The prisons (Le carceri) by Giovanni Battista Piranesi ,1973 A Companion to Herman Melville Wyn Kelley, 2015-08-17 In a series of 35 original essays this companion demonstrates the relevance of Melville's works in the twenty first century Presents 35 original essays by scholars from around the world representing a range of different approaches to Melville Considers Melville in a global context and looks at the impact of global economies and technologies on the way people read Melville Takes account of the latest and most sophisticated scholarship including postcolonial and feminist perspectives Locates Melville in his cultural milieu revising our views of his politics on race gender and democracy Reveals Melville as a more contemporary writer than his critics have sometimes assumed The Space of Technicity Robert Gorny, Stavros Kousoulas, Dulmini Perera, Andrej Radman, 2024-04-15 Desperate times demand optimistic transdisciplinary measures This volume unites a select group of thinkers who courageously traverse disciplinary boundaries What brings them together is the least stratified component a shared problem It is a widely recognised that a problem gets the solution it merits However only a few acknowledge that a problem seldom neatly fits within a single discipline nor does it conform to the principle of general equivalence Handling its irreducibility and non entailment is a skill possessed by very few Even fewer take the quasi causal capacity of what we term the space of technicity seriously The space of technicity the shared problem of this volume is a consequence of immanence Each configuration of surfaces comprising the built environment produces an intangible effect acting as a quasi cause It can be referred to as downward causation or the timely rediscovery of neo finalism In this volume it is approached it from the perspective of axiology The space of technicity allows us to evade techno determinism without adopting an anything goes attitude That which has become manifest could have individuated differently However the potential of a body cannot be discerned before intervening in the causal fabric of agential reality to extract the singular points that make certain outcomes more likely than others surpassing mere probability When operating within the ethico aesthetic paradigm where sense becomes intricately dependent on sensibility and vice versa the volume's attitude might be said to approximate the Spinozian third kind of knowledge that intuits design and its space of technicity beyond mere imagination or reason This edited volume was inspired by a virtual round table that exhibited a high degree of resonance among the participants www.youtube.com/watch?v=cBiBAgxC5FM Mediating Chicana/o Culture Scott L. Baugh, 2008-12-18 Mediating Chicana o Culture Multicultural American Vernacular covers an unconventional array of topics from handkerchiefs votives and graffiti to food f tbol and the Internet as well as cutting edge literature cinema photography and more In its cross disciplinary approach this collection makes an invaluable contribution to the scholarship on Chicana and Chicano culture and provides engaging readings for courses in race ethnic studies media studies and American studies Collected chapters critically interrogate the underlying tensions between personal expressions and public demonstrations in their on going negotiation of Chicana and Chicano identity Drawing on the revolutionary work of Gloria Anzald a T mas Ybarra Frausto Emma P rez Alfred Arteaga Chela Sandoval Julia Watson and Sidonie Smith the Latina Feminist Group among others chapters in this collection closely read the processes that seem built into the actions and behaviors the products the art the literature and the discourse surrounding the search for identity in the rush of our diverse 21st century existence Mediating Chicana o Culture lays bare the methods by which we define ourselves as individuals and as members of communities examining not only the message but also the medium and the methods of mediating identity and culture

Rethinking Dwelling Jeff Malpas,2021-07-15 Over the last twenty years Jeff Malpas research has involved his engagement with architects and other academics around the issues of place architecture and landscape and particularly the way these practitioners have used the work of Martin Heidegger In Rethinking Dwelling Malpas primary focus is to rethink of these issues in a way that is directly informed by an understanding of place and the human relation it With essays on a range of architectural and design concerns as well as engaging with other thinkers on topics including textuality in architecture contemporary high rise construction the significance of the line the relation between building and memory and the idea of authenticity in architecture this book departs from the traditional phenomenological focus and provides students and scholars with a new ontological assessment of landscape and architecture As such it may also be used on other spatial or topographic disciplines including geography sociology anthropology and art in which the spatial turn has been so important

Crimes of Writing Susan Stewart,1991-08-15 From the origins of modern copyright in early eighteenth century culture to the efforts to represent nature and death in postmodern fiction this pioneering book explores a series of problems regarding the containment of representation Stewart focuses on specific cases of crimes of writing the forgeries of George Psalmanazar the production of fakelore the ballad scandals of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the imposture of Thomas Chatterton and contemporary legislation regarding graffiti and pornography In this way she emphasizes the issues which arise once language is seen as a matter of property and authorship is viewed as a matter of originality Finally Stewart demonstrates that crimes of writing are delineated by the law because they specifically undermine the status of the law itself the crimes illuminate the irreducible fact that law is written and therefore subject to temporality and interpretation Art
