Missionary Earthkeeping:

Missionary Earthkeeping Calvin B. DeWitt, Ghilleen T. Prance, 1992 God's Family, God's Earth Kaoma, Kapya J., 2014-01-16 This book explores how the mounting ecological crisis has religious political and economic roots that enable and promote social and environmental harm It presents the thesis that religious traditions including their ethical expressions can effectively address the crisis ameliorate its effects and advocate social and environmental betterment now and in the future The ecological overtones of African traditional religions and Christianity are examined along with a discussion on African morality Recognition is given to the conflict between ecological values and religious teachings in an examination contrasting the awareness of socio economic problems caused by overpopulation ThirdWay, 1993-12 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Ecologies of Grace Willis Jenkins, 2013-02-12 Christianity struggles to show how living on earth matters for living with God While people of faith increasingly seek practical ways to respond to the environmental crisis theology has had difficulty contextualizing the crisis and interpreting the responses In Ecologies of Grace Willis Jenkins presents a field shaping introduction to Christian environmental ethics that offers resources for renewing theology Observing how religious environmental practices often draw on concepts of grace Jenkins maps the way Christian environmental strategies draw from traditions of salvation as they engage the problems of environmental ethics He then uses this new map to explore afresh the ecological dimensions of Christian theology Jenkins first shows how Christian ethics uniquely frames environmental issues and then how those approaches both challenge and reinhabit theological traditions He identifies three major strategies for making environmental problems intelligible to Christian moral experience Each one draws on a distinct pattern of grace as it adapts a secular approach to environmental ethics The strategies of ecojustice stewardship and ecological spirituality make environments matter for Christian experience by drawing on patterns of sanctification redemption and deification He then confronts the problems of each of these strategies through critical reappraisals of Thomas Aquinas Karl Barth and Sergei Bulgakov Each represents a soteriological tradition which Jenkins explores as an ecology of grace letting environmental questions guide investigation into how nature becomes significant for Christian experience By being particularly sensitive to the ways in which environmental problems are made intelligible to Christian moral experience Jenkins guides his readers toward a fuller understanding of Christianity and ecology He not only makes sense of the variety of Christian environmental ethics but by showing how environmental issues come to the heart of Christian experience prepares fertile ground for theological renewal

The Message of Mission Howard Pesket, Vinoth Ramachandra, 2024-09-19 The root of the word mission means sending All Christian mission has its fountainhead in the God revealed in Scripture who sent his Son for us sends his Spirit to us and summons all people to himself The privilege and responsibility of his church sent into all the world is to testify by his words and deeds to Jesus Christ God's unique son crucified risen and ascended The East West partnership in missiological exploration expounds a variety of Old and New Testament texts and examines a wide range of issues The authors desire is that Jesus Christ might be glorified more and more in the church and in the world their eager expectation is that one day the whole creation will find its consummation in him and God will be all and in all Decoding the Church Howard A. Snyder, Daniel V. Runyon, 2011-09-22 Using the genetic code as a model this provocative book will provide you with theological analysis biblical principles and practical applications for understanding the structure and mission of today's church and how it can transform the world Environmental Missions Lowell Bliss, 2013-10-16 Environmental Missions defines an emerging category in missions one that takes seriously both the mandate to evangelize the world and the responsibility of caring for God's good earth Lowell Bliss was a traditional church planting missionary in India when his best Hindu friend there died of malaria This was just one of the events that led him to reexamine the politically charged term environment understanding it now as simply that which surrounds those we love those for whom Jesus died In other words the church is called to reach not only vulnerable people but the space in which they live and breathe Pointing to the narrative of Scripture and the history of missions Bliss shows us that the gospel of Jesus Christ is good news for the whole creation that we must unite two traditionally separate endeavors to fulfill the entirety of God's commission and that the challenge of the environmental crises of our day is also one of our greatest opportunities to reach the least reached with the love of Christ

