Forced to share her body with Rene Sarelle works diligently with the sorceress's ghost to magically build her a new body even as attacks by vampire hunters escalate threatening all Sarelle holds dear. As Hayden's defenses crumble Sarelle magically escapes certain death only to become Michael's prisoner along with Lash. Faced with an eternity of captivity and Lash's impending death Sarelle forges a Hellish pact changing her life forever. The Romantic Prison Victor H. Brombert, 2015-03-08 Prison haunts our civilization writes Victor Brombert. Object of fear it is also a subject of poetic reverie. Focusing on French literature of the Romantic era the author probes the manifold significance of imprisonment as symbol and metaphor of the human condition. His thematic exploration draws on a constellation of writers ranging from the Platonic and Christian traditions to the Existentialist generation. Professor Brombert points out that nineteenth and twentieth century literature endowed the prison image with unusual prestige and he examines the historical and social reasons. After considering the influence of Pascal and of the myth of the Bastille he closely analyzes the work of Borel Stendhal Victor Hugo Nerval Baudelaire Huysmans and Sartre with excursions into texts by Byron Dostoevsky Kafka Solzhenitsyn Sade and others. His approach reflects a concern with the interaction of literature historiography and popular myth. This imaginative treatment deepens our understanding of Romanticism and its favored themes. It offers fresh thoughts as well about modern man's dialectical tensions between oppression and inner freedom fate and revolt and the awareness of the finite and the longing for infinity. A wide ranging conclusion speculates about the future of the prison theme in a world that has been threatened by extermination camps.
