Nations As Zones Of Conflict:

Nations as Zones of Conflict John Hutchinson, 2005 This compelling book argues that it is wrong to assume that nations are culturally uniform Hutchinson provocatively asserts that resting on older diverse ethnic identities nations adapt from the unpredictable challenges of modernity and such plurality makes them prone to cultural wars Debate on John Hutchinson's Nations as Zones of Conflict, 2008 Helmut Kohl's Quest for Normality Christian Wicke, 2015-02-01 During his political career Helmut Kohl used his own life story to promote a normalization of German nationalism and to overcome the stigma of the Nazi period In the context of the cold war and the memory of the fascist past he was able to exploit the combination of his religious generational regional and educational he has a PhD in History experiences by connecting nationalist ideas to particular biographical narratives Kohl presented himself as the embodiment of normality a de radicalized German nationalism which was intended to eclipse any anti Western and post national peculiarities This book takes a biographical approach to the study of nationalism by examining its manifestation in Helmut Kohl and the way he historicized Germany's past The Law of Armed Conflict and the Use of Force Frauke Lachenmann, Rüdiger Wolfrum, 2017 This volume collects articles on the law of armed conflict and the use of force from the Max Planck Encyclopedia of Public International Law to facilitate easy access to content from the leading reference work in international law Armed Conflict and Displacement Mélanie Jacques, 2012-09-20 A detailed analysis of contemporary issues relating to international humanitarian law and its interplay with war migrants Unification Perspectives on Peace and Conflict Transformation Dr. Thomas Ward and Dr. Claude Perrottet, 2013-02-13 This collection of essays introduces Rev Sun Myung Moon's contribution to the promotion of World Peace through an introduction to his thought system known as Unification Thought and through a presentation of his numerous projects aimed at conflict transformation It consists of a series of essays that follow a logical sequence including an introduction to Unification Thought a survey of peace studies and essays on foundational contributors to peace studies and Reverend Moon's own enlightening contributions to the discipline including his approach to relations with Pyongyang The Routledge Handbook of Artificial Intelligence and International Relations Diego Brasioli, Laura Guercio, Giovanna Gnerre Landini, Andrea de Giorgio, 2025-05-15 The Routledge Handbook of Artificial Intelligence and International Relations examines how machines algorithms and data are reshaping the way nations interact negotiate and navigate global politics In the 21st century artificial intelligence AI has transformed from a theoretical wonder to a real force and with it the race to dominate new technologies is proving to be a key geopolitical concern This book looks at both the ways in which AI is transforming the landscape of international relations and the challenges this brings The book includes discussions on The need for regulations and oversight to make sure that AI is used in an ethical way AI's role in conflict resolution and peacekeeping and its influence on economic alliances The ethical and moral dilemmas posed by autonomous systems making life or death decisions Frameworks that ensure responsible and accountable use of AI How the choices we make today will define the contours of global equilibrium for generations to come With a variety contributions from policy analysts philosophers government officials scientists researchers and business representatives this book appeals to students and researchers of political science international relations computer science and ethics It also holds interest for professionals in government organizations and NGOs at national and international levels The Dynamics Of Latin American Foreign Policies Jennie K Lincoln,Elizabeth G Ferris,2019-07-11 A sequel to Latin American Foreign Policies Global and Regional Dimensions Westview 1981 this collection of original essays presents a comprehensive view of the principal foreign policy issues of the nations of Latin America and lays the foundation for understanding the challenges facing those nations in the 1980s The book begins with an introduction to the major themes of conflict and cooperation in Latin American foreign policies an overview of U S Latin American relations and an assessment of contemporary research in the field The authors then analyze the economic challenges regional conflicts and security concerns of the nations of South and Central America with case studies of the foreign policies of Argentina Brazil Chile Peru Venezuela Colombia Mexico Nicaragua and Cuba A concluding section suggests future directions for research on Latin American foreign policies in the 1980s and offers a theoretical framework for the analysis of foreign policy behavior in the region Nationalism and War John Hutchinson,2017-02-16 This interdisciplinary book is the first systematic study of the relationship between nationalism and war and as such makes an original contribution to theories of nationalism and state formation It offers a dynamic and interactive framework by which to understand the role of warfare in its changing manifestations in the rise of nation states the formation of national communities definitions of political rights and duties and the transformation from a world of empires to one of nation states Nationalism and War scrutinizes existing approaches that view both nations and nationalism as recent products of martial state building that began with the military revolutions in Europe and argues that nationalism and national communities emerged independently in the Middle Ages to shape both war making and state building This book also explores the connection between war commemoration and the creation of nations as sacralized communities that offer meaning and purpose to a world marked by unpredictable change It shows how nationalist military revolutions led to the downfall of Empires in total war and the mass production of postcolonial nation states But problems of security have also inspired recurring patterns of re imperialization This book refutes claims that we are now in a global and post national era where traumatic accounts have replaced the heroic narratives that once sustained nation states Finally it appraises approaches that claim there is an inherent connection between nationalism and collective violence arguing such connections are largely contingent Air Defence Identification Zones and Maritime Frontier Disputes Stephanie Stipsits,2025-04-03 The book clarifies key conceptual issues surrounding ADIZs and their influence on maritime territorial disputes in the context of the Senkaku Diaoyu island dispute It uniquely offers a detailed analysis of national legislation on ADIZ suggesting that ADIZ might be evolving customary international law The book demonstrates that aerial zones do not necessarily violate the freedom of overflight as the airspace above the EEZ may have a dual legal status allowing for sui generis zones Furthermore it shows that ADIZs do not conflict with fundamental principles of international air law or the ICAO Council's authority to establish rules in international airspace

