Jay Jaffe,2017-07-25 A revolutionary method for electing players to the Baseball Hall of Fame from Sports Illustrated writer Jay Jaffe using his popular and proprietary JAWS ranking system The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum tucked away in upstate New York in a small town called Cooperstown is far from any major media market or big league stadium Yet no sports hall of fame s membership is so hallowed nor its qualifications so debated nor its voting process so dissected Since its founding in 1936 the Hall of Fame s standards for election have been nebulous and its selection processes arcane resulting in confusion among voters not to mention mistakes in who has been recognized and who has been bypassed Numerous so called greats have been inducted despite having not been so great while popular but controversial players such as all time home run leader Barry Bonds and all time hits leader Pete Rose are on the outside looking in Now in The Cooperstown Casebook Jay Jaffe shows us how to use his revolutionary ranking system to ensure the right players are recognized The foundation of Jaffe s approach is his JAWS system an acronym for the Jaffe WAR Score which he developed over a decade ago Through JAWS each candidate can be objectively compared on the basis of career and peak value to the players at his position who are already in the Hall of Fame Because of its utility JAWS has gained an increasing amount of exposure in recent years Through his analysis Jaffe shows why the Hall of Fame still matters and how it can remain relevant in the 21st century People, Law And Justice: Casebook On Public Interest Litigation (Vol. II) Ahuja,1997 This two volume book documents all the reported and unreported cases of Public Interest Litigation PIL from its inception in 1979 to April 1994 The author stresses that the law is not autonomous but embodies the priorities of those involved in establishing and maintaining a legal system She shows how PIL provides a means whereby the terms of the legal discourse may be challenged equally she shows how PIL suffers paradoxically by being a part of the very system it seeks to question

Australian Books in Print ,1987 Haunted Halls Elizabeth Tucker,2009-10-20 Why do so many American college students tell stories about encounters with ghosts In Haunted Halls the first book length interpretive study of college ghostlore Elizabeth Tucker takes the reader back to school to get acquainted with a wide range of college spirits Some of the best known ghosts that she discusses are Emory University s Dooley who can disband classes by shooting professors with his water pistol Mansfield University s Sara who threw herself down a flight of stairs after being rejected by her boyfriend and Huntingdon College s Red Lady who slit her wrists while dressed in a red robe Gettysburg College students have collided with ghosts of soldiers while students at St Mary of the Woods College have reported frightening glimpses of the Faceless

Nun Tucker presents campus ghostlore from the mid 1960s to 2006 with special attention to stories told by twenty first century students through e mail and instant messages Her approach combines social psychological and cultural analysis with close attention to students own explanations of the significance of spectral phenomena As metaphors of disorder insanity and school spirit college ghosts convey multiple meanings Their colorful stories warn students about the dangers of overindulgence as well as the pitfalls of potentially horrifying relationships Besides offering insight into students initiation into campus life college ghost stories make important statements about injustices suffered by Native Americans African Americans and others
