An Introduction to Swedish Law Stig Stromholm, 2013-06-29 TO SWEDISH LAW VOLUME I AN INTRODUCTION TO SWEDISH LAW VOLUME I EDITED BY STIG STROMHOLM SPRINGER SCIENCE BUSINESS MEDIA LLC ISBN 978 94 017 4349 5 ISBN 978 94 017 4347 1 eBook DOI 10 1007 978 94 017 4347 1 Springer Science Business Media New York 1981 Originally published by Kluwer Deventer The Netherlands in 1981 Softcover reprint of the hardcover 1st edition 1981 All rights reserved No part of this publication may be reproduced stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form by any means electronic mechanical photocopying recording or otherwise without the prior written permission of the publisher EDITOR S PREFACE The purpose of this book is to provide a fairly broad survey of the Swedish legal system In order to avoid possible disappointment it would seem important to make clear from the outset what kind of questions the authors propose to answer and what groups of readers they are addressing The easiest way to do this is to set out what we are not purporting to do Thus the book is not intended to serve as a primer for students who possess no knowledge of the law i e of the concepts ideas and solutions of at least one legal system Nor is it the purpose of the authors to give practitioners the kind of precise technical answers to isolated questions that they need when advising their clients on the proper course of action in business or litigation conducted within the framework of the legal system described

Encyclopedia of Governance Mark Bevir, 2007 Media Freedom as a Fundamental Right Jan Oster, 2015-05-28 Domestic constitutions and courts applying international human rights conventions acknowledge the significance of the mass media for a democratic society not only by granting special privileges but also by imposing enhanced duties and responsibilities to journalists and media companies However the challenges of media convergence media ownership concentration and the internet have led to legal uncertainty Should media privileges be maintained and if so how is the media to be defined To what extent does media freedom as a legal concept also encompass bloggers who have not undertaken journalistic education And how can a legal distinction be drawn between investigative journalism on the one hand and reporting on purely private matters on the other To answer these questions Jan Oster combines doctrinal and conceptual comparative analysis with descriptive and normative theory and argues in favour of a media freedom principle based on the significance of the media for public discourse

The SAGE Handbook of Media Studies John D. H. Downing, Denis McQuail, Philip Schlesinger, Ellen Wartella, 2004-09-08 Media and communication research is a diverse and stimulating field of inquiry not only in subject matter but also in purposes and methodologies Over the past twenty years and in step with the contemporary shift toward trans disciplinaryity Media Studies has rapidly developed a very significant body of theory and evidence Media Studies is here to stay and scholars in the discipline have a vital contribution to make The SAGE Handbook of Media Studies surveys and evaluates the theories practices and future of the field Editor John Downing and associate editors Denis McQuail Philip Schlesinger and Ellen Wartella have brought together a team of international contributors to provide a varied critical analysis of this intensely interesting field of study The Handbook offers a comprehensive review within five interconnected areas humanistic and social scientific approaches global and comparative perspectives the relation of media to economy and power media users and elements in the media mosaic ranging from media ethics to advertising from popular music to digital technologies and from Hollywood and Bollywood to alternative media The contributors to The Handbook are from Australia Austria Britain Canada France Guatemala India Japan the Netherlands South Korea and the United States Each contributor offers a unique perspective on topics broad in scope The Handbook is an ideal resource for university media researchers for faculty developing new courses and revising curricula and for graduate courses in media studies It is also a necessary addition to any academic library

Media and Politics in the Southern Mediterranean Roxane Farmanfarmaian, 2020-10-20 This edited volume presents ground breaking empirical research on the media in political transition in Tunisia Turkey and Morocco Focusing on developments in the wake of the region's upheavals in 2011 it offers a new theoretical framework for understanding mediascapes in the confessional and hybrid authoritarian systems of the Middle East In this book media scholars focus on three themes the media's structure as an expression of governance the media's function as a reflection of the market and the media's agency in communicating between power and the public The result is a unique addition to the literature on two counts Firstly analysis of similar players issues and processes in each country produces a thematically consistent comparative assessment of the media's role across the southern Mediterranean region The first cross country comparison of specific media practices in the Middle East it covers issues such as women in talk shows media's relationship with surveillance and comparative practices of media regulation Secondly actualising the idea that media reflects the society that produces it the studies here draw on field data to lay the foundations for a new theory of media Values and Status Negotiation VSN which evolved from the region's unique characteristics and practices and offers an alternative to prevailing Western centric approaches to media analysis Media and Politics in the Southern Mediterranean will appeal to students and scholars of politics sociology Media Studies Cultural Studies and Middle Eastern Studies
