National Prisoner Statistics United States. Bureau of Prisons, 1929     Prisoners in State and Federal Prisons and Reformatories United States. Bureau of the Census, 1929     Albany Law Journal, 1890     Material Detention Conditions, Execution of Custodial Sentences and Prisoner Transfer in the EU Member States Gert Vermeulen, 2011

In 2008, for the European Union, the introduction of the Framework Decision, the principle of mutual recognition to judgments in criminal matters imposing custodial sentences or measures involving deprivation of liberty for the purpose of their enforcement, sparked discussions as to whether the practical operation of the instrument would be compatible with its very objective, being the enhancement of detained persons' social rehabilitation prospects. Transferring detained people back to their respective Member State of residence and/or nationality within the mutual recognition framework is somewhat precarious in light of the variety of Member States' legal and prison systems. In this context and following a call for tender by the European Commission, the authors of this book conducted the largest study to date on Member States' material detention conditions, early conditional release provisions, and sentence execution modalities. In addition to exploring the diversity of legal frameworks, the study also assessed practitioners' views on the cross-border execution of custodial sentences in the EU. The book contains individual Member State reports resulting from legal practitioners' analyses, backed by additional information drawn from monitoring and evaluation conducted at the Council of Europe Committee for the Prevention of Torture and United Nations levels. This will be essential reading for EU policy makers, judicial and law enforcement authorities, and defense lawyers. Additionally, it will be an asset to everyone who is involved in or taking an interest in detention issues and cross-border execution of judgements involving deprivation of liberty in the EU.

the organized murder of millions of European Jews and Gypsies in the death factories of Auschwitz and Treblinka By the end of this book Sofsky shows that the German concentration camp system cannot be seen as a temporary lapse into barbarism Instead it must be conceived as a product of modern civilization where institutionalized state run human cruelty became possible with or without the mobilizing feelings of hatred      Guardhouses and Confinement Facilities ,1946
