Look What Came from the Netherlands Kevin A. Davis, 2002 Describes many things that originally came from the Netherlands including inventions fashion customs and holidays sports food animals and words The Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia, 1906 The Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia: Dictionary William Dwight Whitney, 1904 King Stork of the Netherlands Albert Lee, 1901 Women Migrants From East to West Luisa Passerini, 2007 Based on the oral histories of eighty migrant women and thirty additional interviews with native women in the receiving countries this volume documents the contemporary phenomenon of the feminisation of migration through an exploration of the lives of women who have moved from Bulgaria and Hungary to Italy and the Netherlands It assumes migrants to be active subjects creating possibilities and taking decisions in their own lives as well as being subject to legal and political regulation and the book analyses the new forms of subjectivity that come about through mobility Part I is a largely conceptual exploration of subjectivity mobility and gender in Europe The chapters in Part II focus on love work home communication and food themes which emerged from the migrant women's accounts In Part III based on the interviews with native women employers friends or in associations relevant to migrant women the chapters analyse their representations of migrants and the book goes on to explore forms of intersubjectivity between European women of different cultural origins A major contribution of this book is to consider how the movement of people across Europe is changing the cultural and social landscape with implications for how we think about what Europe means Cover image Painting by Carla Accardi Reproduced with the kind permission of Luca Barsi of the Galleria Accademia Via Accademia Albertina 3 e 10123 Torino The Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia: Dictionary, 1897 Un/German Fatima El-Tayeb, 2015 Un German is a powerful intervention in the ongoing debates over national identity migration and collective memory in Europe Against the backdrop of the 2015 refugee crisis Fatima El Tayeb argues that Europe's internal fractures were deflected through recurring crises casting racialized populations as the external menace against which the continent could unite First published in German in 2016 the book critically examines how Germany's reaction to the arrival of nearly one million refugees initially framed as a culture of welcome but one that rapidly turned to hostility was not an anomaly but part of a broader European pattern Drawing on public memory and its material expressions in post 1989 Germany Un German brings into sharp relief the disparities in how Europe remembers its fascist socialist and colonial pasts El Tayeb highlights Black Muslim and Roma artists and activists who disrupted public commemorations intended to reinforce dominant narratives arguing that these disturbances brought to the fore unresolved tensions in German collective memory In doing so El Tayeb reveals the limits of Europe's self conception as pluralistic and progressive while also opening the door to new more inclusive ways of imagining European identity Canadian Florist, 1928 The Americanization of Edward Bok. The Autobiography of a Dutch Boy Fifty Years After Edward William Bok, 2023-10-05 In The Americanization of Edward Bok The Autobiography of a Dutch Boy Fifty Years After Edward William

Bok presents a poignant exploration of identity and assimilation in early 20th century America. Written in an engaging and conversational style, Bok's narrative is as much a personal memoir as it is a cultural commentary reflecting the immigrant experience in a rapidly changing society. His vivid recollections of life in the Netherlands juxtaposed with his experiences in the United States offer insightful reflections on the notions of home, belonging, and cultural transformation, situating his work within the broader context of American immigration literature. Bok, born in the Netherlands in 1863, immigrated to the United States as a young boy, navigating the complexities of his dual identity amidst the tenets of the American Dream. His career as a prominent journalist, editor of the Ladies Home Journal, and Pulitzer Prize-winning author uniquely equipped him to articulate the challenges and triumphs of immigrants. Influenced by the social and cultural currents of his time, Bok's reflections are imbued with a sense of responsibility to bridge the gap between his homeland and adopted country. This remarkable autobiography is highly recommended for readers interested in the immigrant narrative and those seeking a deeper understanding of the American experience through the lens of personal history. Bok's eloquent prose and heartfelt observations resonate with timeless relevance, making it an indispensable addition to the canon of American literature.

Language and Superdiversity Karel Arnaut, Jan Blommaert, Ben Rampton, Massimiliano Spotti, 2015-12-22. A first synthesis of work done in sociolinguistic superdiversity; this volume offers a substantial introduction to the field and the issues and state of the art research papers organized around three themes: Sketching the paradigm, Sociolinguistic complexity, Policing complexity. The focus is to show how complexity rather than plurality can serve as a lens through which an equally vast range of topics, sites, and issues can be tied together. Superdiversity captures the acceleration and intensification of processes of social mixing and fragmentation since the early 1990s as an outcome of two different but related processes: new post-Cold War migration flows and the advent and spread of the Internet and mobile technologies. The confluence of these forces have created entirely new sociolinguistic environments, leading to research in the past decade that has brought a mixture of new empirical terrain, extreme diversity in language and literacy resources, complex repertoires and practices of participants in interaction, and conceptual challenges. Language and Superdiversity is a landmark volume bringing together the work of the scholars and researchers who spearhead the development of the sociolinguistics of superdiversity.