The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies Kirsteen Kim, Knud Jørgensen, Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga, 2022-04-18 The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies represents more than a century of scholarship related to the theology history and methodology of the propagation of Christian faith and the engagement of Christians with cultures religions and societies worldwide It contains more than 40 articles by experts from different disciplinary and ecclesial perspectives who are from all continents It not only offers a broad overview of key approaches and issues in mission studies but it also highlights current trends and suggests future developments The Handbook builds on renewed interest in mission studies this century generated by recent key statements on mission from ecumenical evangelical Catholic and Orthodox sources and by a spate of academic works on the topic Western church leaders now apply insights from foreign missions such as inculturation liberation interfaith work and power encounter to today's multicultural societies Meanwhile there are new initiatives in mission from the Majority World where most Christians live so that sending is not only from the west to the rest but from everywhere to everywhere Therefore this volume aims to reflect the voices of the receivers of mission as well as its protagonists and to raise awareness of new movements In a time of growing recognition of religions more generally this work examines and theorizes the missional dimensions of the world's largest religion its agendas growth outreach role in public life effect on cultures relevance for development and its approaches to other communities Mission the "labour room" of theology Johannes Knoetze, 2022-11-09 Johannes Knoetze Associate Professor in Practical Theology and Missional Studies at the Faculty of Theology of the University of Pretoria served as the editor of this extremely important and relevant publication Mission the labour room of theology The book comprises of 21 chapters by various esteemed scholars in Missiology or Missional Studies The contributors engage critically with mission history and mission understandings from different contexts in Southern Africa The book is divided in three sections The first gives a historical denominational and current overview of mission in Africa A second section focuses on current theological understandings of the origin of mission the changing contexts of mission as well as importance of mission studies in the theological curriculum in Africa especially in the 21st century Africa A third section looks at the how of mission different modes or figure of mission under the title Mission as or mission in the context of It is an attractive publication with a wealth of information and a wide collection of reflections on the transmittance and reception of faith in Southern African contexts The chapters are written in a clear concise and understandable style This book will appeal to a wide audience ranging from undergraduate students ministers mission practitioners lecturers teaching practical theology missiology missional studies and scholars engaging in academic research Serving Jesus with Integrity Dwight P. Baker, Douglas Hayward, 2010-06-28 The word ethics carries an aura of countervailing views overlapping claims uncertain footing and seductive attractions Some issues are as clear as the horizontal versus vertical axes in Sawai Chinnawong s striking painting Joseph and Potiphar s Wife that graces the cover of this book At the same time because we are involved because our interests our inclinations our plans and relationships are at stake the issues that engage missionary practitioners can be frustratingly labyrinthine curling endlessly back on themselves Evangelical missionaries and mission agencies are concerned about personal morality and rightly so But as the chapters in this volume attest evangelical mission s ethical engagement extends far beyond simply avoiding compromising sexual situations and not absconding with the finances How should we talk about others beliefs and practices to ourselves To them How should we represent ourselves to others What role does tolerance for ambiguity play in missionaries mental preparation How should accountability be structured in intercultural partnerships Are there ways to enable organizational justice to flourish in mission institutions What might integrity in short term mission outreach look like How does care for creation relate to mission What role can a code of ethics for missionary practice play Limited and fallible and marred by the fall we need both guidance and admonition and deep reflection on the conduct of evangelical mission such as is provided in this volume so that we may serve Jesus with true integrity An Introduction to Biblical Ethics J. Robertson McQuilkin, 1995 A highly readable book which states the need for a clear system of moral values and duties based on solid biblical scholarship and an understanding of today s culture Part One deals with what the Bible says about love law sin and ethics Part Two tells how to apply all these biblical principles to life Blood Cries Out A. J. Swoboda, 2014-11-11 John McConnell Jr was the famed founder and visionary of Earth Day McConnell s vision was one of creating a day of remembrance solitude and action to restore the broken human relationship to the land Little acknowledged are McConnell s religious convictions or background McConnell grew up in a Pentecostal home In fact McConnell s parents were both founding charter members of the Assemblies of God in 1914 His own grandfather had an even greater connection to the origins of Pentecostalism by being a personal participant at the Azusa Street Revival in Los Angeles in 1906 Earth Day thus began with strong religious convictions McConnell seeing the ecological demise through his religious background envisioned a day where Christians could show the power of prayer the validity of their charity and their practical concern for Earth's life and people In the spirit of McConnell today's Pentecostal and Charismatic theology has something to say about the earth Blood Cries Out is a unique contribution by Pentecostal and Charismatic theologians and practitioners to the global conversation concerning ecological degradation climate change and ecological justice

African Theocology Ebenezer Yaw Blas, 2020-02-27 There is probably no set of issues of greater importance in the contemporary world than those that are to do with the Earth on which we live and depend The more alienated we become from it the more we contribute to our own destruction Christianity's complicity in this destruction is well documented and hotly debated Africa can ill afford to fall into the same trap that Western Christianity has in this regard One senses the urgency of these concerns in Blas's African Theocology Studies in African Religious Creation Care Extremely well informed in the field Blas not only draws on the three major religions in Africa Christianity Islam and African traditional religion but demonstrates familiarity with the most important recent contributions in the field from Western scholarship With its emphasis on pedagogics African Theocology will play a seminal role in the construction of curricula for an African Christian theology of the environment and is sure to be an essential contribution to all libraries in institutions of higher learning

