation of narcissism and misogyny These circumstances were determined by hegemonic masculinity an ideological construct which had little to do with individual masculinities In male Surrealism the beribboned bomb signified something both attractive and volatile a specific instance of the Surrealist principle of convulsive beauty In hegemonic masculinity similar devices served as metaphors of the sexuality all men were supposed to possess The intersection of these two axes produced an imagery of unrepentant violence

Downcast Eyes Martin Jay,1993-10 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes s writings on photography and the film theory of Christian Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay s reputation as one of today s premier cultural and intellectual historians

Surrealism, Politics and Culture Raymond Spiteri,Donald Lacoss,2020-03-18 This title was first published in 2003 Drawing on literary art historical and historical studies this essay collection explores the complex encounter between culture and politics within Surrealism The Surrealist movement was one of the first cultural movements to question explicitly the relation between culture and politics and its attempt to fuse social and cultural revolution has been a critical factor in shaping our sense of modernity This anthology addresses not only the contested ground between culture and politics within Surrealism itself and within the subsequent historical accounts of the movement but also the broader implications of this encounter on our own sense of modernity Its goal is to delineate the role of radical politics in shaping the historical trajectory of Surrealism

Photography and Surrealism David Bate,2020-08-12 David Bate examines automatism and the photographic image the Surrealist passion for insanity ambivalent use of Orientalism use of Sadean philosophy and the effect of fascism of the Surrealists The book is illustrated with a wide range of surrealist photographs

Curious Disciplines Sarah Hayden,2018-04-15 The transnational modernist Mina Loy 1882 1966 embodied the avant garde in many literary and artistic media This book positions her as a theorist of the avant garde and of what it means to be an artist Foregrounding Loy s critical interrogation of Futurist Dadaist Surrealist and Degenerate artishood and exploring her poetic legacies today Curious Disciplines reveals Loy s importance in an entirely novel way Examining the primary texts produced by those movements themselves their manifestos magazines pamphlets catalogues and speeches Sarah Hayden uses close readings of Loy s poetry prose polemics and unpublished writings to trace her response to how these movements wrote themselves collectively into being

Sculpture 1900-1945 Penelope Curtis,1999 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the significant growth of sculpture as an artistic form in Europe and America from 1900 1945 Using a clearly defined thematic structure it identifies key issues and developments throughout this important period in the history of art Individual chapters cover public sculpture the monument the object image making the built environment the figurative ideal and different materials These themes broadly reflect the changing cultural and political climate of a turbulent period which included two world wars each preceded by widespread rising nationalism The practice of sculpture is considered within the wider artistic context of painting and architecture and the development of international art markets Auguste Rodin whose ground breaking exhibition opened in Paris in 1900 serves as the book s point of departure and as a recurrent point of reference

Greece and the Balkans Dimitris Tziovas,2017-07-05 Greece and the Balkans explores the cultural relationships between Greece and other Balkan countries in the domains of language literature thought translation and music and examines issues of identity and perception among the Balkan peoples themselves The essays bring together scholars from across a range of disciplines historians anthropologists linguists and musicologists with specialists on literature translation the history of ideas and religion By raising issues of cultural hybridity and nationalist or pre nationalist interpretations of culture and history it lays claim to a place in the context of studies on nationalism and post colonialism Greece and the Balkans also contributes to a recognition of the Balkans as a site like some postcolonial ones where identities have become fused orientalism and eurocentrism blurred and where religion and modernity clashed and co existed By approaching cultural encounters between Greece and the Balkans from a fresh and informed perspective it makes a substantial contribution to the study of a rather neglected aspect in the history of a region which has suffered in the past from narrow minded nationalistic arguments

World Cinema and Cultural Memory I. Hedges,2015-04-07 Cinema has long played a crucial role in the way that societies represent themselves Hedges discusses the role of cinema in creating cultural memory within a global perspective that spans five continents The book s innovative approach and approachable style should transform the way that we think of film and its social effects
