Prison The:

The American Prison Francis T. Cullen, Cheryl Lero Jonson, Mary K. Stohr, 2013-04-11 For the first time in four decades prison populations are declining and politicians have reached the consensus that mass imprisonment is no longer sustainable At this unique moment in the history of corrections the opportunity has emerged to discuss in meaningful ways how best to shape efforts to control crime and to intervene effectively with offenders This breakthrough book brings together established correctional scholars to imagine what this prison future might entail Each scholar uses his or her expertise to craft in an accessible way for students to read a blueprint for how to create a new penology along a particular theme For example one contributor writes about how to use existing research expertise to create a prison that is therapeutic and another provides insight on how to create a feminist prison In the final chapter the editors pull together the lessons learned in a cohesive comprehensive essay

The Cultural Prison John M. Sloop, 2006-01-08 The Cultural Prison brings a new dimension to the study of prisoners and punishment by focusing on how the punishment of American offenders is represented and shaped in the mass media through public arguments

The Society of Prisoners Renaud Morieux, 2019 Very little has been written of the history of prisoners of war before the twentieth century and Renaud Morieux seeks to correct this in this new history of war captivity in the eighteenth century mining archives in Britain and France to take a fresh look at international relations through the histories of prisoners and host communities

The Puzzle of Prison Order David Skarbek, 2020 Many people think prisons are all the same rows of cells filled with violent men who officials rule with an iron fist Yet life behind bars varies in incredible ways In some facilities prison officials govern with care and attention to prisoners needs In others officials have remarkably little influence on the everyday life of prisoners sometimes not even providing necessities like food and clean water Why does prison social order around the world look so remarkably different In The Puzzle of Prison Order David Skarbek develops a theory of why prisons and prison life vary so much He finds that how they are governed sometimes by the state and sometimes by the prisoners matters the most He investigates life in a wide array of prisons in Brazil Bolivia Norway a prisoner of war camp England and Wales women's prisons in California and a gay and transgender housing unit in the Los Angeles County Jail to understand the hierarchy of life on the inside Drawing on economics and a vast empirical literature on legal systems Skarbek offers a framework to not only understand why life on the inside varies in such fascinating and novel ways but also how social order evolves and takes root behind bars

Women's Imprisonment and the Case for Abolition Linda Moore, Phil Scraton, Azrini Wahidin, 2017-11-20 In 2007 the Corston Report recommended a far reaching radical women centred approach to women s imprisonment in England and Wales It suggested a fundamental re thinking about how services to support women in conflict with the law are delivered in custody and in the community recommending the development and implementation of a decarceration strategy This argued for appropriate treatment programmes in the community reserving prison for only those women who commit serious and violent offences Ten years on what progress has been made What is the relationship between Corston s vision and a more radical abolitionist agenda Drawing on a range of international scholarship this book contributes to the critical discourse on the penal system human rights and social injustice revealing the consequences of imprisonment on the lives of women and their families A decade on from Corston s publication it critically reviews her report revealing the slow progress in meeting the reforms it proposed Identifying the significant barriers to change it questions the failure to reverse the unrelenting growth of the women s prison population or to transform state responses to women s offending Reflecting the global expansion of women s imprisonment particularly marked in advanced democratic societies the chapters include comparative contributions from jurisdictions where Corston s recommendations have relevance It concludes with a critical appraisal of reformism and the case for penal abolition Essential for applied and theory courses on prisons punishment and penology social justice and the criminology of human rights gender and crime and feminist criminology

Stohr,Anthony Walsh,2016-12-01 Corrections From Research to Policy to Practice offers students a 21st century look into the treatment and rehabilitative themes that drive modern day corrections Written by two academic scholars and former practitioners Mary K Stohr and Anthony Walsh this book provides students with a comprehensive and practical understanding of corrections as well as coverage of often overlooked topics like ethics comparative corrections offender classification and assessment treatment modalities and specialty courts This text expertly weaves together research policy and practice enabling students to walk away with a foundational understanding of effective punishment and treatment strategies for offenders in U S correctional institutions The Time beneath the Concrete Nasser Abourahme,2025-01-24 In The Time beneath the Concrete Nasser Abourahme argues that settler colonialism is always as much an attempt to conquer time as it is to conquer land Taking as his primary object Palestinian refugee camps created in the fallout of the eliminatory violence of Israel s founding Abourahme shows how these camps become the primary place where settler colonial attempts to dominate space and time encounter Indigenous refusal Seen from the camps Israel becomes a settler colonial project defined by its inability to move past the past a project stuck at its foundational moment of conquest At the same time the Palestinian insistence on return is a refusal to abide by the closure of the past into settler futurity Palestinian struggle does not just happen in the open time of dispossession it happens over this time That struggle Abourahme demonstrates is a form of anticolonial refusal that draws its power not from any decisive finality but precisely from irresolution and keeping time open Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award The Joseph Paradox Hillel I. interpretation as an Horatio Alger success story the text proposes that we are presented with a cautionary tale of high achievement and the pursuit of success In the context of the larger biblical narrative Joseph s short term success leads to the enslavement of his descendants and the centuries long derailment of the destiny of the Children of Israel The self limiting nature of the pursuit of power is just one of the themes illuminated in this work Annual Report ...
