The Patchwork of World History in Texas High Schools Stephen Jackson,2022-11-30 This book traces the historical development of the World History course as it has been taught in high school classrooms in Texas a populous and nationally influential state over the last hundred years Arguing that the course is a result of a patchwork of competing groups and ideas that have intersected over the past century with each new framework patched over but never completely erased or replaced the author crucially examines themes of imperialism Eurocentrism and nationalism in both textbooks and the curriculum more broadly The first part of the book presents an overview of the World History course supported by numerical analysis of textbook content and public documents while the second focuses on the depiction of non Western peoples and persistent narratives of Eurocentrism and nationalism It ultimately offers that a more global accurate and balanced curriculum is possible despite the tension between the ideas of professional world historians who often de center the nation state in their quest for a truly global approach to the subject and the historical core rationale of state sponsored education in the United States to produce loyal citizens Offering a new conceptual understanding of how colonial themes in World History curriculum have been dealt with in the past and are now engaged with in contemporary times it provides essential context for scholars and educators with interests in the history of education curriculum studies and the teaching of World History in the United States

Instructor and Teachers World ,1909 Lee and His Generals Lawrence Lee Hewitt,Thomas E. Schott,2012-06-25 A legendary professor at Louisiana State University T Harry Williams not only produced such acclaimed works as Lincoln and the Radicals Lincoln and His Generals and a biography of Huey Long that won both the Pulitzer Prize and the National Book Award but he also mentored generations of students who became distinguished historians in their own right In this collection ten of those former students along with one author greatly inspired by Williams s example offer incisive essays that honor both Williams and his career long dedication to sound imaginative scholarship and broad historical inquiry The opening and closing essays fittingly enough deal with Williams himself a biographical sketch by Frank J Wetta and a piece by Roger Spiller that place Williams in larger historical perspective among writers on Civil War generalship The bulk of the book focuses on Robert E Lee and a number of the commanders who served under him starting with Charles Roland s seminal article The Generalship of Robert E Lee the only one in the collection that has been previously published Among the essays that follow Roland s are contributions by Brian Holden Reid on the ebb and flow of Lee s reputation George C Rable on Stonewall Jackson s deep religious commitment A Wilson Greene on P G T Beauregard s role in the Petersburg Campaign and William L Richter on James Longstreet as postwar pariah Together these gifted historians raise a host of penetrating and original questions about how we are to understand America s defining conflict in our own time just as T Harry Williams did in his And by encompassing such varied subjects as military history religion and historiography Lee and His Generals demonstrates once more what a fertile field Civil War scholarship remains Lawrence Lee Hewitt is professor of history emeritus at Southeastern Louisiana University Most recently he and Arthur W Bergeron now deceased coedited three volumes of essays under the collective title Confederate Generals in the Western Theater Thomas E Schott served for many years as a historian for the U S Air Force and U S Special Operations Command He is the author of Alexander H Stephens of Georgia A Biography which won both the Society of American Historians Award and the Jefferson Davis Award Christian Nation ,1901 American Book Publishing Record ,1968 The Practical Teacher ,1882 A Manual of Chemical Analysis as Applied to the Examination of Medicinal Chemicals Friedrich Hoffmann, Frederick Belding Power, 1883 The Nation ,1890 The Canadian Patent Office Record and Register of Copyrights ,1960 Social Education Erling Messer Hunt, 1963 Includes section Book reviews A World View ,1985
