Developing High Quality Childcare and Early Education Accessible to All Committee of Public Accounts,2004

Research shows that high quality childcare and early education has positive influences on child development and that lack of accessible and affordable childcare can be a barrier to work for parents of young children The Government has increased spending on early years provision and developed the National Childcare Strategy and a number of other initiatives Following on from a National Audit Office report on this topic HCP 268 session 2003 04 ISBN 0102927332 published in February 2004 the Committee s report examines the progress that has been made in increasing the supply of early years provision improving choice for parents and delivering improvements in care standards Findings include that although there has been significant investment and good progress made in increasing the number of childcare places available there are continuing regional gaps in provision particularly in London Early year programmes need to focus on services for deprived children outside recognised disadvantaged areas and more use should be made of school premises to meet unmet demand

Learning from the Children Jacqueline Waldren,Ignacy-Marek Kaminski,2012 Children and youth regardless of their ethnic backgrounds are experiencing lifestyle choices their parents never imagined and contributing to the transformation of ideals traditions education and adult child power dynamics As a result of the advances in technology and media as well as the effects of globalization the transmission of social and cultural practices from parents to children is changing Based on a number of qualitative studies this book offers insights into the lives of children and youth in Britain Japan Spain Israel Palestine and Pakistan Attention is focused on the child s perspective within the social power dynamics involved in adult child relations which reveals the dilemmas of policy planning and parenting in a changing world Social Policy John

Baldock,Nick Manning,Sarah Vickerstaff,2007-03 Designed for use by undergraduates on social policy social work and sociology courses and by students on vocational training courses including postgraduate this textbook covers all the main topics of social policy Professionals in early childhood education and care systems Pamela Oberhuemer,Inge

Schreyer,Michelle J. Neuman,2010-05-19 In a European context of rapidly expanding early education care provision for young children the staffing of these services is a critical quality issue What are the requirements for professional education and training How alike or how varied are the qualification profiles and fields of work Through detailed country reports and comparative analyses across 27 countries this book provides answers to these questions Independent Schools
