Divided into four sections, the book presents contributions from high-level police executives, practitioners and academics. Policing Crime Control and the Community explores community policing in Latin America and the United States and describes the effectiveness of a zero tolerance policy in New York City. It also presents a historical case study of policing in Portugal. Policing Politics and Democracy examines challenges confronting developing countries, policing in Brazil, police accountability mechanisms in India and concerns regarding the democratization of policing. Policing Global Challenges considers a range of contemporary issues within the policing environment, including policing cyberspace, police agencies striving for legitimacy, how law enforcement policies travel worldwide and the problems of organized crime and people smuggling. Police Leadership, Management, Education and Organization reflects on the growing issue of police reform. It discusses the infusion of private sector thinking into state police organizations, conflicts between police unions and management, training and models for police education and police accountability in Bangladesh.
