Nations Nationalities Peoples:

Nations--nationalities--people Michael Bruchis, 1984 Part of a trilogy on minority policies of the USSR with special reference to those of former Soviet Moldavia is based on first hand experiences and original materials The African Charter of Human and Peoples' Rights Fatsah Ouguergouz, 2021-11-22 This work reveals the true dimension of the African Charter through a systematic analysis of its real or apparent innovations and a detailed assessment of the commitments of the States parties It also analyzes the effectiveness of the mechanism put in place to monitor compliance with those commitments examining the practice of the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights from its establishment in 1987 It incorporates major recent achievements in the field of the protection of human rights in Africa including the creation of the African Court of Human and Peoples Rights and the establishment of the African Union This work is the expanded and updated English version of La Charte africaine des droits de l'homme et des peuples Une approche juridique des droits de l'homme entre tradition et modernité Presses Universitaires de France Paris Ethiopia and Political Renaissance in Africa Bertus Praeg, 2006 The Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia has made fresh attempts to deal with the intra state challenges to the nation state in multi ethnic societies This book examines how that country is trying to implement a programme of decentralising state power to ethnically based regional constituencies which could be of interest to other countries in Africa The study reveals that the Ethiopian Experiment questions conventional images of polyethnic states This book presents a practical example of the formulation of new approaches towards ethnicity federalism and objective nation statehood attempting to examine the changing meaning of ethnicity and nationalism throughout history in Western Europe to discuss how they impacted on state formations in Africa and to consider why Ethiopia stands unique in the process of state building versus ethnicity The study elaborates the factors which convinced the new Ethiopian leadership to embark on such a revolutionary path one on which each of the country's Nations Nationalities and Peoples is guaranteed the right to self government self determination and even independence federalism and the transition to democracy Handbook of Federal Countries, 2005 Karl Nerenberg, 2005 Handbook of federal countries 2005 edited by Ann L Griffiths coordinated by Karl Nerenberg Nation vs. People Dzemat Sokolovic, 2009-03-26 The book is provoked by the recent tragedy of Bosnia and the clash within a paradigmatic multicultural society It offers theoretical responses both to the challenge of Bosnia and to the global challenge of how to reconcile two facts of the modern world and the threat that stems from this the existence of 200 states and their commitment to their own integrities and the existence of 8000 ethnic groups and their devotion to keep their identities alive The question the book raises is whether nation state and democracy are the proper and only answers to these challenges Presenting conceptual controversies about two of the most discussed and disputed concepts of the present day the author insists on totally new notions of nation and people ethnic group narod folk He maintains that ethnicity and nationality have hitherto been defined mainly in terms of culture and politics in anthropology and political science Both concepts are however basically societal phenomena and therefore fall primarily within the subject domain of sociology. By combining a theoretical analysis with experience from Bosnia the book provides definitions of concepts such as ethnic group and nation and thereby ensures a new perspective and analytical tool for an international audience of academics and officials in international institutions and organizations. While the book is written in an academic style it is nevertheless accessible to a broader audience: professors willing to test their own views and students keen to meet new approaches; academics eager to face new theoretical challenges and politicians ready to apply new emerging expertise; international practitioners capable of learning from life and local activists able to make up new theoretical responses to global issues.

Burden of Nationality
 Jacob J. Akol, 2006 Society, State, and Identity in African History
 Bahru Zewde, 2008

The Fourth Congress of the Association of African historians was held in Addis Ababa in May 2007. These 21 papers are a key selection of the papers presented there with an introduction by the distinguished historian Bahru Zewde. Given the contemporary salience and the historical depth of the issue of identity the congress was devoted to that global phenomenon within Africa. The papers explore and analyse the issue of identity in its diverse temporal settings from its pre colonial roots to its contemporary manifestations. The papers are divided into six parts: Pre Colonial Identities; Colonialism and Identity; Conceptions of the Nation State and Identity; Identity Based Conflicts; Migration and Acculturation; and Memory History and Identity. The authors are scholars from Benin, Botswana, Cameroon, the Democratic Republic of Congo, Ethiopia, Mali, Nigeria, Senegal, South Africa and Zimbabwe. Bahru Zewde is Emeritus Professor of History at Addis Ababa University, Executive Director of the Forum for Social Studies and Vice President of the Association of African Historians. He was formerly Chairperson of the Department of History and Director of the Institute of Ethiopian Studies at Addis Ababa University. Amongst his publications is A History of Modern Ethiopia 1855-1991.