Democracy and Civil Society in a Global Era Scott Nicholas

Romaniuk, Marguerite Marlin, 2016-03-31 Democracy and Civil Society in a Global Era addresses challenges to the strengthening of active citizenship In this highly structured work the themes presented are linked to fostering a culture of peace and non violence the lessening of fear and insecurity in political economic social and cultural terms inherently detached from the conceptualization of political delineations and physical boundaries and the ability to live dignified lives The various regions that are represented in the case studies include the Indian sub continent Malaysia Indonesia Turkey Iran China the Middle East Nigeria and the EU The commonality and universality of the topics allows readers from any region of the world to relate to them This book presents a dynamic combination of theory and field research and is an iconoclastic tour de force of studies in democracy Policy makers think tanks and development practitioners may be particularly be interested in this book because it is about action rather than mere ideas and processes It demonstrates how social movements can introduce and strengthen equality inclusion accountability and the free flow of information These elements in turn can contribute to the acculturation of freedom and social justice in the developed world just as much as in the developing world

Investments in Conflict Zones Tobias Ackermann, Sebastian Wuschka, 2020-12-15 Investments in Conflict Zones addresses the topical and underexplored role of international investment law in armed conflicts disputed territories and frozen conflicts The edited collection explores how these different conflict situations impact the application and interpretation of international investment law and how the protection of investors can be reconciled with the politically charged circumstances and state interests involved Written by a selected group of experts from different fields of international law the volume moves beyond the confines of investment law offering novel insights on its intersection with the law of armed conflict human rights law the law of the sea general international law and national laws including those adopted by de facto regimes which lack recognition as states

High-Value Natural Resources and Post-Conflict Peacebuilding Pivi Lujala, 2012-03-29 For most post conflict countries the transition to peace is daunting In countries with high value natural resources including oil gas diamonds other minerals and timber the stakes are unusually high and peacebuilding is especially challenging Resource rich post conflict countries face both unique problems and opportunities They enter peacebuilding with an advantage that distinguishes them from other war torn societies access to natural resources that can yield substantial revenues for alleviating poverty compensating victims creating jobs and rebuilding the country and the economy Evidence shows however that this opportunity is often wasted Resource rich countries do not have a better record in sustaining peace In fact resource related conflicts are more likely to relapse Focusing on the relationship between high value natural resources and peacebuilding in post conflict settings this book identifies opportunities and strategies for converting resource revenues to a peaceful future Its thirty chapters draw on the experiences of forty one researchers and practitioners as well as the broader literature and cover a range of key issues including resource extraction revenue sharing and allocation and institution building The book provides a concise theoretical and practical framework that policy makers researchers practitioners and students can use to understand and address the complex interplay between the management of high value resources and peace High Value Natural Resources and Post Conflict Peacebuilding is part of a global initiative led by the Environmental Law Institute ELI the United Nations Environment Programme UNEP the University of Tokyo and McGill University to identify and analyze lessons in natural resource management and post conflict peacebuilding The project has generated six edited books of case studies and analyses with contributions from practitioners policy makers and researchers Other books in the series address land water livelihoods assessing and restoring natural resources and governance

Palestine in EU and Russian Foreign Policy Malath Alagha, 2016-10-04 The establishment of a Palestinian state has long been a strategic objective of EU and Russian foreign policy in the Middle East However over a decade after the creation of the road map the establishment of an independent Palestinian state has still not been achieved Palestine in EU and Russian Foreign Policy uses the school of constructivism to provide a new understanding of EU and Russian foreign policy It explores the failure of these global actors to speed up the process of establishing a Palestinian state despite this being a strategic objective and top priority of their involvement in the Middle East peace process The book then analyses the role of identity and self other perception in the making of EU and Russian foreign policy towards the Middle East peace process It is argued that Palestinian statehood provides a telling empirical example of how and to what extent the search for global actorness as a matter of international identity informs foreign policy making by global actors The book then proceeds to discuss why the EU and Russia are so eager to be involved in initiating a peace settlement Offering a new understanding of foreign policy making by global players in Middle Eastern politics this book will appeal to students scholars and policymakers working in International Relations and European Russian and Middle Eastern studies
