The Shape of the Turtle Sarah Allan, 1991-02-21 Many Chinese philosophic concepts derive from an ancient cosmology This work is the first reconstructions of the mythic thought of the Shang Dynasty ca 1700 1100 B C which laid the foundation for later Chinese patterns of thought Allan regards the myth cosmology divination sacrificial ritual and art of the Shang as different manifestations of a common religious system and each is examined in turn building up a coherent and consistent picture Although primarily concerned with the Shang this work also describes the manner in which Shang thought was transformed in the later textual tradition Political Frontiers, Ethnic Boundaries and Human Geographies in Chinese History Nicola Di Cosmo, Don J Wyatt, 2005-08-16 Boundaries demanding physical space enclosing political entities and distinguishing social or ethnic groups constitute an essential aspect of historical investigation It is especially with regard to disciplinary pluralism and historical breadth that this book most clearly departs and distinguishes itself from other works on Chinese boundaries and ethnicity In addition to history the disciplines represented in this book include anthropology particularly ethnography religion art history and literary studies Each of the authors focuses on a distinct period beginning with the Zhou dynasty c 1100 BCE and ending with the early centuries after the Manchu conquest c CE 1800 resulting in a chronological sweep of nearly three millennia China in the Early Bronze Age Robert L.
