Mysteries Of Small Houses:

Mysteries of Small Houses Alice Notley, 1998-06-01 A Pulitzer Prize Finalist Winner of the Los Angeles Time Book Prize Alice Notley vividly reconstructs the mysteries longings and emotions of her past in this brilliant collection of poems that charts her growth from young girl to young woman to accomplished artist In this volume memories of her childhood in the California desert spring to life through evocative renderings of the American landscape circa 1950 Likewise her coming of age as a poet in the turbulent sixties is evoked through the era s angry creative energy As she looks backward with the perspective that time and age allows Notley ably captures the immediacy of youth s passion while offering her own dry eyed interpretations of the events of a life lived close to the bone Like the colorful collages she assembles from paper and other found materials Notley erects structures of image and feeling to house the memories that swirl around her in the present In their feverish intelligent renderings of moments both precise and ephemeral Notley s poems manage to mirror and transcend the times they evoke Her profound tributes to the stages of her life and to the identities she has assumed child youth lover poet wife mother friend and widow are remarkable for their insight and wisdom and for the courage of their unblinking gaze

Mysteries of Small Houses Alice Notley, 1998 Mysteries of Small Houses Alice Notley, 1998-06-01 Alice Notley vividly reconstructs the mysteries longings and emotions of her past in this brilliant new collection of poems that charts her growth from young girl to young woman to accomplished artist In this volume memories of her childhood in the California desert spring to life through evocative renderings of the American landscape circa 1950 Likewise her coming of age as a poet in the turbulent sixties is evoked through the era Spatial Poetics Yasmine Shamma, 2018-09-04 What is the relationship between the spaces we inhabit and the spaces we create Does living in a messy downtown New York City apartment automatically translate to writing a messy New York School poem This volume addresses the environment of the urban apartment illuminating the relationship between the structures of New York City apartments and that of New York School poems It utilizes the lens of urban and spatial theory to widen the possibilities afforded by New Critical and reader response readings of this postmodern American poetry In drawing this connection between consciousness and form it draws on various senses of the environment as informing influence inviting avant garde American poetry to be reconsidered as uniquely organic in its responsiveness to its surroundings Focusing exclusively and comprehensively on Second Generation New York School poetry this is the first book length study to attend to the poetry of this postmodern American movement encouraging American poetry scholars to resituate New York School poetry within larger critical narratives of postmodern innovation

Women, the New York School, and Other True Abstractions Maggie Nelson, 2007-12 Maggie Nelson provides the first extended consideration of the roles played by women in and around the New York School of poets from the 1950s to the present and offers unprecedented analyses of the work of Barbara Guest Bernadette Mayer Alice Notley Eileen Myles and abstract painter Joan Mitchell as well as a reconsideration of the work of many male New York School writers and artists from a feminist perspective Chronicle of the Pulitzer Prizes for Poetry Heinz-D.
