kings queens and princes whose garden obsessions changed the landscape of England itself from Stuart Georgian and Victorian England to today's Windsor. Here are William and Mary who brought Dutch gardens and bulbs to Britain, William who twice had his entire garden lowered in order to see the river from his apartments and his successor Queen Anne who like many others since vowed to spend little on her gardens and instead spent millions. Floud also writes of Frederick Prince of Wales the founder of Kew Gardens who spent more than 40 000 on a single twenty five foot tulip tree for Carlton House, Queen Victoria who built the largest most advanced and most efficient kitchen garden in Britain and Prince Charles who created and designed the gardens of Highgrove inspired by his boyhood memories of his grandmother's gardens. We see Sarah Duchess of Marlborough who created a magnificent garden at Blenheim Palace only to tear it apart and build a greater one, Deborah Duchess of Devonshire the savior of Chatsworth's 100 acre garden in the midst of its 35 000 acres and the gardens of lesser mortals among them Gertrude Jekyll and Vita Sackville West both notable garden designers and writers. We see the designers of royal estates among them Henry Wise, William Kent, Humphrey Repton and the greatest of all English gardeners Capability Brown who created the 150 acre lake of Blenheim Palace earned millions annually and designed more than 170 parks many still in existence today. We learn how gardening became a major catalyst for innovation, central heating came from experiments to heat greenhouses with hot water pipes, how the new iron industry of industrializing Britain supplied a myriad of tools, mowers, pumps and the boilers that heated the greenhouses and finally Floud explores how gardening became an enormous industry as well as an art form in Britain and by the nineteenth century was unrivaled anywhere in the world.

The English Country House Garden George Plumptre, 2018-10-02 This book will inspire and delight the stories of these gardens so compellingly captured by George Plumptre make the reader stop and tarry awhile, marvelling at the energy, the vision and the passion of the people who created gardens such as Hidcote, Sissinghurst and Great Dixter. The English Garden: A feast of horticulture and Englishness. Here is a space to wander and relax, to share secrets and above all to enjoy afternoon tea. But even the most peaceful of gardens also take passion and hard work to create. This new book takes a fresh look at the English country house garden starting with the owners and the stories behind the making of the gardens. Glorious photographs capture the gardens at their finest moments through the seasons and a sparkling and erudite text presents twenty five gardens, some grand, some personal, some celebrated, some never before photographed to explore why this garden style has been so very enduring and influential. From the Victorian grandeur of Tyntesfield and Cragside to the Arts and Crafts from Scampston in the same family since the 17th century to new gardens by Dan Pearson and Tom Stuart-Smith and with favourites such as Hidcote and Great Dixter alongside new discoveries, this book will be a delicious treat for garden lovers.