Ecology of Vocation Kiara A. Jorgenson, 2020-05-15 Critically surveying various approaches to Christian ecological ethics alongside the vexing moral ambiguities of the Anthropocene Ecology of Vocation offers an integrative approach to responsible living vis vis one of Protestantism's key theological resources the doctrine of vocation Drawing on H. Richard Niebuhr's germinal ethical framework with a decidedly ecofeminist perspective Kiara A. Jorgenson demonstrates how vocation's emphasis on right relationship practically speaks to the embodied realities of planetary interrelatedness By excavating the ecological promise of the early Reformers democratized renderings of calling and linking their concerns to the contemporary context she argues that vocation cannot be reduced to the particular aim of monetized work nor to an elitist escape from it Rather vocation must be recast as the dynamic and vibrant space among the myriad roles any of us inhabits at any given time in a particular place When understood in this light vocation signals much more than a job a passion or a quest for self discovery An alternative understanding of vocation's very ecology can extend Christian conceptions of the neighbor beyond the human and lead the church to more faithfully pursue lives characterized by humility restraint wisdom justice and love

missions encourages the church to recover the apostolic imagination that fueled the multiplication of disciples in the first century J D Payne examines the contemporary practice of Western missions and advocates a more central place for Scripture in defining missionary language identity purpose function and strategy He shows that an apostolic understanding of the church s disciple making commission requires rethinking every aspect of missionary engagement The book includes end of chapter discussion questions and action steps to help pastors and church leaders develop an apostolic imagination

Baptized with the Soil Kevin M. Lowe,2016 In the early twentieth century many Americans were troubled by the way agriculture was becoming increasingly industrial and corporate Mainline Protestant churches and cooperative organizations began to come together to promote agrarianism the belief that the health of the nation depended on small rural communities and family farms In Baptized with the Soil Kevin M Lowe offers for the first time a comprehensive history of the Protestant commitment to rural America Christian agrarians believed that farming was the most moral way of life and a means for people to serve God by taking care of the earth that God created When the Great Depression hit Christian agrarians worked harder to keep small farmers on the land They formed alliances with state universities cooperative extension services and each other s denominations They experimented with ways of revitalizing rural church life including new worship services like Rural Life Sunday and new strategies for raising financial support like the Lord s Acre Because they believed that the earth was holy Christian agrarians also became leaders in promoting soil conservation Decades before the environmental movement they inspired an ethic of environmental stewardship in their congregations They may not have been able to prevent the spread of industrial agribusiness but their ideas have helped define significant and long lasting currents in American culture Christian in Public L. Hansen,2008-02-01 Higher education has not escaped the imperative of transformation which has marked the post apartheid South African landscape The nature of the changes at universities however is open to critique Fundamental questions concerning the ideological moorings of knowledge and the politics of the curriculum have not yet been satisfactorily addressed During the apartheid era theology faculties played influential roles at traditional universities and were often characterised by unsettling exclusion of non Christian religions non Calvinist denominations and marginalised voices This volume of essays evidences a process at the University of the Free State s Faculty of Theology to reflect seriously about the need for transformation at the fundamental level that is of knowledge The challenge for theology at a public university is framed in terms of epistemological transformation A number of outstanding public intellectuals such as Jonathan Jansen Crain Soudien and Lis Lange have been invited to present papers to clarify the conceptual challenge and what this might entail for theology Well known theologians such as Conrad Wethmar Allan Boesak and Martin Prozesky reflect on the nature of theology and religion at universities amidst social exigencies Two international theologians Harold Attridge from the prestigious Yale Divinity School and Bram van de Beek from the Free University of Amsterdam share their experiences of institutions that exemplify excellence and ecumenical openness Theologians from the Departments of Practical Theology and Systematic Theology at the University of the Free State writing from the inside articulate the challenges they envision for theology in a post apartheid dispensation The essays represent a variety of perspectives but all attest to a commitment to rethink the nature and task of theology at a public university accepting the challenge of knowledge and power of plurality and otherness and of restorative intellectual justice These timely essays make a unique contribution to the discourses on transformation and on theology at a public university
