Sheikh and Disciple M. R. Bawa Muhaiyaddeen, 1983 Unveiling the Secrets of Magic and Magicians Mohammad Amin Sheikho, 2014-12-16 How terrible are the words that issued from the mouths of those deceivers from amongst the Jews who used false statements to insert intrigue into the books of Islam Their words about the possible use of magic to bewitch the most honorable one of all creation Mohammad cpth are nothing more than mere lies The same is true of another of their sayings fie on them may God make them as ugly as their deeds wherein they say that the accursed Satan controlled the Prophet cpth as well as other of our great masters including Solomon Job and our father Adam Their statements are easily refutable and just as our of every pot pours that which it contains woe to them because of what pours from their spirits As a result of such intrigues the belief in magic along with other spiritual diseases is spread amongst the Muslims by disbelieving magicians and their followers to the extent that one can hardly find a house in which there does not live at least one of their followers These people believe the devil s call because they have listened to false scholars instead of God and have turned their back on the Qur an as if they knew better Now however it is time for the voice of truth to be heard by those people whose forefathers were not warned and who therefore remain heedless The Great Scholar Mohammad Amin Sheikho will bring them out of the darkness and into the light with the use of God s Luminous Book for the good of all those who believe in Al lah and the Last Day God says And repent to Al lah all of you oh believers so that you may be successful The Holy Qur an Fortress 24 An Nour Light verse 31 Infinite Possibility Audrey A.  Armbruster, Anna Lærke, 2010 Concerns with research ethics have intensified over recent years in large part as a symptom of audit cultures M Strathern but also as a serious matter of engagement with the ethical complexities in contemporary research fields This volume written by a new generation of scholars engaged with contemporary global movements for social justice and peace reflects their efforts in trying to integrate their scholarly pursuits with their understanding of social science politics and ethics and what political commitment means in practice and in fieldwork This is a book of argument and analysis written with passion clarity and intellectual sophistication which touches on issues of vital significance to social scientists and activists in general Travelling the Path of Love Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee, 1995-01-01 Sufism is a path of love With the passion and depth of feeling that belong to lovers Sufi masters through the centuries have described the soul s journey towards union with God This collection of sayings dating from the ninth century to the present day follows the stages of this journey allowing the masters to beckon us along this ancient path Speaking with the experience of those who have tasted the mysteries of divine love their words reach beyond the mind and into the heart Travelling the Path of Love is offered as an inspiration to all those who are drawn to follow love s call A Heart of Wisdom Maurice Friedman, 2012-02-01 Drawing on almost half a century of immersion in the world s great religions coupled with an ever deepening understanding of the philosophy and phenomenology of religion the author takes a dialogical approach through which religious reality is not seen as external creed and form or as subjective inspiration but as the meeting in openness presentness immediacy and mutuality with ultimate reality Religion has to do with the wholeness of human life The absolute is found not just in the universal but in the particular and the unique When it promotes a dualism in which the spirit has no binding claim upon life and life falls apart into unhallowed fragments religion becomes the great enemy of humankind

Constructions of Gender in Religious Traditions of Late Antiquity Kathy Ehrensperger, Juni Hoppe, Shayna Sheinfeld, 2024-03-26 This volume examines questions concerning the construction of gender and identity in the earliest days of what is now Judaism Christianity and Islam Methodologically explicit the contributions analyze textual and material sources related to these religious traditions in their cultural contexts The sources examined are predominantly products of patriarchal elite discourses requiring innovative approaches to unveil aspects of gender otherwise hidden This volume extends the discussion represented in the volume Gender and Second Temple Judaism 2020 and highlights the fruitfulness of interdisciplinary research beyond anachronistic discipline distinctions

Celtic Christianity Christopher Bamford, William Parker Marsh, 1987 Our God is the God of Heaven and Earth of sea and river of sun and moon and stars of the lofty mountain and lowly valley St Patrick In this anthology the stories of the Celtic saints are interspersed with verses prayers and sayings attributed to those ancient sages from Patrick and Brigit through Brandan and Columba to Aidan and Cuthbert It is uncertain when or how Christianity first arrived at those westernmost reaches It seems always to have been there Legend tells us that Irish bards attended the events on Golgotha in the spirit In the Celtic tradition there is a continuity in cosmic process For the Celt Christ's death and resurrection was a healing that allows reconciliation between humanity and nature in God In this sense Christianity was always in Ireland and we seek its historical beginning in vain If the Celtic Church had survived perhaps the fissure between Christianity and nature widening through the centuries would never have fragmented our Western attitude toward nature and the universe

The Journal of the Indian Archipelago and Eastern Asia James Richardson Logan, 1849 The Journal of the Indian archipelago and eastern Asia (ed. by J.R. Logan). James Richardson Logan, 1849

The Journal of the Indian Archipelago and Eastern Asia J. R. Logan, 1849 Fighting the Greater Jihad Cheikh Anta Mbacké Babou, 2007 In Senegal the Muridiyya a large Islamic Sufi order is the single most influential religious organization including among its numbers the nation's president Yet little is known of this sect in the West Drawn from a wide variety of archival oral and iconographic sources in Arabic French and Wolof Fighting the Greater Jihad offers an astute analysis of the founding and development of the order and a biographical study of its founder Cheikh Amadu Bamba Mbacke Cheikh Anta Babou explores the forging of Murid identity and pedagogy around the person and initiative of Amadu Bamba as well as the continuing reconstruction of this identity by more recent followers He makes a compelling case for reexamining the history of Muslim institutions in Africa and elsewhere in order to appreciate believers' motivation and initiatives especially religious culture and education beyond the narrow confines of political collaboration and resistance Fighting the Greater Jihad also reveals how religious power is built at the intersection of genealogy knowledge and spiritual force and how this power in turn affected colonial policy Fighting the Greater Jihad will dramatically alter the perspective from which anthropologists historians and political scientists study Muslim mystical orders
