Hannikainen, 2017-05-15 The long term development of public green spaces such as parks public gardens and recreation grounds in London during the twentieth century is a curiously neglected subject despite the fact that various kinds of green spaces cover huge areas in cities in the UK today This book explores how and why public green spaces have been created and used in London and what actors have been involved in their evolution during the course of the twentieth century Building on case studies of the contemporary boroughs of Camden and Southwark and making use of a wealth of archival material the author takes us through the planning and creation stages to the intended and actual uses and ongoing management of the spaces By highlighting the rise and fall of municipal authorities and the impact of neo liberalism after the 1970s the book also deepens our understanding of how London has been governed planned and ruled during the twentieth century It makes a crucial contribution to academic as well as political discourse on the history and present role of green space in sustainable cities From Garden Art to Landscape Architecture Joachim Wolschke-Bulmahn, Ronald Clark, 2021-04-26 Originally the area of responsibility for landscape architecture was based on the premise that the planning and creating of open spaces such as parks and gardens was the business of garden artists Today the training of landscape architects and future challenges of the profession include the protection of natural resources and the environment urban planning or tourism to name but a few The international symposium From Garden Art to Landscape Architecture Traditions Re Evaluations and Future Perspectives addressed questions which based on the idea of garden art should help to reconstruct its historical development but also discussed the notion and the relevance of art in everyday work The contributions critically reflect on the professional self image of landscape architects at the beginning of the 21st century The symposium in September 2018 was co organized by the City and State Capital of Hannover s Herrenhausen Gardens Division the Deutsche Gesellschaft f r Gartenkunst und Landschaftsarchitektur DGGL the Volkswagen Foundation and the Centre of Garden Art and Landscape Architectur The Routledge Handbook of Urban Ecology Ian Douglas, David Goode, Michael C.