From Peoples Into Nations
 John Connelly, 2022-01-25

This book is a history of East Central Europe since the late eighteenth century, the region of Europe between German central Europe and Russia in the East. Connelly argues the region for which it is frequently hard to define exact boundaries and which is sometimes treated country by country in a way seemingly separate from the broader trends of European history was one of shared experience despite most of the peoples being divided by linguistic, geographic and political barriers. Beginning in the 1780s an unwitting Habsburg monarch Joseph II decreed that his subjects would use only German as he hoped to mold a common nationality using German over the disparate subjects. Instead he unleashed the energies and struggle for the emergence of new nations that pitted small peoples armed with an idea against empires. The author argues that the underlying national self assertion which emerged under imperial rule in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries shows deep connections to subsequent histories: to the creation of nation states of the regions after World War I, the failure of democratic rule in these states during the interwar years, the submersion of the region under Nazi then Soviet rule after 1939 and to the reinvention of sovereign states and then the break up of two of them after 1989. The book interconnects major themes and country histories for the first time, chronicling this diverse region over many generations from the time of Joseph through democratic and socialist revolutions genocide and Stalinism through civil society movements struggling for liberal democracy into our own day when illiberal politicians come to power by exploiting very old fears The Yugoslav community of nations Frits W. International Human Rights Law in Africa Christof Heyns, Morne van der Linde, 2022-11-07 Contrary to popular belief there is a vast body of law dealing with human rights in Africa in existence today The first priority at the moment is consequently not the adoption of new norms or the creation of even more structures the most immediate challenge lies in making the existing structures work and ensuring compliance with the norms already accepted by African societies Access to the relevant material constitutes a necessary precondition for any other gains in this field The aim of this reference work is therefore to make African human rights law accessible to all those involved in or interested in human rights law on the continent in order to strengthen its impact Primary documents are introduced and reproduced and presented in a coherent framework The main institutions public and private dealing with human rights in Africa are identified and discussed Comprehensive overviews of the international human rights legal regimes applicable to Africa as well as country reports are provided Access to this body of law will enable judges practicing lawyers academics and other researchers as well as law reformers NGOs activists and students to both ascertain and assert these rights It will also serve to ensure the development of a stronger indigenous African human rights jurisprudence rooted in local experience history culture and practices This book consequently tries to contribute towards documenting systemising and anchoring the African human rights system This publication replaces and updates the earlier Human Rights Law in Africa Series which appeared on an annual basis from 1996 to 1999 In order to make the publication accessible in Africa the Centre for Human Rights and the Raoul Wallenberg Institute in Sweden have undertaken a targeted distribution campaign on the continent The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004138810

Human Rights and the Third

World Subrata Sankar Bagchi, Arnab Das, 2012-12-06 Human Rights and the Third World Issues and Discourses deals with the controversial questions on the universalistic notions of human rights It finds Third World perspectives on human rights and seeks to open up a discursive space in the human rights discourse to address unresolved questions citing issues and problems from different countries in the Third World 1 Whether alternative perspectives should be taken as the standard for human rights in the Third World countries 2 Should there be a universalistic notion of rights for Homo sapiens or are we talking about two diametrically opposite trends and standards of human rights for the same species 3 How far these Third World perspectives of human rights can ensure the protection of the minorities and the vulnerable sections of population particularly the women and children within the Third World 4 Can these alternative perspectives help in fighting the Third World problems like poverty hunger corruption despotism social exclusion like the caste system in India communalism and the like 5 Can there be reconciliation between the Third World perspectives and the Western perspective of human rights

