Basia Sliwinska poses in this important new enquiry into gender identity and the politics of vision in contemporary women's art. Through an innovative discussion of the mirror as a metaphor, Sliwinska reveals how the post-1989 practices of women artists from both sides of the former Iron Curtain, such as Joanna Rajkowska, Marina Abramovic, Boryana Rossa, Natalia LL, and Anetta Mona Chisa, and Lucia Tkacova, go beyond gender binaries and instead embrace otherness and difference by playing with visual tropes of femininity. Their provocative works offer alternative representations of the female body to those seen in the cultural mirror. Their art challenges and deconstructs patriarchal representations of the social and cultural other associated with visual tropes of femininity, such as Alice in Wonderland, Venus, and Medusa. The Female Body in the Looking Glass makes a refreshing radical intervention into art theory and cultural studies by offering new theoretical concepts such as the mirror and genderland, inspired by Alice's adventures in Wonderland, as critical tools with which we can analyse and explain recent developments in women's art.
