Shaping a Global Theological Mind Asst Prof Darren C Marks, 2013-05-28 Theological thinkers are placed into contexts which inform their theological tasks but that context is usually limited to a European or North American centre usually ignoring minorities and lesser mainstream theologies even in that context This work focuses on the shift of Christian theological thinking from the North Atlantic to the Global South even within the North Atlantic Church and Academy It gives a Global perspective on theological work method and context Theologians from North America Great Britain and Europe Africa Asia Central and South America comment on how their specific context and methodology manifests organizes and is prioritized in their thought so as to make Christian theology relevant to their community By placing the Global South alongside the newly emerging presence of non traditional Western forms such as Pentecostal Aboriginal and Hispanic theologies and theologians a clearer picture of how Christian theology is both enculturated and still familial is offered

Colin Gunton's Trinitarian Theology of Culture Andrew Picard, 2024-06-27 Whilst upholding some of the criticisms of Colin Gunton's work this incisive book argues that there is a Hauptbriefe in Gunton reception that assumes his early classic works The One the Three and the Many and The Promise of Trinitarian Theology 1st ed are definitive of his project and fail to engage adequately with the progressions in Gunton's later thought Instead this book offers a fresh reading of Gunton by giving greater prominence to his later writings which are centred in the mediation of the Son and the Spirit in creation Andrew Picard argues that Gunton's trinitarian theology of culture emerges from his later trinitarian theology of mediation creation Christology pneumatology and ecclesiology Exploring these doctrinal foci enables an understanding of Gunton's account of faithful human culture as embodied worship a living sacrifice of praise which contributes to the divine redemption and perfection of creation It is the church's particular calling to embody such praise through its visible life in community The study concludes by intersecting Gunton's theology with the social sciences to critique ableism and consider the politics of the church's belonging in community T&T Clark Handbook of Colin Gunton Andrew Picard, Murray Rae, Myk Habets, 2021-01-14 The T T Clark Handbook of Colin Gunton is a theological companion to the study of Gunton's theology and a resource for thinking about Gunton's importance in modern theology Each of the essays brings Gunton's depth to a broad range of contemporary theological concerns The volume unveils cutting edge Gunton scholarship for a new generation and at the same time enables readers to see the timely significance of Gunton today Each of the essays not only introduces readers to key themes in the Gunton corpus but also provides readers with fresh interpretations that are fully conversant with the contemporary theological problems facing the church Designed as both a guide for students and a reference point for scholars the companion seeks both to outline the frameworks of key Gunton debates while at all times pushing forward fresh interpretative strategies concerning his thought The Trial of the Witnesses Paul J. Dehart, 2008-04-15 The much discussed notion of Postliberal theology developed from the writings of two theologians at Yale University Hans Frei and George Lindbeck An analysis and critique of the much discussed idea of postliberal theology Provides an overview of postliberalism and the controversies which resulted Compares the writings of theologians Hans Frei and George Lindbeck from which postliberal theology developed and uncovers important differences in their thought Reconceptualizes these thinkers contributions to contemporary theological discussion Published in the prestigious Challenges in Contemporary Theology series Jurgen Moltmann and Evangelical Theology Sung Wook Chung, 2012-04-23 Jurgen Moltmann is now regarded as one of the most influential theologians since Karl Barth However evangelical engagement with Moltmann has been hesitant and deficient This book fills the gap Ten respected evangelical theologians engage with Moltmann's theology in a mature dynamic and critical manner seeking to appropriate from it in a discerning manner The contributors include Sung Wook Chung Kurt Anders Richardson Veli Matti Karkainen Stephen N Williams and Timothy Bradshaw This book is an excellent demonstration of intellectual confidence and respectability of robust evangelical theology Trinity and Humanity Uche Anizor, 2018-02-27 Colin Gunton is regarded by many as one of the most important English theologians of the twentieth century A prolific writer and creative thinker Gunton taught at King's College London for over thirty years until his untimely death in 2003 In this first single authored introduction to Gunton's theology Uche Anizor traces the key theological themes major contributors and criticisms of his work Each chapter provides a synthesis and overview of Gunton's thought on a particular doctrine or set of doctrines calling attention to the Trinitarian shape of his theology In Trinity and Humanity Anizor provides a handy entrance into the corpus of this major thinker T&T

Webster Michael Allen, R. David Nelson, 2021-06-10 An overview and analysis of John Webster's seminal contributions to Christian theology At the time of his death John Webster was widely hailed as one of the leading Christian theologians in the world Over the course of three decades he produced groundbreaking studies on the theologies of Eberhard Jüngel and Karl Barth and especially since the turn of the millennium numerous books and essays on various themes in Christian dogmatics He then intended to write an encyclopedic systematic theology a project he was unable to complete No substitute is possible for that lost opus but the contributors offer this volume as an homage to Webster and an aid to those who want to learn from him A Companion to the Theology of John Webster begins with an introductory section on Webster's theological development then continues into an extensive overview of Webster's contributions to contemporary discussions of particular doctrines An epilogue suggests how Webster's theology might have unfolded had he lived longer and imagines the continuing influence of his work on the enterprise of Christian dogmatics Readers hoping to understand the legacy of this great theologian and also those eager for fresh insights into the present state and future trajectories of contemporary Protestantism will find much to offer here

Human Being and Vulnerability Joseph Sverker, 2020-11-24 Joseph Sverker explores the division between social constructivism and a biologist essentialism by means of Christian theology For this Sverker uses a fascinating approach He lets critical theorist Judith Butler psychologist Steven Pinker and systematic theologian Colin Gunton interact While theology plays a central part to make the interaction possible the context is also that of the school and the effect of institutions on the pupil as a human being and learner In order to understand what underlies the division between nature and nurture or biology and the social in school Sverker develops new central concepts such as a kenotic personalism a weak ontology of relationality and a relational and performative reading of evolution He argues that most fundamental for what it is to be human is the person's vulnerability bodiliness openness to the other and dependence Sverker concludes that the division between constructivism and essentialism discloses a deeper divide namely that between fundamentally vulnerable persons on the one hand and constructed independent individuals on the other

Perspectives on Ecclesiology and Ethnography Pete Ward, 2012-03-15 Within the disciplines of religious studies systematic theology and practical theology there exists a divide between empirical and theological analyses of the church Each volume in the cross disciplinary series Studies in Ecclesiology and Ethnography attempts to address this gap by exploring the methodological and substantive issues that arise from both theological and empirical studies of the church's practices and social reality Perspectives on Ecclesiology and Ethnography the inaugural volume in the series proposes that if theology is to regain its relevance to the church today theologians must utilize ethnographical tools in order to provide more accurate disciplined research that is situated in real contexts Using ethnography in its broadest sense encompassing any form of qualitative research this volume proposes that the church is both theological and social cultural which implies the need for a methodological shift for researchers in theology Contributions from twelve scholar practitioners lead the way forward Contributors Luke Bretherton