Secession and Statehood Ana Gemma López Martín, José Antonio Perea Unceta, 2021-09-08 This book analyses the complex phenomenon of secession as a form of creation of States from the perspective of international law As opposed to other approaches based on the analysis of the political foundation of the secessionist processes or on the construction of a legal basis that justifies the existing practice the aim is to provide an explanation of secession as a practice covered neither by the legal regime of the United Nations for the self determination of colonial peoples nor by the regulations and guidelines relating to the human rights of minorities and indigenous populations both in the UN and in regional organisations Organization of American States Council of Europe or African Union It is stated that secession is a practice that does not comply with international peremptory norms such as those that prohibit going against the territorial integrity of the States the use of force or intervention in the internal affairs of other States Even being aware of the inevitable consequences of the effective creation of States and other de facto entities on trade relations communications and the rights of individuals among other matters secession is a practice that should lead to an obligation of nonrecognition by States and by international organisations As an example of this practice the secessionist process in Catalonia since 2014 is explained and studied

Eurasian Empires as Blueprints for Ethiopia Asnake Kefale,Tomasz Kamusella,Christophe Van der Beken,2021-02-14 This book is a contribution to the global history of the transfer of political ideas as exemplified by the case of modern Ethiopia Like many non European nation states Ethiopia adopted a western model of statehood that is the nation state Unlike the postcolonial polities that have retained the mode of statehood imposed on them by their colonial powers Ethiopia was never successfully colonized leaving its ruling elite free to select a model of modern western statehood In 1931 via Japan they adopted the model of unitary ethnolinguistically homogenous nation state in turn copied by Tokyo in 1889 from the German Empire founded in 1871 Following the Ethiopian Revolution 1974 that overthrew the imperial system the new revolutionary elite promised to address the nationality question through the marxist leninist model The Soviet model of ethnolinguistic federalism originally derived from Austria Hungary was introduced in Ethiopia first in 1992 and officially with the 1995 Constitution To this day the politics of modern Ethiopia is marked by the tension between these two opposed models of the essentially central European type of statehood The late 19th century German German quarrel on the proper model of national statehood for Germany or more broadly modern central Europe remains the quarrel of Ethiopian politics nowadays The book will be useful for scholars of Ethiopian and African history and politics and also offers a case in comparative studies on the subject of different models of national statehood elsewhere

Societies in Transition Martin Leiner,Maria Palme,Peggy Stoeckner,Benoît Bourguine,Francois Dermange,Dennis Doyle,Matthias Gockel,Makoto Mizutani,Arie Nadler,David Tombs,2014-07-16 The second volume of the trans disciplinary series Research in Peace and Reconciliation looks at ways of dealing with the past in Sub Saharan Africa in recent decades and highlights the variety of peaceful strategies and processes It asks to what extent this variety fosters the development of alternative methods for the transformation of violent conflict The contributions focus on different African countries and regions as Chad Nigeria Rwanda Uganda Namibia Zimbabwe and South Africa They take into account the influence of particular cultural contexts on processes of reconciliation In doing so they emphasize the importance of religions rites and tribal customs as well as the complex legacy of colonialism They also look at the presentation of the topic in Western media Many thanks go to the Ernst Abbe Foundation Jena for its generous support of the publication

The Oxford Handbook of the Ethiopian Economy
Fantu Cheru, Christopher Cramer, Arkebe Oqubay, 2019-01-10 From a war torn and famine plagued country at the beginning of the 1990s Ethiopia is today emerging as one of the fastest growing economies in Africa Growth in Ethiopia has surpassed that of every other sub Saharan country over the past decade and is forecast by the International Monetary Fund to exceed 8 percent over the next two years The government has set its eyes on transforming the country into a middle income country by 2025 and into a leading manufacturing hub in Africa The Oxford Handbook of the Ethiopian Economy studies this country's unique model of development where the state plays a central role and where a successful industrialization drive has challenged the long held erroneous assumption that industrial policy will never work in poor African countries While much of the volume is focused on post 1991 economic development policy and strategy the analysis is set against the background of the long history of Ethiopia and more specifically on the Imperial period that ended in 1974 the socialist development experiment of the Derg regime between 1974 and 1991 and the policies and strategies of the current EPRDF government that assumed power in 1991 Including a range of contributions from both academic and professional standpoints this volume is a key reference work on the economy of Ethiopia
