The Great Stain Noel Rae,2018-02-20 Eyewitness testimonies to the culture and commerce of slavery coupled with smart commentary from an acclaimed historian Essential Kirkus Reviews In this important book Noel Rae integrates firsthand accounts into a narrative history that brings the reader face to face with slavery's everyday reality From the travel journals of sixteenth century Spanish settlers who offered religious instruction and protection in exchange for farm labor to the diaries of Reverend Cotton Mather to Central Park designer Frederick Law Olmsted's travelogue about the cotton states to an 1880 speech given by Frederick Douglass Rae provides a comprehensive portrait of the antebellum history of the nation Most significant are the testimonies from former slaves themselves ranging from the famous Solomon Northup to the virtually unknown Mary Reynolds who was sold away from her mother as child Drawing on thousands of original sources The Great Stain tells of a society based on the exploitation of labor and fallacies of racial superiority Meticulously researched this is a work of history that is profoundly relevant to our world today Noel Rae expertly assembles the most consequential accounts from the era of the American slave trade A vivid and comprehensive picture Ibram X Kendi National Book Award winning author of Stamped From the Beginning The Definitive History of Racist Ideas in America Uniquely immediate multivoiced specific arresting and illuminating Booklist Many histories have been written of slavery in America but far too few have let the participants and particularly the victims speak so directly for themselves Rae has helped to fill that historical vacuum in this important work and the voices are intense eloquent and haunting National Book Review A Black Women's History of the United States Daina Ramey Berry, Kali Nicole Gross, 2020-02-04 The award winning Revisioning American History series continues with this groundbreaking new history of Black women in the United States Ibram X Kendi the perfect companion to An Indigenous People's History of the United States and An African American and Latinx History of the United States An empowering and intersectional history that centers the stories of African American women across 400 years showing how they are and have always been instrumental in shaping our country In centering Black women's stories two award winning historians seek both to empower African American women and to show their allies that Black women's unique ability to make their own communities while combatting centuries of oppression is an essential component in our continued resistance to systemic racism and sexism Daina Ramey Berry and Kali Nicole Gross offer an examination and celebration of Black womanhood beginning with the first African women who arrived in what became the United States to African American women of today A Black Women's History of the United States reaches far beyond a single narrative to showcase Black women's lives in all their fraught complexities Berry and Gross prioritize many voices enslaved women freedwomen religious leaders artists queer women activists and women who lived outside the law The result is a starting point for exploring Black women's history and a testament to the beauty richness rhythm tragedy heartbreak rage and enduring love that abounds in the spirit of Black women in communities throughout the nation The Print Connoisseur, 1922 Learning with the Lights Off Devin Orgeron, Marsha Orgeron, Marsha Gordon, Dan Streible, 2012-01-06 Learning With the Lights Off is the first collection of essays to address the phenomenon of film's educational uses in 20th century America Each essay analyzes in
