Raiding, Trading, and Feasting Laura L. Junker, 1999-09-01 As early as the first millennium A D the Philippine archipelago formed the easternmost edge of a vast network of Chinese Southeast Asian Indian and Arab traders Items procured through maritime trade became key symbols of social prestige and political power for the Philippine chiefly elite Raiding, Trading, and Feasting presents the first comprehensive analysis of how participation in this trade related to broader changes in the political economy of these Philippine island societies By combining archaeological evidence with historical sources Laura Junker is able to offer a more nuanced examination of the nature and evolution of Philippine maritime trading chiefdoms Most importantly she demonstrates that it is the dynamic interplay between investment in the maritime luxury goods trade and other evolving aspects of local political economies rather than foreign contacts that led to the cyclical coalescence of larger and more complex chiefdoms at various times in Philippine history A broad spectrum of historical and ethnographic sources ranging from tenth century Chinese tributary trade records to turn of the century accounts of chiefly feasts of merit highlights both the diversity and commonality in evolving chiefly economic strategies within the larger political landscape of the archipelago The political ascendance of individual polities the emergence of more complex forms of social ranking and long term changes in chiefly economies are materially documented through a synthesis of archaeological research at sites dating from the Metal Age late first millennium B C to the colonial period The author draws on her archaeological fieldwork in the Tanjay River basin to investigate the long term dynamics of chiefly political economy in a single region Reaching beyond the Philippine archipelago this study contributes to the larger anthropological debate concerning ecological and cultural factors that shape political economy in chiefdoms and early states It attempts to address the question of why Philippine polities like early historic kingdoms elsewhere in Southeast Asia have a segmentary political structure in which political leaders are dependent on prestige goods exchanges personal charisma and ritual pageantry to maintain highly personalized power bases Raiding Trading and Feasting is a volume of impressive scholarship and substantial scope unmatched in the anthropological and historical literature It will be welcomed by Pacific and Asian historians and anthropologists and those interested in the theoretical issues of chiefdoms

Continuity and Change in Brunei Darussalam Victor T. King, Stephen C. Druce, 2020-10-29 This book analyses the processes of social and economic change in Brunei Darussalam Drawing on recent studies undertaken by both locally based scholars and senior researchers from outside the state the book explores the underlying strengths characteristics and uniqueness of Malay Islamic Monarchy in Brunei Darussalam in a historical context and examines these in an increasingly challenging regional and global environment It considers events in Brunei s recent history and current socio cultural transformations which give expression to the traumatic years of decolonisation in Southeast Asia A wide range of issues focus on foreign non Bruneian narratives of Brunei as against insider or domestic accounts of the sultanate the status of minority ethnic groups in Brunei and the concept of Brunei society as well as changes in the character and composition of the famous water village Kampong Ayer as the cultural heartland of Brunei Malay culture and the socio cultural and economic effects of the resettlement of substantial segments of the population from a life on water to a life on land A timely and very important study on Brunei Darussalam the book will be of interest to anthropologists sociologists historians geographers and area studies specialists in Southeast Asian Studies and Asian Studies

Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King, Zawawi Ibrahim, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2016-08-12 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council s international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012 The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post war research on Borneo to wider scholarship It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region In particular there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak In doing so the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve specifically subjects themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation elaboration and research and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region Ilocano Irrigation Henry T. Lewis, 2019-09-30 This volume examines some of the major factors social demographic and environmental that account for the success of communal irrigation in Ilocos Norte and by implication its absence in adjacent areas other parts of the Philippines and more widely in other parts of insular Southeast Asia However whether this explanation accounts for all the factors involved or even adequately weighs those that are here discussed is secondary to the main concern of this volume corporate groups What zanjas irrigation societies show are repeated examples of how individual farmers working in concert developed and employed corporate principles to the solution of a common goal or problem It is a kind of solution that has been widely and effectively employed in much of human history Oberdiek, 2003-01-01 Routledge Handbook of the Chinese Diaspora Chee-Beng Tan, 2013 With around 30 million migrants worldwide the ethnic Chinese and the Chinese in diaspora form the largest diaspora in the world The economic reform of China in the late 1970s marked a huge phase of migration from China and the new migrants have had a major impact on the local societies including the ethnic Chinese and on China The transnational networks between the Chinese in diaspora and China have become even more significant as China has emerged as an economic world power Understanding Human Society Walter Goldschmidt, 2013-04-15 Published in 1998 Understanding Human Society is a valuable contribution to the field of Social Science RETHINKING INDONESIA'S FOREIGN POLICY: Principles in Evolving Contemporary Dynamics Fadhila Inas Pratiwi, Brian Ainnurrohman, Aldora Amadhea Wijaya, 2021-11-17 Penerbit Airlangga University Press ISBN 9786024737818 This book itself consists of two chapters 1 Peace and Security 2 Political Economy and Socio Cultural There were 17 papers in total that were presented in two panels 7 papers from the peace and security chamber and 10 papers from the political economy and socio cultural chamber These 17 papers are the final version of the selected ones as they have gone through some revision process In elaborating the ideas of the paper the authors could confidently choose the language they are using either it is English or Indonesian We also add our notable speakers and panelist Professor Mark Beeson an International Politics Professor at the University of Western Australia and I Gede Wahyu Wicaksana S IP M Si Ph D who is an International Relations Department Lecturer in Universitas Airlangga Pentoutopia Thomas Diefenbach, 2022-09-26 This book is about Pentoutopia the model of a good society It shows how a society could be how a society should be a society where everyone is as free as possible where all institutions are as democratic as possible where all people have relatively equal conditions where life is just and where systems and processes are sustainable The book illustrates comprehensively and in detail how institutions organisations the economy and society can be based on and function according to the principles of freedom democracy equality justice and sustainability Moreover it demonstrates how Pentoutopia works how its people and institutions establish and maintain a society that is not just a distant utopia but a realistic achievable and doable utopia
